HALIFAX (CP)—The weather office says strong northwest winds should persist, keeping temperatures well below seasonal values. A band of snow is expected to move over Prince Edward Island and the northern parts of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, and the remainder of the district should be cloudy with snowflurries. The strong winds may produce blowing snow and drifting in the northern half of the district, and two to four inches of new snow are possible in these regions.

Regional forecasts: Halifax and vicinity, South Shore, Annapolis Valley: Cloudy with a few snowflurries; extremely cold; northwest winds 25 with gusts to 40. Low - high at Halifax and Yarmouth 10 and 20. Kentville 8 and 20.

Outlook for Sunday: Cloudy with snowflurries. Cape Breton, Prince Edward Island, Bay of Chaleur: Snow and blowing snow; extremely cold; northwest winds 25 with gusts to 40. Low - high at Sydney 12 and 23. Charlottetown 8 and 20.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM MACFARLANE
The sudden passing of Mr. William E. MacFarlane on Tuesday, Dec. 8th, 1961, was the closing out of a home in Hampton, when Mrs. MacFarlane was called away one week previous, thus taking an elderly couple from our midst.

Born at South Metville April 11, 1878 and lived there until 15 years ago, he moved to Hampton. He was the last surviving member of his family member of Hampton United Church and served as elder many years. He was married twice and two step children survive him, Mrs. John MacPhail Cornwall and Mrs. Gordon Villet, Hampton.

Funeral services were held from Hampton United Church on Dec. 7th with Rev. Bryce Jones officiating. Hymns sung were: "The Lord's My Shepherd, Abide With Me." A solo: "Whiter than Snow." Read by Stephen MacLeod.

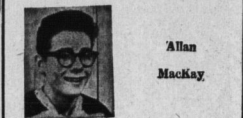

Interment Regard Cemetery. Pallbearers were: Mark Cameron, John Ferguson, Gordon MacQuarrie, Gordon Villet, Walter MacFarlane, John MacQuarrie.
