NOTES AND COMMENTS

—It is said that an influential French company has sent out an agent to Canada to arrange for the shipment of Canadian horses and butter to France.

—The twenty-ninth anniversary of the Canadian Confederation was celebrated throughout the Dominion yesterday. Canada is getting along in years.

—The Chicago Times-Herald says that the United States will raise this year 475,000,000 bushels of wheat, not to speak of corn, rye, barley and other breadstuffs.

—Mr. Perry met and addressed a number of his supporters at Wellington on the evening of Dominion Day; and over all the tricolor floated proudly in the breeze.

—It is reported from Ottawa that the French-Canadian members are moving heaven and earth for four portfolios in the Laurier Cabinet, and they want another member without portfolio besides.

—Rev. Mr. Douglass, member-elect for Eastern Assiniboia, in a speech declared he had to thank the independant Conservatives for his election and promised them he would be a strictly independent representative.

—Replying to an editorial statement in a Toronto paper that Winnipeg, after defeating Joseph Martin, has lost the sympathy of Ontario, the Free Press says: "It will be a great relief to Manitoba to be relieved of that sort of skin deep sympathy which up to the late election it was impossible to avoid. The truth is that these alleged sympathizers are enraged that their bogus offers of protection and assistance were not only ineffective, but Manitoba's treatment of them exposed the real objects they had in view. If these men should be found in Parliament supporting Laurier in the very coercion they denounced in Tupper, it would be no matter of surprise, but no explanation they can offer, no excuse they can trump up for such a change of attitude will save them from being ridiculous."

—A London correspondent of the Halifax Herald says: I learn from sources in close touch with Hon. Wilfred Laurier that despite Mr. Laurier's tentative acceptance of Joseph Chamberlain's zollverein proposal, the first act of the new Canadian liberal ministry will still be to send a commission to Washington to negotiate a treaty of reciprocity. The Laurier government will also strongly petition the home government for permission to appoint a Canadian agent at Washington. It is suggested that if Sir Donald A. Smith does not desire to retain the high commissionership Sir Richard Cartwright may not take it, but be sent to Washington as the Canadian agent. In this case the question of discrimination against British goods imported into Canada may then assume an acute form. Joseph Chamberlain himself suggested after his Washington mission of 1888 that England would not persist in withholding her assent if Canada persisted in demanding discrimination in favor of the Americans, but no one here doubts that such a demand from a party in Canada would give the worst possible blow to the growing cause of imperial unity.

OBITUARY.

The remains of Malcolm A. McLeod were interred at Valleyfield on the 21st June by a large concourse of people. Mr. McLeod was about 54 years of age, left Valleyfield for Leadville, Col., 14 years ago where he died of diabetes. The remains were accompanied home by his cousin, Neil N. McLeod. Great sympathy is felt for his wife and four daughters in their sad bereavement.

SAFE AND CASH REGISTER ATTACKED.

J. B. Macdonald's Dry Goods Store Entered by Burglars Last Night.

Some time during last night the dry goods store of Mr. J. B. Macdonald, on Queen Street, was entered by burglars and about $110 stolen from the safe and $2 from the cash register. The burglars effected an entrance through the back door, after removing the fastenings. The back door is fastened in three places, by a large iron bar extending across the entire width of the door in the centre and two fairly large bolts above and below this bar. A few inches above the large bar three holes were bored with a brace-and-bit, and through the opening thus made a wire was placed in by the aid of which the bar was lifted from its position. Then two holes were bored near each of the bolts, through which a hand was put and the bolts pulled back. Once inside the money was taken from the cash register and safe. A hole was made in the bottom of the register, and the bottom was removed causing the drawer to fall out. The safe, which it is thought was only partially fastened, was next opened and the money taken. Before leaving the store the premises were thoroughly ransacked, but so far nothing is missed. The police have been notified, and it is hoped they will be able to find out the guilty parties.

WEDDING BELLS.

