Lowther - Waddell Wedding

A ceremony of interest took place on January 26, at the United Parsonage, Chatham, Ontario, when Doris Anne Marie Waddell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Waddell, Chatham, became the bride of Ralph Edmond Lowther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lowther, Craupud, P. E. I. The officiating minister was the Rev. C. G. Perks.

The bride wore a navy sheer georgette dress with taffeta ribbon trim, and navy matching bonnet. Miss Marie Musgrove was the bride's only attendant, and the groom's brother, Mr. Norman Lowther, acted as groomsmen.

A small reception was held at the home of the bride. Out-of-town guests were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lowther, Craupud, P. E. I., and the bride's aunt, Mrs. Douglas Sandwith, Cadillac, Michigan.

O'Leary and Vicinity

Mr. Vernon England has entered the Western Hospital for treatment.

Rev. Blair B. Colborne of Springfield West was a visitor to O'Leary on Monday, Feb. 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward MacDougall were visitors to Springfield West on Sunday, Feb. 11, the guests of their son and his family.

Deepest sympathy is being extended to Mrs. A. J. Matheson of O'Leary who received the news of the passing of her sister, Mrs. MacLeod on Monday.

The condition of Mr. James Rix of O'Leary who suffered a stroke on Thursday continues to be very serious. His many friends hope there will soon be an improvement in his health.

Little Robert Gamble, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gamble of Unionvale is spending several days in Brae, the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Oulton.

Miss Elaine MacLeod who is employed in Summerside with the Telephone Exchange, spent the week-end at her home in Brae, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. MacLeod.

The newly-organized C. G. I. T. group of Springfield West has been having some very interesting and instructive meetings since its inauguration by Mrs. B. B. Colborne. Last Friday they enjoyed a very successful Valentine party at the parsonage.

The condition of Mrs. Keith Matheson of O'Leary who is in Summerside at the home of her sister, is causing grave anxiety and little hope is held for her recovery. Mrs. Matheson recently returned from a hospital in Montreal where she had gone for medical treatment.

Mr. Howatt of Coleman, N. B., was a visitor to Coleman on Sunday, Feb. 11 and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Byron MacPhee. The many friends of Mrs. MacPhee will be pleased to know that she is making some improvement after her recent heart attack and all her legion of friends unite in wishing her a speedy restoration to health.

Mrs. MacDougall, who spent several days as a patient in the Turner Nursing Home in O'Leary was able to leave the institution on Monday, Feb. 12, and is spending a few days the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ray Jelly and Mr. Jelly of O'Leary.

Rev. Blair B. Colborne of the West Cape Pastoral charge of the United Church of Canada announced to his congregation on Sunday, Feb. 11 that he would seek a change of pastoral relations at the last of the Conference year, June 30. Rev. Mr. Colborne has served for three years on this pastoral charge which includes the three congregations of Bethel, Glenwood and Cape Wolfe. This is his first charge since his ordination. Rev. Mr. Colborne and Mrs. Colborne are well known in O'Leary as their parsonage at Springfield West is only seven miles from O'Leary.

Mrs. John W. Harris of Knutsford received word last night that her brother, Mr. John W. Shaw of Williamansett, Mass., passed away in hospital there. Mr. Shaw was a native of O'Leary, P. E. I., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shaw of O'Leary. Mr. Gus D. Shaw is the only brother living near Charlottetown. The sisters are: Mrs. John Harris, Knutsford, P. E. I.; Mrs. Robert Carruthers of Red Mill, Quebec; Mrs. Westman Harris and Mrs. Somner Wall of Farmington, Mass. to whom deepest sympathy is extended. Mr. Shaw visited O'Leary last summer.

There were almost sixty young people present at the Valentine Party on Monday night, Feb. 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Casley of Coleman under the auspices of the Brae United Young People's Union. The party opened with a short worship service conducted by Mrs. F. W. MacLeod. The minutes were read by Miss Donna Palmer, Jolly games and contests were led by Miss Palmer and the minister, Rev. W. G. Dickson. At the conclusion, dainty refreshments were served and this happy evening concluded by the Mispah benediction. The Brae Y. P. U. is the largest Young People's Union in the Western Presbytery and one of the largest United Church Young People's groups in the province.

Alberton and Vicinity

Friends of Mr. V. J. Campbell, C.N.R. agent, are sorry to know he had the misfortune to fall on the ice last week and injure his shoulder. He is a patient in the Western Hospital. Mr. John MacDonald is acting as relief agent at the station.

The Alberton C. G. I. T. Group met at the Parsonage for their regular meeting Thursday evening. For the devotional period the World Day of Prayer service of worship for girls was used. It was led by Mrs. Reginald Travers. A duet, "What A Friend We Have In Jesus" was beautifully rendered by Joan Currie and Dorothy Bonyman. Other parts in the service were taken by Norma Locke, Dorothy Bonyman, Erma Inman, Elma Inman, and Joan Currie. This impressive service was followed by the regular business and handicraft periods.

The Alberton United Church W. M. S. Auxiliary met in the Church Hall last Tuesday afternoon with the vice-president, Mrs. C. H. Weeks in the chair. The beautiful worship service, which had for its theme "His Silent Presence," was led by Mrs. J. W. Waugh. On motion of Mrs. J. H. Wells, seconded by Mrs. L. B. Leard, the expenses of delegates to Presbyterial were ordered paid. Mrs. J. R. Bonyman volunteered to be hall hostess for the March meeting when worship will be led by Mrs. G. H. Coffin and the study by Mrs. George Ramsay. An article on Christian Stewardship was read by Mrs. William Aubrey, Mrs. P. A. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. G. H. Coffin presented very fine reports of Presbyterial. They tendered a vote of thanks, moved by Mrs. J. W. Waugh and seconded by Mrs. G. H. Hardy. The study, which had been prepared by Mrs. Charles Johnston, was presented by Mrs. James Hodgson. Plans were made to send a Valentine gift to a member of the Auxiliary who recently met with an accident. The meeting closed with the Mispah benediction.

"Perfect Love Casteth Out Fear" was the theme of this year's deeply devotional World Day of Prayer service in which women all around the world participated on the first Friday in Lent, February 9th. The Alberton group met at 3 p.m. in the United Church Hall which had been nicely arranged by Mrs. J. R. Bonyman and Mrs. Jesse Matthews. The open Bible and tall white candles formed a worship centre. The service was led jointly by Mrs. A. C. Green, president of the United Church of Canada, and Mrs. G. E. Cunningham, president of the Presbyterial W. M. S. and Miss Maud Dyer, president of the Anglican W. A. The pianist was Miss Annie Leard. Special music added to the spirit of reverence and beauty which prevailed through the service. Following a prayer for peace with which the service opened, Mrs. G. B. Cunningham and Mrs. Earl Atkinson sang "Have Thine Own Way, Lord", and later in the service Mrs. John H. Wells rendered "The Love of God". Mrs. Howard Clark was accompanist. Prayers were offered by Miss Annie Leard, Mrs. James Hodgson, Mrs. W. C. Lawson, Mrs. Howard Clark, Mrs. H. W. Matthews and Mrs. J. R. McMahon. In a comprehensive but brief address, Mrs. P. A. Fitzpatrick recalled references to fear made in Holy Scripture and pointed out how Jesus, God's gift to the world, had dispelled fear. Through teaching, literature people to read and providing them with the Bible and other Christian literature, they may learn to know the "perfect love which casteth out fear." The offering was received by Mrs. J. C. Matthews and Mrs. G. H. Coffin and will be forwarded to the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada for use in promoting literacy and providing Christian literature for people in all lands.
