NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, Oct. 27.

Previous to his departure for America next month, Parnell will visit his large English constituencies and Anglo-Irish committees for the furtherance of the object of the Irish National Land League to be formed with the central Committee in London.

A land meeting at Enniscorthy, yesterday, 6000 persons were addressed by Parnell.

The editor of the "Sportsman" has sent Haulan by mail a formal demand for the return of the Challenge Cup. Meanwhile the Trustees have been invited to consider Elliott's proposal to include the Cup in his race with Boyd.

The liabilities of W. D. Tomlinson & Co. are estimated from £60,000 to £100,000, principally due to bankers and private merchantile firms. The concern, it is reported, have claims for differences on annual contracts, which have not yet passed through the Liverpool clearing house.

LONDON, Oct. 27.

Rosenberg, publisher of Town Talk, was to-day sentenced to eighteen months' imprisonment for libelling Mrs. Langely, and six months' imprisonment on each of two indictments for offences against Mrs. West and Lord Londesborough. At the expiration of imprisonment he is to be bound over in £1,000 for good behaviour for eighteen months.

BERLIN, Oct. 27.

Intelligence from St. Petersburg has reached here stating that the new revolutionary party in Russia has distributed the first number of their journal entitled "The Will of the People." It declares war against the Government, and its tone is very violent.

The report that there was a conference in the Foreign office on Sunday between the German Ambassadors and that of France, England, and Russia, has attracted much attention in Berlin. The conference was connected with Prince Bismarck's visit to Vienna.

AFGHANISTAN.

CABUL, Oct. 27.

Yakoob Khan is voluntarily in General Roberts' camp, and is in a pitiable state of apathy and depression.

LONDON, Oct. 27.

A Calcutta despatch says the new rules for the guidance of newspaper correspondents in the field have aroused indignation.
The object evidently is to put it in the power of a General to suppress everything savoring of criticism.

The "Times" Simla despatch says the idea must be abandoned that we intend to stand aloof from internal affairs. Afghanistan cannot be too soon informed that we mean to remain in the country. The tendency of opinion at Simla strongly favors the policy of disintegration rather than an attempt to set up a strong central Government at Cabul.

CABUL, Oct. 27.

General Roberts has received a visit from 100 Kohistan chiefs, who promised friendship.

The Ghilzais have again been repulsed by the British force in Shutargardan.

One of the saddest accidents that has ever taken place in Chatham, says the Miramichi "Advance," happened on Thursday evening last, about half-past nine o'clock, on board the barkentine "Gladstone," lying at the Public Wharf, near Mr. Peter Loggie's Mill, from which she was just prepared to commence loading with deals. It appears that Willie K.
Heard, aged 17 years, son of George Heard, Esq., timber merchant, Swansea, England, left the house of his employer, Hon. Wm.
Muirhead, about 9 o'clock, and proceeded to the "Gladstone" for the purpose of seeing Captain Richard Davies, the master, who belongs to Swansea, as does nearly the whole crew of the vessel. On boarding the "Gladstone" he found that the captain was on shore, but expected on board in a short time, so he remained in the cabin talking with the second mate or boatswain, George Locke, also of Swansea. Within a few minutes of half-past nine, Willie heard the Captain coming on board and went out of the cabin to meet him. The cabin door was on the port side and the Captain was coming over the vessel's side. The lad could not cross the deck between the after hatch and pumps on account of some casks being in the way, so he followed on the port side, and just as Locke, who was close to him, cried out for him to look out for the open main hatch, he turned, tripped over the combing, fell through the hatchway, received injuries which resulted in his death a few hours afterwards. (The deceased was a nephew of William Heard, Esq., of this city who was the only relation present on the sad occasion.)

Two men, by name Wm. Donnelly and Ephraim Sherard, while blasting rock on the North West Miramichi, Oct. 24th, met with a terrible accident. The charge being fired and not going off, they went back to investigate the cause, when an explosion took place severely injuring both men.
Sherard was mortally wounded, his eyes being blown out and one arm blown off.
While being carried home he died. Donnelly is expected to recover.

COAL CONTINUES TO ADVANCE.

A despatch from Philadelphia reports another advance of 25c per ton in coal to take effect on the 1st November. This, along with the sharp advance in freights, will doubtless cause a further rise in prices here, which as yet, are very reasonable.

THE COASTING TRADE.

On Saturday afternoon a St. John Sun reporter paid a visit to several coasting schooners lying in the Market Slip for the purpose of obtaining some information in regard to the business carried on by them, its proportions during the past summer, and whether it has been profitable or not, etc. From his inquiries we learn that the coasting trade has not been carried on to such an extent as in former years, nor so profitable to many of the schooners engaged therein, that on the whole the business has been generally satisfactory, and that all have paid something over and above running expenses, while a number have realized something handsome for their owners.

Bad for Libellers.

The editor of Town Talk, a London "personal journal," has come to grief, in consequence of his libels on Mrs. Langtry, and Mrs. Cornwallis West. The libel on the former lady was a particularly atrocious one, for it stated that her husband had filed a bill for a divorce against her and that the Prince of Wales and one or two other distinguished persons would be cognizant in the suit. The story was utterly false and malicious and was one of these statements which are "made out of whole cloth." As a reward for his libels the editor of Town Talk will spend the next two years and a half within the walls of a prison and when his term of imprisonment expires will have to give heavy bonds for his good behaviour for another year and a half. That he will not be required to work during his term of imprisonment is due to the state of the law and not to the mercy of the Judge who sentenced him, for that functionary would have gladly set Mr.
Rosenberg to picking oakum or some such unintellectual pursuit had the law only permitted him.

While the sentence is undoubtedly a severe one, it can scarcely be said that it is greater than the offence. In fact the libel is so detestable in its character and so utterly groundless that it is clear Rosenberg must have been imposed upon by some one, unless, indeed, the editor is an absolute fool. But it is the duty of an editor to make full inquiry before he publishes matter which affects private character, and the editor of "Town Talk" should have made certain of his information being accurate before he printed it. No doubt the conviction of Rosenberg will have a beneficial effect, especially in London, where "personal journalism" has been carried, in too many instances, to the extreme of scandalous mendacity. Of course these papers will lose a great deal in spice piquancy, but they will gain something in decency, through the restraint which this verdict will put upon them.