A very happy event took place at the home of Wm. McKenzie, Esq., Mount Herbert, on Tuesday evening, when his daughter, Henrietta, was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. M. Robinson, of Charlottetown. Mr. James W. Stewart, of Charlottetown, supported the groom, and Miss Emma Robinson, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. The little Misses Pearl Jury and May McKenzie becomingly acted as maids of honor. The bride was tastefully attired in fawn novelty cloth with cream lace trimmings. The bridesmaid was attired in cream cashmere, and the little maids of honor were becomingly attired in pink. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. C. Turner. After partaking of a bountiful repast the happy couple drove to Charlottetown and Wednesday morning left for Moncton where they will reside in future. THE EXAMINER joins in the congratulations.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—One night last week a thunderbolt entered the residence of Edward Brasset, at Magdalen Islands, and the inmates of the house had a narrow escape from death. The bolt came down through the chimney and entered the bedroom of Mr. and Mrs. Grasset, setting fire to the bedclothes and tearing several pieces of flesh from the baby sleeping in a cot beside the bed. From the bedroom the bolt worked its way to the kitchen, and thence into the cellar. In the kitchen one of the stove legs was broken in three or four pieces.

MORE SHIPMENTS.—The Summerside Pioneer says: On Tuesday Mr. John McDonald shipped two horses for J. D. McIntyre, Yarmouth. Mr. Clow also had 13 on board, which came up in a car attached to the express. Mr. James Landers took away 24 cattle for the St. John market the same morning.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Great Meeting at Boston—Fourth Day of the 8th Session.

(Special correspondence of THE EXAMINER.)

FRIDAY, June 26.

The Convention showed signs of thinning out to day. Delegates were leaving all day by trains and boats, but there is still a large representation to carry on the work. The first rain since we arrived in the city fell this morning, but did not damp the ardor of the delegates. The day has been mostly taken up with reports and elections, but the majority seem intensely interested in this usually dry subject.

The address of Mr. Moody at noon was on "How to get the most out of the study of the Bible," and he closed an excellent address with a reference to the work amongst the pioneers of the nations. Some thrilling stories of the work done were told by Mr. Moody, and the congregation was several times moved to tears by the relation of them. Even Mr. Moody himself was visibly affected, so that his voice would tremble with emotion. This is evidently a work very interesting to the Evangelists.

The pledges given to carry on the work of the Association during the next three years totaled as follows:—The pledges were all for annual contributions for three years, or until the next convention. The pledges from 28 states, territories and provinces were $8,580; personal pledges, $2,861; from publishing houses and unions, $583.33; total, $12,024.33. There were 21 states, etc., not reported. Total for three years, $36,072.99.

The most important work of the Convention was the election of the Lesson Committee to serve for six years, 1900 to 1905. The following is the report of the Committee on Nominations:—

The chairman of the nominating committee reported that with its 35 members, its eight sessions have had an average attendance of 32. This indicates its faithfulness. Its result is the unanimous indorsement to every member of the International lesson committee reported, a selection of great difficulty, and demanding most careful consideration.

He said there was no display of partisanship or ambition, nothing but a sincere and devout desire to do the best possible thing for the good of the Sunday schools of the whole country.

The list reported was as follows:

Rhode Island—Warren Randolph, D. D, Baptist.

Illinois—Mr. B. F. Jacobs, Baptist.

New York—A. F. Schauffler, D. D., Presbyterian.

Massachusetts—A. B. Dunning, D. D, Congregational.

Maryland—S. B. Kephart, D. D., United Brethren.

Tennessee—Mr. John R. Pepper, Methodist.

Kentucky—Prof. John R. Sampey, D. D, Baptist.

Missouri—Mosheim Rhodes, D. D., Lutheran.

Ontario - John Potts, D. D, Methodist.

Pennsylvania—J. S. Stahr, D. D., Reformed.

Tennessee—Prof. J. I. D. Hinds, Ph. D., Presbyterian.

New York—B. B. Tyler, D. D., Christian.

Colorado—H. W. Warren, D. D, Methodist.

Virginia—Prof. W. W. Moore, D. D, Presbyterian.

Quebec—Principal E. I. Rexford, B. A., Protestant Episcopal.

With regard to the lesson committees, the following recommendations are respectfully offered:

First, that no change be made in the number of members composing the committee, the present denominational and numerical apportionment being regarded as the fairest and best that can be made.

Second, that the lesson committee name their own officers, as heretofore.

Third, that because so clear an understanding now exists with regard to the functions and scope of the lesson committee it be not hampered or embarrassed by any new or special instructions by the convention.

Fourth, that in order to promote the most full practical co-operation of all parties concerned in the provision, arrangement and production of the international lessons, each of the denominational societies or publishing houses that issue lesson helps on the international series be privileged to send, at their own cost, a representative to confer with the lesson committee at such times as may be mutually agreed upon; such representatives to have simply the right of conference, and not of voting upon questions that may be considered by the lesson committee.

