Mrs. Francis Griffin, Charlottetown, spent a few days of the week of March 13 with her mother, Mrs. Patrick Clarkin, Peakes Road.

Best wishes were extended to Mrs. Henry Clarkin on March 8 when she celebrated her eightieth birthday. This grand old lady is enjoying good health and has recently started on her fifth hooked rug this season.

Mr. Huntley Stewart had the misfortune of being hit on the head by a falling tree while he and his brother, Arthur, were engaged in cutting lumber in their wood-lot. Medical attention was required and all join in wishing him an early recovery.

Rev. Father Gallagher, from the Holy Redeemer Parish, Charlottetown, opened and closed the annual retreat for high school students and others which was held in St. Teresa Convent, March 11-13.

The sympathy of this vicinity is extended to the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. James McAree, whose funerals took place within two weeks of each other to St. Cuthberts Church, St. Teresa.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael McGuirk,

Bristol

*Mrs. Annie Lewis and her sister Mrs. Rose Gallagher, who were here from Boston to attend the funeral of their father the late Wm. McMillan, left last week on return to their homes in that city. Mrs. Lewis said her father-in-law was formerly from St. Peter's Bay and moved quite a number of years ago to Boston. Her sister-in-law is married to Jim Moore a former resident of this vicinity; his old home is now owned by Mr. Frank Laybolt. Few of the younger class remember Annie and Rose McMillan, as it is more than a quarter of a century since they left the old home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hill have come to this vicinity from Summerside to take up residence at St. Peter's, where Mr. Hill will be employed with the C. N. R., replacing one of the older hands who has retired. The Hill family are receiving a big welcome to their new home.

Mrs. William Conohan who decided to reside here for the winter months with her daughter, has changed her mind again and gone back to the city to live. Despite her years this fine old lady does a lot of travelling.

Fishermen state it's not likely any of the new lobster traps being demonstrated in the city at the fishermen's gatherings will be used here this season at least, as most of the fishing gear is in readiness, especially the building of traps that went on for the past two months. The big worry now is to get the traps hauled to the shore over bad roads. Some are several miles from the seaside. The season's opening date is only a month away.

Mr. Ted Anderson, who has left recently for Montreal, where they plan to spend a vacation with their sons.

Miss Doris Donnelly returned to her home March 12, after visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Currie, Charlottetown.

Mr. John Anstie, spent the week-end of March 12 with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anstie, Montague.

Congratulations are being extended to the Rev. Sisters, and pupils of St. Teresa School on their recent winning in the Art Contest, Charlottetown.

spent a great many years around the packing plants as fireman engineer and foreman, informs us he has had employment right through the winter with the Griffin packing Co. at Souris, where a lot of work is being done on the new plant. Quite a number of girls from this vicinity also expect to get steady employment at the plant for the spring and summer months as they did last year; making the round trip daily in a pick-up truck.

Mr. Joe MacDonald, who sold out his farming equipment and stock two weeks ago, expects to take up a different line of employment in the city next week we are informed.

Ralph and Clement Sinnott were week-end visitors here from the city along with the sister Francis Sinnott of the income tax office.

Mr. R. B. Bennett has had a big season here in the canning of chickens, other meats and vegetables. Mr. Bennett says he would prefer chickens alive as some people make a very poor job of removing the feathers and this delays the work. The birds need to be mouth bled to make the feathers come right off. The old style of chopping of the heads is gone forever.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Drake, who have spent the winter in Halifax, are expected back here shortly to their old home port. This fine old couple were nearly killed in a car accident two years ago and Mr. Drake was on crutches for a long time.

We understand that Mr. and Mrs. Ben Drake, who reside in Nova Scotia, will come to Bristol to reside this spring to make it their future home in the evening of life. This fine old couple will be very welcome here.

The very serious illness of Mr. John A. MacDonald, better known as little Jack, at his home in Scotchfort is very much regretted by his host of friends here. All hope to hear he is on the mend soon. His daughter Dorothy has arrived home from Montreal, called by her father's illness. Mrs. MacDonald, is a sister of Mrs. Frank Kelly, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Anderson were business visitors to the city on Monday. Billie is employed with the C. N. R. extra gang in the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser are planning to move to Nufrage Harbor early in the spring for the fishing season. Mr. Fraser is one of the big fishers there.
