Guard Your Interests.—PROWSE BROS. want the People

TO BUY GOODS WHERE THEY CAN BUY THE CHEAPEST.

Without a doubt the wonderful Cheap Men knock competition out of the fight. Many firms advertize they are the cheapest and that is PROWSE BROTHERS.

A man can clothe his boy or himself for very little money and look good enough to travel any part of the world. Our advise is never travel to try and find a cheaper store to buy clothing, because it can't be found. Because we sell the cheapest. Why? Because we buy the cheapest.

Rev. W. L. BROWN.

THE CONQUEROR HAS COME!

Heart Trouble, Dyspepsia, DIZZINESS, AND Muscular Rheumatism CURED!

REV. W. L. BROWN, FOR YEARS A MEMBER OF THE M. E. CHURCH BUT FOR THE LAST TEN YEARS AN EVANGELIST IN THE CHURCH OF GOD. HIS IS WELL KNOWN BY THOUSANDS WHO WILL VOUCH FOR THE TRUTH OF THE FOLLOWING:

GENTS:—I write to inform you that the TWO COURSES of SKODA'S DISCOVERY and LITTLE TABLETS have done wonders for me. I can hardly realize it, the change has been so marked.

I contracted the Chronic Diarrhœa in the Army, and since 1865 I have been a constant sufferer. In addition to this, I was troubled as follows: 1st a lame Back and Kidney trouble, 2d, Dyspepsia, 3d, Faintness and an all-gone feeling; 4th, Distress at pit of Stomach; 5th, Headache and Dizziness; 6th, Muscular Rheumatism in Chest So I had to BETTER THAN lie in bed for weeks at a time; 7th, a Severe Heart Trouble that would cause my pulse to run at 98 for days at a time. I was treated by very eminent Physicians, but would be compelled to leave my labors and return to my home weeks at a time—in fact I have had 18 fits of sickness in the last 26 years, and several times have been given up to die.

I feel that I am completely cured of of all my bodily diseases except the Diarrhœa, which is not cured but greatly benefited, COLD I shall take another course which I think will cure me entirely. Yours with gratitude,

REV. W. L. BROWN.

FARRAR SPEAKS,

Why He Left the Globe.

EDWARD FARRER.

TORONTO, July 28.—In an interview published this morning, Mr. Farrar, whose resignation of the position of chief editorial writer of the Globe staff was announced yesterday, said: "Briefly my reason for resigning is this: I have for some time felt the inconsistency and illogicalness of my position on the Globe. My private opinions, it so happens, were publicly announced on one occasion, and although not shouting them from a house-top since, I have never denied them. Mr. Mowat is a stockholder of the Globe, and one of the most prominent members of the party of which it is the mouthpiece. He really dislikes and repudiates my views in regard to the destiny of this country, and recently has taken many occasions of publicly expressing his belief in what I justly believe to be its unavoidable future. It is true there is no necessity of intruding my private views on that point into the columns of the Globe, and they never were so intruded. Nevertheless, there was such a discrepancy between my known private views and those which Mr. Mowat has been recently so freely declaring, that I felt the inconsistency and even absurdity of the whole situation. I desired to resign more than once, but have always been persuaded not to do so This week, however, I insisred on it, and the rest you know."

TORONTO, July 28.—Much interest is taken in newspaper circles in the resignation of Edward Farrar. Farrar, when interviewed, said: "My agreement with the Globe had a year to run, but about six weeks ago the directors and Sir Oliver Mowatt, who saw annsxation in everything I wrote, had a battle royal, and they refused to get rid of me. News of it came to my ears and after some consideration I decided it was not fair to the directors who had defended me so stoutly, that my presence on the editorial staff should embarrass them in their relations with the only man who has anything in the shape of patronage to give, so I handed in my resignation. They objected at first, but I made it imperative, and they finally accepted it.

Full of Years and Honors.

The funeral of the Rev. Benjamin Dawson, in his life-time one of the most esteemed citizens of Montreal, takes place from his late residence, 41 McGill College avenue, this afternoon at half-past two.

Mr. Dawson was born in Prince Edward Island in March, 1804. In 1848 he came to this city and started a book and stationary store on Notre Dame street in partnership with his son, Mr. Samuel Dawson, now Queen's Printer at Ottawa, under the style of B. Dawson & Son. Afterwards the firm removed to Place d'Armes. The business flourished, and still more commodious premises became necessary. The old post office site on St. James street was then purchased, and the name of the firm changed to Dawson Brothers. Meanwhile, in private life, Mr. Dawson, senior, was closely connected with religious movements it Montreal. He was a member of the Episcopal church at the inception of the reformed church movement, in which he took an active interest, being, indeed, the leader of that body in Montreal.

There he took holy orders and was ordained deacon of the Reformed church. He did much good and lasting work in furthering the interests of his church and was held in high esteem in clerical and social circles. He leaves six sons and two daughters. The eldest son, Mr. Thomas Dawson, carries on a printing and publishing business in Quebec city; Samuel Dawson occupies the post of Queen's printer in Ottawa; John Tempest Dawson is in business in the old country; The fourth son, Mr. W. V. Dawson, is engaged in the Montreal firm; the fifth son, Benjamin Dawson, is retired from business, having been partner in the firm of Messrs. John Hope & Co.; Henry Dawson, the youngest son, is engaged in the wholesale book trade in New York.

Obituary.

BARNARD.—Jabez Alder Barnard was born in Charlottetown, P. E Island, Jan. 10, 1820, and departed this life in Grand Rapids, June 21, 1892.

He was the second son of Mr. Jabez Barnard, an English gentleman of sterling piety and integrity, who leaving the old country made his home in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, British North America. At the early age of 16, during an extensive revival under Rev. Richard Knight, in March, 1836, he was soundly converted. From then to the time of his death he retained his trust in God and lived worthily. Uniting with the Wesleyan church he continued in its membership 56 years. Jan. 1, 1841, he was united in marriage to Sarah, daughter of Mr. James Moore. She became a subject of divine grace and one of the first fruits of the same blessed revival, and for 51 years and six months they walked together in holy wedlock. In 1849 Mr. Barnard in company with 50 other young men left the port of Charlottetown in the brig "Fannie," which they purchased and loaded, setting sail for the gold fields of California, at which place after a voyage of six months they arrived. Here he remained two years, then sailed from San Francisco for his native place, but was taken sick and landed on one of the Sandwich Islands. He remained amongst the islands for three years, working with the missionaries and assisting to build the first mission stations on those islands, and teaching two of the natives the trade of house building. There is now in the hands of his children a beautiful testimonal to his fidelity and uprightness, written by one of the chiefs and translated by one of missionarys in the island of Molokai. Mr. Barnard returned to his native place in 1855, spending five years with his family. In 1860 he removed to Boston, and from thence to Grand Rapids in 1881. Uniting with the church here he continued his membership to the end. He wished to the last to be placed in a kneeling position while he prayed to his Heavenly Father, and one amongst his last petitions was, "Come Lord Jesus, and come quickly." He leaves a loving wife, one son and four daughters to mourn their loss, being inspired his example and parental training to tread in his footsteps. B. MOORE.
