Blind Bowlers Award Given By Moore & McLeod Ltd.

The prize given by the Charlottetown firm of Moore & McLeod Ltd. for the blind bowler showing the greatest interest and improvement in the candle-pin bowling matches held regularly each week at the Roll-Away Club, Charlottetown, was awarded to Mr. Peter McGarry of Southport following yesterday afternoon's game. The scores achieved by Charlottetown's team of sightless bowlers in their four regulation candle-pin games yesterday afternoon were as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Mr. Russell Jenkins: 70 45 29 32. Miss Ida Alchorn: 32 49 49 56. Mr. G. E. Wood: 37 44 44 51. Mr. Peter McGarry: 28 39 57 52. Mr. M. I. Warren: 32 26 50 46.

Local officials of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind noted that the average scores this week were down slightly from the previous week, with no individual scores above seventy; however, it is felt that long before summer has arrived the teams' average score will be greatly improved, this belief being a result of the fact that the current scores attained by the team are quite high when it is considered that these sightless bowlers have been engaging in this sport for only two months, some of them have never seen the bowling alley and none of them bowled before losing their sight.

S. D. U. Defeat O'Leary 17-6

St. Dunstan's University scored a 17-6 victory over O'Leary Maroons in an exhibition hockey game at O'Leary on Saturday night, played before a large crowd.

The Maroons were pretty well tuckered out after their two games on the two previous nights, and their long drive down the St. Bede's rink on Friday night. There is no doubt they were saving their strength for the game in Souris on Tuesday night, for the P. E. I. Intermediate B Championship. The second game in this series will be played in the O'Leary rink on Friday night.

The Maroons were playing minus five of their regular players. They were W. Harris, F. Smallman, B. MacDonald, J. Baglole and W. Turner. Had the Maroons been playing under their full strength, they would probably have kept it evened up a lot more. Still it should be kept in mind that the St. Dunstan's squad are in a higher class than the Maroons and therefore should have had an advantage in this game.

Chretien and Bernard led the winners to victory scoring four goals apiece, with Delghn, Ayers, marking up two each, and Coyle, Rusty Callaghan, Flynn and Houde each making a tally.

Ellis shot home four of the O'Leary goals, with Wedge and Rodgers each picking up one. This game was handled by referee William "Mort" Turner, who had to referee this game single handed, as there were no linesmen present to assist him.

The Maroons goalie, Raynold MacNeill, put up a good fight in this game, but will no doubt do much better against Souris. It does not seem right that such a crushing defeat should come upon a goalie who knows his business as well as MacNeill does. But, perhaps he was just getting some practice for his game against Souris. The St. Dunstan's squad won this game fair and square and showed a very nice style of hockey. It is hoped that another game will be arranged with this team sometime in the near future.

Coach of P.C.H.L. Team Suspended, Will Be Fined

VANCOUVER, March 6—(CP)—Seldom has a punch been more ill-timed.

And the momentum spun playing-coach Babe Pratt of New Westminster Royals into the Pacific Coast Hockey League doghouse yesterday.

The Babe lost his temper Saturday night while his league leaders were walloping Portland Eagles 6-1. He took a stiff poke at referee Eddie Powers.

League president Al Leader suspended Pratt "indefinitely" and said he could be fined "severely" in the third period, with 10 minutes to go and Royals leading 5-1. Pratt argued a minor penalty to fellow-defenceman Denny Huddleston. He was handed a 10-minute misconduct by Powers and then bashed the referee as he entered the penalty box.

Thinks Rangers Will Catch Playoff Berth

NEW YORK, March 6—(CP)—Coach Neil Colville figures the chances of his New York Rangers making the Stanley Cup playoffs are "better than good." Manager Frank Boucher admits "we're in a pretty fair spot."

But they're not going too far out on a limb. They face one big "if," the condition of goalie Chuck Rayner—the Mr. Big of the Rangers—who will be out of action for possibly a week with buritis in both shoulders.

Rayner is the key in the Ranger playoff plans.

With only three weeks of the regular National Hockey League season remaining, he could not miss too many games if they are to stay in the running.

Colville and Boucher are confident the Rangers can hold their three-point lead over the fifth-place Canadiens and end up in at least the fourth and last playoff berth.

This is the way the Ranger brains figure it:

Colville—"We've got our lead. Now it's up to the Canadiens to catch us. Personally I don't think they can do it."

Boucher—"We have those all-important three points. They'll (Montreal) press so they'll be duck soup for an alert attack. I don't see how we can miss."

As for Rayner, Dr. Vincent Nardiello, who had prescribed infrared ray treatments and massage as well as injections to deaden the pain, said today the veteran probably will be out a week. At least he will miss Wednesday night's game against Chicago.

Murder Trial Of Mrs. Pitre Begins

QUEBEC, March 6—(CP)—The third murder trial in connection with the time-bombing of an airliner at Sagit, Aux Cochon, Sept. 9, 1949, got under way yesterday in Quebec criminal assizes court.

Mrs. Arthur Pitre, 42-year-old woman, who delivered a time-bomb to the airliner in a parcel, is charged with murder in the elaborate plot for which J. Albert Guay was hanged Jan. 12, and Genevieve Ruest, her crippled brother, sentenced to be hanged. Ruest is awaiting hearing on his appeal.

Mr. Justice Noel Belleau adjourned the case abruptly this afternoon when one of the jurymen chose Conrad Desrosiers, nearly collapsed in the jury box during the picking of jurymen. He said he was indisposed.

When the incident occurred 10 of 12 jurymen had already been chosen.

If Desrosiers' indisposition is serious enough to prevent him from sitting in on the case a new jury will have to be picked. If he has recovered, the jury will be completed tomorrow morning.

Things are tough all over for the referees in the P.C.H.L.

At Portland Sunday, a fan took a swing at referee Dick Davis after the Eagles had trimmed second-place Victoria Cougars 6-4.

Last season, Pratt was fined $200 and suspended for one game after grabbing referee Hank Wilson, now officiating in the Western Canada major league.

The coachless Royals edged Seattle 4-3 Sunday night, all but scuppering Seattle's hopes of making the four-team playoffs. The Ironmen are six points back of fourth-place Portland. Vancouver Canucks, nine points behind Portland, are out of the running.

Cougars picked up a 4-4 tie with third-place Tacoma Rockets Saturday night which left them three points back of New Westminster.

But last night's defeat at Portland, together with Royals' win at Seattle, leaves them five points out of first place, with six games remaining.

U.N.B. Wins Debating Title

SAINT JOHN, N. B., March 6—(CP)—A University of New Brunswick law school team last night won the Maritime Intercollegiate Debating League championship by defeating Acadia University debaters.

The winners, Harold E. Stafford, Fredericton, and Edward Fanjoy, Hartland, N. B., upheld the negative of a resolution "that compulsory arbitration of labor disputes be required in essential industries." A coin toss an hour beforehand determined the side of the resolution each team supported. Turney Jones, Woodstock, N. B. and Frederick Fisher, Middleton, N. S., were the Acadia debaters.

Stafford and Fanjoy will represent the Maritime Provinces in the Canadian University Association debating finals at Ottawa this week. They represented U. N. B. in the Canadian finals in 1949.
