Six Lab Technologists Will Graduate Tonight

Six young ladies will become certified medical laboratory technologists at a graduation ceremony to be held at the nurses' residence of the Charlotte Hospital tonight at 8:00 p.m.

The graduates are: Joyce Livingstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Livingstone; Beryl MacKinnon, Brooklyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John MacKinnon; Louise Jones, 51 Hillboro Street, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Jones; Elizabeth Hiltz, Kensington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Hiltz;

Arlene Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hayes; and Joyce Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hayes.

Rev. Regis Duffy, Ph.D., professor of chemistry at St. Dunstan's University, will address the graduates and make the presentation of certificates.

William MacDonald, president of the P.E.I. branch of the Canadian Society of Laboratory Technologists, will present the graduates with memberships.

Chairman for the graduation will be Dr. John Craig, director, division of laboratories, department of health.

The eventual choice may be none of these. In any event, Prime Minister Pearson has been seeing a number of what have been termed "influential people" apparently as part of the process to set up a new cabinet.

Jean Marchand, the new-guard member from Quebec East, was re-elected in the capital. The former labor leader is regarded as cabinet timber.

Mr. Pearson must fill the mines and finance portfolios. Mines was left vacant by the defeat of J. Watson MacNaught and Walter Gordon resigned from finance.

Canada Savings Bond Sales Reported Down

By JAMES NELSON
OTTAWA (CP)—Sales of Canada savings bonds in the annual autumn drive are reported to have fallen this year below last year's performance by 10 per cent or more.

Sources in the investment business here say that with interest rates generally high, the savings bonds have not appeared as attractive to investors as in past years.

A Bank of Canada official said figures on bond sales in the 1965 campaign will not be available for several days. Monday was the last day on which bonds could be bought without paying for interest accrued since Nov. 1.

The 1962 bonds are paying 5.11 per cent if held through their 14-year life. The 1963 bonds are paying 5.03 per cent over 12 years, and last year's bonds are paying five per cent over 10 years. This year's offering was 5.03 per cent over 12 years.

But in their first two years the bonds pay only 4½ per cent per year. The rate bounced up to 5½ per cent in the final years of the bond's term.

Acting Finance Minister Sharp announced Monday the government is offering $300,000,000 worth of government of Canada bonds in short, medium and long term issues, sold in multiples of $1,000. The subscription books close tonight.

Two of the new issues are additions to existing bond issues—5½ per cent bonds due April 1, 1969, and 5½ per cent bonds due Oct. 1, 1975. At the prices they now are being offered, they yield 5.41 per cent and 5½ per cent to maturity, respectively.

The new short-term bond, for one year and half a month, will pay interest at 4 per cent and is being offered at 98.85 per cent of face value. This means an effective yield on the investment of 5.15 per cent.

While they are available for purchase most of the year, the amount outstanding normally shows a dramatic upswing between month-end figures for October and November, and then a gradual falling off through the next 11 months as holders cash them for emergencies or other investment.

Public holdings soared. The upsurge in the amounts of Canada savings bonds held by the general public between the end of October and the end of November in the past five years ranged from $511,000,000 in 1962 to a high of $676,000,000 in 1961.

Two years ago, the figure was $652,000,000, and last year, with a somewhat reduced rate of interest paid on bonds held to maturity, the figure was $590,000,000. The interest paid on this year's bonds is only fractionally higher than last year.

Both the electric light and water and sewerage departments showed mid-year surpluses while the stadium operation indicated the usual off-season deficit which will reduce the amount of winter revenue bearing activities begin.

Current tax collections for the month of October amounted to $29,843.89 with a further collection to last Friday of $5,010.11 for a total reduction of $34,854, thereby leaving the amount of $47,035.55 out of a total tax roll of $601,569, for a percentage of collection of 92.01 per cent.

It was also noted in the report that tax arrears collections are not as good as can be expected. "From a 1964 year-end balance of $71,471.00", the report read, "there remain unpaid balances of $82,425, indicating a collection during 1965 of only $19,046."

Town Council Concerned Over Tax Arrear Amounts

SUMMERSIDE—Considerable concern was shown last night at the regular monthly Town Council meeting here over the number of delinquent tax payers and it was suggested by one councillor that judgments be taken out on these residents who are in arrears in their tax payments.

This discussion came following the reading of the monthly financial report which showed that since the inception of regular monthly financial reports and semi-annual audits in 1960 this is the first interim period a situation of expenditure over revenue has existed.

The report read "it does point out to committee chairmen working on a narrow over-all budget, the necessity of cooperating with each other to circumvent an apparent year-end deficit in the general department."

