Magnificent Programme Arranged For Charlottetown Festive Week

Charlottetown is putting on the biggest show in its history, from July 1st to 7th. The Festive Week Committee, under the direction of Brig. W. W. Reid, has arranged a program with something for everybody. Music, sports of every kind, parades, dancing, are only a few of the events slated for a week of fun and entertainment for everyone, visitors and residents alike.
On Sunday morning there will be special Dominion Day services in the churches, and in the evening Festive Week will be officially opened at Memorial Field when massed bands, choirs, and officials, including His Honour Lieut. Gov. T. W. L. Prowse participate in an open air ceremony.
During the course of the week,

a number of famous Maritime regimental bands will be present, including the 17th Recce, 8th N. B. Hussars, 23rd H.A.A., and four pipe bands, the Halifax Rifles, the North Nova Scotia Highlanders, the Pictou Highlanders, and the Cape Breton Highlanders, and several of these will play at a massed band concert on opening night.
Big Sports Features
Sports will be the main feature on Monday. The day's activities will get under way at 10:00 a.m. with a ten mile bike race along the Malpeque Road, and there will be an open six mile run in the afternoon. One of the most important athletic events will take place at 2:00 p.m., the Maritime Invitation Track and Field Meet, in which amateur athletes, as individuals and as representatives of athletic associations throughout the Maritimes, will compete. The meet is to be sponsored by the Abegweit Athletic Association and the Department of Physical Fitness, and the same organizations will hold a dinner for athletes and officials that night.
There will be a services ceremonial parade at 1:00 p.m. on the same day—all the above bands will take part, plus one from H. M.C.S. Stadacona, the West Kent School Bugle Band, and all officers, visiting and local troops, provincial command of the Can-

Enjoyed Trip To United Kingdom

Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark, Charlottetown, landed from the S. S. America at New York on Thursday noon, and arrived home by plane last evening from Moncton after a most enjoyable trip to the United Kingdom. They spent a week at the Commonwealth Baptist Congress in London. Their trip took them to Stratford-on-Avon and the West Country of England to Scotland, spending a night in Chester.

Will Visit Here During Festive Week

HMCS "Wallaceburg," which will visit Charlottetown during Festive Week, is an Algerine-class minesweeper employed on escort duties during the war, and was one of the first of her class to be built by the Royal Canadian Navy during the war years.

Entertain Wives Of Delegates To Dental Convention

Wives of visiting dentists to the Maritime Dental Convention here this week were entertained by the local dentists wives on Thursday and Friday.
On Thursday the visiting women were taken on a trip along the north side of the Province as far as Cavendish. They had luncheon at Ingleside and returned to the city late in the afternoon.
They were guests at a coffee party at Mrs. J. P. Millar's yesterday morning where they were royally entertained on the spacious grounds. The entertainments were arranged under the supervision of Mrs. A. W. Allan.

Streets To Get Thorough Cleansing

City streets should be in spic and span shape for Festive Week celebrations thanks to the wholehearted co-operation of the Water Commissioners and the Street Committee of the City Council.
Yesterday it was announced by Councillor J. D. Stewart that both bodies had gotten together and the streets would receive a thorough flushing and dousing. Half of the city was completed last night, and the other half slated for tonight.
Employees of both departments are co-operating in the task which is being done during the night when traffic is at a minimum.

Annual Dental Convention Is Concluded

The annual Maritime Dental Convention next year will be held in New Brunswick, delegates to this year's convention here decided. The place will be decided later.
The three-day sessions of the organization concluded yesterday afternoon.
Dr. J. H. Johnson of the University of Toronto conducted a clinic in the morning on "Oral Surgery." Dr. Roy G. Ellis, Dean of the Faculty of Dentistry at Toronto University presented essays on children's dentistry.
In the afternoon a clinic was held on "Operative Dentistry" by Dr. Carlos Weil of Temple University, Philadelphia. This was followed by a clinic by Dr. John E. Goodman of Tufts College, Boston, Mass., on "Root Resection."