Rev. Dr. Hamil led the convention in prayer for God's blessing upon the selection of the committee and upon its work.

The list presented and the recommendations were approved.

The Exective Committee, which handles the whole business for the triennial, is important to be named: Alabama, William E. Halloway; Alaska Territory, Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D. D.; Arizona Territory, N. W. Messenger; California, H. Norton; Connecticut, Cullen B. Foote; Delaware, Prof. H. S. Goldey; District of Columbia, P. H. Bristow; Florida, H. C. Groves; Georgia, A. O. Candler; Idaho, Walter Bruce; Illinois, B. F. Jacobs; Indiana, Charles D. Meigg; Iowa, W. H. Blancke; Kansas, J. F. Drake; Kentucky, Hon. John Stites; Louisiana, E. P. Makie; Maine, Albert M. Butler; Maryland, Frank Woods; Massachusetts, W. N. Hartshorn; Michigan, E. A. Hough; Minnesota, Rev. George R. Merrill, D. D.; Mississippi, Hon. B. T. Kimbrough; Missouri, D. R. Wolfe; Montana, Ebben Sharp; Nebraska, Rev. W. W. Trueblood; New Hampshire, Prof. G. W. Bingham; New Jersey, G. W. Bailey; New Mexico, Rev J. T. Battee; New York, W. A. Duncan, Ph. Longard; Prince Edward Island, Rev. D. Sutherland; Manitoba, F. W. Adams; British Columbia, W. C. Coatham, Alberta, Rev. John Fernie; Newfoundland, Charles P. Ayre; Assiniboia, J. W. Smith.

The number of delegates registered was reported at 1,060, but there was also a large number of visitors and Sabbath School workers not included in this number.

Special prominence has been given all through the Convention to the Primary and Home School Departments. Perhaps the other department have been overworked somewhat by these special claims. The quarterly temperance lesson was warmly debated, and it will remain as in former years. There was very little use made of the optional lesson during the past, a general feeling being shown in favor of the international lesson. The Vice Presidents for the three years are as follows:—

Vice-Presidents—Alabama, B. Davie, Clayton; Arkansas, P. K. Roots; California, D. C. Cook, Los Angeles; Connecticut, Hon. D. L. Warner, Naugatuck; Delaware, John H. Hoffecker, Smyrna; District of Columbia, D. P. Hickling, Washington; Florida, Rev. William Shaw, Starke; Georgia, R. B. Reppard, Savannah; Illinois R. H. Griffith, Rushville; Indiana, Hon. A. G. Burkhart, Tifton; Iowa, C. C. Wallace, Des Moines; Kansas, Prof. E. M. Wood; Kentucky, J. C. Wilson, Lagrange; Louisiana, R. H. Brown, New Orleans; Maine, Charles I. Dailey, Winthrop; Maryland, B. L. Keedy, Hagerstown; Massachusetts, Rev. F. N. Beloubet, Auburndale; Michigan, Leonard Lawrance; Minnesota, C. E. Dyer, Minneapolis; Mississippi, J. G. McGuire, Yazoo City; Missouri, A. B. Hayes, Lancaster; Nebraska, Hon. Kirkpatrick, Lincoln; New Hampshire, Rev. O. S. Baketel, Manchester; New Jersey, B. C. Lippencott, D. D., Vineland; New York, Louis Kilosph, New York; North Carolina, H. N. Snow, Durham; Ohio, Rev. C. Rhoades; Pennsylvania, Rev. Alex Henry Frankford; Rhode Island, Hon. Thomas B. Barnfield, Pawtucket; South Carolina, F. F. Weldon; Tennessee, Prof. A. L. Purington; Texas, Rev. J. H. Dobbs, Sherman; Vermont, Lorin B. Lord, Burlington; Virginia, J. H. Hazen, Richmond; Wisconsin, George P. Leavitt, Beloit; Ontario, W. T. Harrison, Keene; Quebec, J. A. Moulton, Comticoke; New Brunswick, J. W. Smith, St. John; Nova Scotia, Edwin D. King, Halifax; Prince Edward Island, Rev. William J. Kirby, Charlottetown.

