

PRESENT PLAY

Shades of 1909 are revived in the 3-act farce presented by the Parkdale Women's Institute. Some of the roles in "Our Boarding House" are played by, left to right, Mrs. Etta Bell, Bernice Newson, Reg Johnston and Annie Laurie McLean. The director is Cecelia Blatch.

Russian Troops Must Aid Berlin Patrol-Khrushchev

By GEORGE BOULWOOD BERLIN (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev insisted Tuesday night that Russian troops would have to be part of any token military force kept in West Berlin. He said Monday he would be agreeable to a minimum number of troops from the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union, or from neutral countries, remaining in the city—if the Allies go along with his plan to make West Berlin independent under UN control.

Retarded Children's Ass'n. Plans Province-Wide Drive

At the regular monthly meeting of the P. E. I. Retarded Children's Association held last week, plans were laid for an all-out financial drive to be conducted on a province-wide scale during the first week of June. The meeting, presided over by President L. P. Berrigan, vigorously endorsed the proposed program of the organization and gave enthusiastic support to their

Key Tag Service Helps Everybody

During the next few weeks every automobile owner in Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland will receive two miniature car license key tags bearing the same numbers as his own car. This is the 12th year the Key Tag Service has been operating. The key tags are manufactured by war amputation cases whose work not only keeps them gainfully employed, but raises funds for benevolent work of the War Amputations Association of Canada. During the past six years an average of $26,431 annually has been handed over to the Benevolent Fund Committee.

Unpainted Steel Hulls Predicted

MONTREAL (CP)—A problem as old as the steam vessel may soon be solved by science. Researchers now feel that the day is approaching when unpainted steel hulls will be able to stay in seawater indefinitely without corroding or becoming fouled with barnacles. W. Godfrey Waite of London, England, one of the world's foremost researchers in the field, told a meeting of the Eastern Canada division of the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers Tuesday night that the secret lies in the perfection of cathodic protection for ships' hulls. "When steel and other metals are immersed in sea water," he explained, "an electric current is set up. By electro-chemical reaction the current goes from the metal hull into the water and back into the hull."

Claims Aircraft Workers 'Kicked'

TORONTO (CP)—Bob Frusher, president of the suburban Malton ratepayers' association, says some firms offering jobs have reduced the listed wage when unemployed Avro aircraft workers applied. "These people know the unemployed aircraft workers are up against it and are kicking them while they are down," he said. Mr. Frusher said less than 10 per cent of the workers laid off by Avro following cancellation of the Arrow program have obtained other jobs.

Patsy Stars As Irish Lass

Patsy Leightner (above) who has scored such outstanding successes in the last two 'St. Patrick's' plays is back this year again starring as Molly Shannon in "Laughing Irish Eyes". Lecture Series Is Concluded At St. Dunstan's

"The final lesson of history, and even of philosophies of history, may well be that human reason, though necessary, is not enough. 'What is truth?' is a question not merely legitimate, but inevitable; but we must be careful, at any cost to our pride or patience, to stay for an answer that no philosophy could ever provide." This was the conclusion deduced by Dr. Charles DeKoninck of Laval University in the last of his three lectures on the Modern Philosophies of History, given at St. Dunstan's University last night.

U.K. To Get U.S. Atomic Engine

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is turning over to Britain an atomic power plant of the type developed for its newest high-speed submarines. The Atomic Energy Commission announced Wednesday that the government has authorized the transfer of a complete ship-jack-type propulsion plant together with spare parts, design information and related secret data. audience, extended a vote of thanks to Dr. DeKoninck for having given the people of Charlottetown such reassuring hope in this series of lectures. He expressed the wish that Dr. DeKoninck come to the University soon again for another series. Monsignor John Sullivan, Rector of the University, congratulated Dr. DeKoninck on the quality of his lectures and extended him an invitation to return to the University for another series of talks.