Both the electric light and water and sewerage departments showed mid-year surpluses while the stadium operation indicated the usual off-season deficit which will reduce the amount of winter revenue bearing activities begin.

The report suggested that immediate legal methods be taken to better this situation for year-end and some members of the council concurred with this suggestion.

MOVES IGNORED
The town manager, Joseph A. Brophy, told the council that no matter what procedures are taken in collection of these taxes, that the moves are ignored by many of the tax delinquents.

It was also pointed out at the meeting that the town has the power to issue garnishees for these taxes.

Commenting on the financial report, Mayor Key said a problem is the expenditure over revenue to the end of August. "This is a bad situation", he said, "and can get worse, leaving the town in a deficit position. He stated the problem required immediate action on the part of the finance committee and recommended that this committee meet as soon as possible to deal with the problem and also to render a decision on the collection of old tax arrears which the mayor termed a "perennial problem."

Following the reading of the stadium report the council was told that attendance at the stadium to date since the hockey season opened was "very good". After all reports had been dealt with Councillor J. Ernest Morrison questioned the town manager on the use of town gas in his own vehicle.

Mr. Morrison told Councillor Morrison that he did not charge the town mileage when he used his car on town business and that the practice of his using town gas had been in effect since his arrival here in 1956.

The town manager brought out a town statement which indicated that the cost of gas used by him over a period of a year was approximately $5.68 per month.

The matter was turned over to the finance committee to investigate whether a more suitable arrangement could be made whenever Mr. Brophy was obliged to use his car on town business.

SEWAGE HOOK-UP
A resolution was passed giving the mayor and town clerk-treasurer authority to sign an agreement on behalf of the town to allow the incorporated village of Wilnot to hook up its domestic sewage disposal system with the town system.

Bedeque Barn Lost In Fire

No estimate of damage was available following a fire of unknown cause which gutted a barn containing a quantity of machinery and straw on the property of Ellis Webster, Central Bedeque on Saturday afternoon.

Among the items lost in the partially insured barn were a combine and binder, side-delivery rake, potato digger, seeder and hay mower, none of which were insured.

Another barn located nearby and also containing hay was saved by the Kinkora Fire Department. Summerside detachment of the RCMP investigated the fire.

Rally Ends Youth Week

ALBERTON—Catholic Youth Week for the parishes of West Prince ended with a rally in Bloomfield Parish Centre Sunday evening with more than 300 in attendance.

During the week the program was centered in the parishes where groups dealt with the theme of "leadership," participated in religious exercises and exchange visits between local groups. The rally was the closing event, bringing together a good percentage of the Catholic youth from communities west of Portage.

At the rally Jack Ready, manager of the Basilia Recreation Centre in Charlottetown, explored the area of Christian leadership, outlining the personal and spiritual qualities needed for effective influence, as well as the techniques of communication.

A major contribution to the rally was the presentation of the film, "The Restless Ones," by Don Henry of the Billy Graham Association.

After the film reports on youth activities in the various parishes were given.

Following this a variety entertainment was staged. Eileen Chateaux, chairman for the evening, invited the Gallant sisters of Bloomfield to begin the program. Vocal numbers were also given by Mary and Eileen Handrahan and Marie Doucette of Tignish, and by Debbie McCue, Patsy McKinnon, Ruth Gavin, Austin Gavin, Douglas Gaudin and Keith Broderick of Alberton, and Evelyn Gallant of Palmer Road and Alberton.

Accompaniment was provided by Mrs. Herman Dymont, and Keith Broderick.

A skit by Jimmy Arsenault and Hendrick Pollock of Palmer Road completed the program.

ARSENault FUNERAL—The funeral of Edward E. Arsenault was held yesterday from the Compton Funeral Home to St. Paul's Church, Sumner side, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated at 9 a.m. by Rev. Pierre Arsenault. Seated in the Sanctuary was Msgr. J.P.E. O'Hanley, Pallbearers were Gussie, Clifford, Ernest and Ben Arsenault; John Peter Gallant and Urban Perry. Interment was in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Cemetery with Rev. John Buote officiating.

Father Of TV Dies In N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Allen Balcorn Du Mont, 64, often called the "father of television," died late Sunday night in hospital. It was announced Monday. He had been in hospital for several weeks.

Dr. Mont was responsible for the sale in North America of the first all-electronic TV receivers.

He established a U.S. network which carried the first commercial network TV program. His developed cathode-ray tubes—the display tubes for television, radar, oscilloscopes and other devices—and developed and sold scopes, instruments which translate electrical fluctuations into waves visible on a screen.