The closing service Friday night was impressive and beautiful, the whole company singing together God Save the Queen, My Country, and Blest be the Tie that Binds, during which the grand old Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes were entwined and united amid enthusiasm and patriotic devotion. Surely nations which can thus meet and work in such harmony and Christian love could never lift the rifle or the sword upon each other in bloody war! While our brethren across the line sing My Country 'Tis of Thee," We will sing the grand old doxology "Praise God, From Whom All Blessings Flow." Not forgetting we, too, are patriots and lovers of our country, and in memory of these facts and the sixtieth anniversary of Her Majesty's reign, unite with the millions of happy subjects of Queen Victoria, and heartily sing

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Western Inspectorate Meets at Kensington—Very Interesting Papers.

The Teachers' Association of the Western Inspectorate met in Kensington on Monday, June 29th, at 10.30 a. m., a good number of teachers being in attendance.

The Secretary having enrolled the names of those present, the President, Mr. N. E. Carruthers, delivered his opening address, which contained much information and good advice for his fellow teachers. The usual committees were then appointed, and the Convention adjourned to meet again at 2 p. m.

During the afternoon session Miss Maggie Mayne, of Springfield, read a paper on Teaching as an Employment for Women, which showed very forcibly both the advantages and disadvantages as viewed from a woman's standpoint. A discussion followed, participated in by Messrs. W. D. McIntyre, John Anderson, P. J. Trainor, James Landrigan, J. J. Jardine, A. C. Cullen and A. P. Trowsdale.

Mr. J. J. Jardine also read a paper on "What teaching is." This paper showed very careful preparation and an intimate knowledge of works on pedagogy. Discussion followed between Messrs. James Landrigan, J. K. McKenzie, R. H. Campbell and others.

The public meeting and entertainment in the evening was largely attended. The speakers were the president, Mr. N. E. Carruthers, Victoria; Mr. P. J. Trainor, Emerald and Hon. David Laird, Charlottetown. Mr. J. H. Bell, M. P. P., was also to have spoken but although present he was unable to remain. The elocutionists were Miss Lucy Lefurgey, Miss Ethel Connors and Mr. A. C. Cullen, of Summerside and Miss Essory of Kensington. The soloists were Miss Amy Hopgood, Mr. C. B. McNeil and three school girls of Kensington and Mr. Charles Birch, of Summerside. Miss Maggie Casely and Miss Lucy Siliphant sang a duet; and an instrumental duet was given by Birdie Moynagh and Ethel Noonan, two little girls. The programme throughout was excellent and heartly enjoyed by all present.

The second day's proceedings were opened by the reading of a paper by Mr. W. D. McIntyre on "How to attain regularity of attendance." This paper, though brief, was very practical, and all who heard it carried away new ideas as to the best method of attaining this very desirable object. The discussion which followed was participated in by Messrs. James Landrigan, J. K. McKenzie, Inspector Campbell, P. J. Trainor, John Anderson, S. J. Cann, and R. H. Campbell.

A lesson on English was now given by Mr. Landrigan and proved to be one of the most interesting features of the convention. It was followed by an animated discussion in which Messrs. R. H. Campbell, J. K. McKenzie, N. E. Carruthers, W. D. McIntyre and Thomas Crafer took part,

A unanimous vote of thanks having been tendered to Mr. Landrigan and to those who read papers, the following officers were elected:—President, Mr. P. J. Trainor, Emerald; Vice President, Miss Maggie Mayne, Springfield; Secretary, Mr. A. P. Trowsdale, Sea View; Executive, Mr. A. C. Cullen, Summerside; Mr. James McNeil and Miss Katie McMurdo.

The convention was then adjourned sine die, the members carrying away with them many pleasant recollections of their stay in Kensington.

Meeting of Parliament.

A Postponment Probable.

OTTAWA, July 2.

It is conceded that Parliament cannot possibly proceed with the despatch of business on July 16th the action which it has by royal proclamation been called to meet. In all probability the leaders of the two parties will agree upon a postponement or an adjournment for two or three weeks in order to allow Mr. Laurier an opportunity to complete the formation of his government and prepare for the business of the session.

As far as can be gathered the session will be a brief one, at most the sole business being the passage of the estimates.

MONTREAL, July 2.

The leading Liberals did not make much progress yesterday in Cabinet making, as their time was taken up at the races. Montreal men assert that Messrs. Mr. Blair's entry is being stoutly opposed by Colonel Domville, who declares that he possesses private papers that prevent Blair running in Kings. The Colonel is anxious to secure the portfolio of Militia and Defence.
