CURRENT NOTES.

The British North Borneo Company officially denies the report that the staff of the company has been massacred by natives in Borneo.

At a Cabinet Council, in Paris, it was positively stated that the Queen of Madagascar has been dead six months, and that the military party had concealed the fact.

The Empress of Germany has written to Queen Victoria expressing deep sympathy with the sufferers by the disaster at the children's entertainment at Sunderland, last Saturday.

The Irish Times says the Government has given James Carey, informer, the option of proceeding to one of the British colonies or of being released and allowed to remain in Dublin without police protection.

The Canadian Lacrosse team that is now playing in Great Britain, is also acting as a sort of emigration bureau. At Glasgow they distributed over seven thousand papers descriptive of Canadian resources and of the country generally.

Mr. James Stalker, merchant of Pictou, and his wife, celebrated their golden wedding on the 16th inst., and received a number of gold presents. They are also fifty years in Pictou, and have seen great changes. Few of those who started with them remain.

At Stockbridge on the 21st the race for the Stockbridge cup was won by Lorillard's horse Iroquois, which was nominated by the Prince of Wales. Three ran. Iroquois won by three lengths. The race for the Johnston plate (handicap) was won by Lorillard's mare Aranza. There were ten starters.

King Kalakaua, whose coronation was recently celebrated with much pomp and ceremony, appears to be an apt scholar in ways which are crooked. The new coinage, which bears his image and superscription, not only is American made, but is made after the American plan, short in weight. His silver dollar is not to be worth a dollar, but it will be called a dollar all the same. Thus is seen the advantage that barbarian monarchs derive from mixing with civilization.

The floods now prevailing in Silesia were attended by water spouts. A large part of the town of Hirschberg is submerged and houses in the adjacent villages are flooded. The railway near Salzbrunn is washed away. A number of cattle perished. Despatches received from Bresslau, state that during the last 24 hours the rise of the river Neisse has been most alarming. Disastrous floods are also reported in Bohemia and Moravia. The Danube is expected to overflow its banks shortly as the river Inn and mountain streams are rising rapidly. The quay at Linz is already flooded.

In the inquiry which is now in progress at Mullingar, in connection with the murder of Mrs. Smythe, in April, 1882, an informant testified that an assassination society had been started by Michael and John Fagan, with the object of removing tyrants and bad landlords. Among those who had been named by the society for removal were two gentlemen named Smythe, living in the County Longford, and two of the prisoners were deputed to execute the sentence. The eight prisoners charged with complicity in the murder of Mrs. Smythe were present at the meeting held in March, 1882, outside the house of the mother of the Fagnons.

Struggling young authors, who are apt to grumble over the hardships of a literary life, would do well to bear in mind certain passages in the career of the late Dr. Wm. Chambers. For several years he had to exist on four shillings a week. His lodgings cost him eighteen pence, and his food half-a-crown! This may seem almost incredible until we turn to the subjoined memorandum of his daily expenses:— Breakfast—Porridge, 3d; buttermilk, 1d. Id. Dinner—Broth, 3d.; bread, 3d. 1d. Supper—Same as breakfast, 1d. Total 3 3/4d. Very few modern scribblers would care to exist on such modest rations.

Lord Randolph Churchill, in a written communication to Mr. Gladstone, stated that he would hand over to the latter a historical memorandum proving the Khedive's complicity in the massacres at Alexandria if the Prime Minister would promise a full enquiry. Mr. Gladstone said that in any step the Government might take the position of the Khedive, as the ruler of Egypt, would be duly regarded. Lord Randolph Churchill, in a second communication, states that he will forward to Mr. Gladstone an indictment of the Khedive on a charge of being the real author of the massacres, and that he (Lord Randolph) will be prepared to co-operate, to the utmost extent of his resources, in bringing up such witnesses as may be necessary to prove the writer of the statements in particular.

President Porter, of Yale, recently gave this sound and wholesome advice to the students:—"Young men, you are the architects of your own fortunes; rely on your own strength of body and soul. Take for your star, self-reliance. Inscribe on your banner, 'Luck is a fool, Pluck is a hero.' Don't take too much advice, keep at the helm and steer your own ship, and remember that the art of commanding is to take a fair share of the work. Think well of yourself. Strike out. Assume your own position. Put potatoes in a cart, go over a rough road, and small ones to the bottom. Rise above the envious and the jealous. Fire above the mark you intend to hit. Energy, invincible determination, with a right motive, are the levers that move the world. Don't swear. Don't deceive. Don't read novels. Don't marry until you can support a wife. Be civil. Read the papers. Advertise your business. Make money and do good with it. Love your God and fellow-men. Love truth and virtue. Love your country, and obey its laws."

CURRENT NOTES.

Some of the very newest lawn-tennis costumes are made of checked material.

The proposal to erect a cotton duck factory in Yarmouth is favorably received, and the enterprise is likely to be a success. It will employ 100 persons.

M. D. Conway writes from England that he finds a record in an old register at Stratford-on-Avon showing that Shakespeare's widow probably married a second husband. Whoever he was, there would have fallen to him all the letters and papers of the poet, which have so mysteriously disappeared.

A Pittsburg jury gave a verdict against a railroad company for the amount of money stolen from a passenger in a sleeping car. "Since the defendant," said the Judge, "sold a ticket for two dollars in addition to the regular rates of passage, and offered the facilities for sleeping as an inducement to pay the extra money, it bound itself to protect its patrons while they were asleep and for the time being helpless."

Henry Ward Beecher, writing to a journal in Portland, Oregon, says:—"I am glad to hear that your townspeople have resolved upon a high license as the first step toward prohibition. It is time that we gave every man to understand that when he impoverishes body and soul he is a criminal. I have seen whole families raked with this infernal chain-shot of alcohol, and I have learned to hate it. It is good sometimes to hate things and let the indignation out."

During the present Anglican Synod a sore subject—the just ownership of the authority and title of "Metropolitan"—will be up for discussion. It is claimed by the churchmen of this Province that the Bishop of Montreal is the legal Metropolitan, and, per consequence, that the Bishop of Fredericton, who exercises the power, is altogether in the wrong. There has been talk in the past of law proceedings. It is probable that the debate will be interesting to Churchmen everywhere.—Montreal Herald.

There are rumors of fraud in connection with the London, Ont., Masonic Lottery. An action was recently brought by James Thompson, treasurer of the Toronto Society, for the suppression of vice against Wm. Strong, of London, Ont., a druggist, to recover the $7,000 prize he won, as forfeited under the statute. In the defendant's pleading, filed in court, he says he held a ticket in trust for his brother Thomas, who was head pusher in the lottery and who was one of the parties who manipulated the tickets and called out the successful number.

A Santa Barbara fisherman has discovered, near San Miguel Island, a smelter island, about three acres in extent, which is probably the largest nest of eggs in the world. The island is covered with a layer of guano in which sea fowls of all descriptions were found laying or incubating their eggs. The surface appeared to be almost entirely covered with eggs, principally those of the sea gulls, shags, and a small bird known as the salt-water duck. The discoverer says it was difficult to walk without treading upon the eggs, and that it would be easy to load a ship with them.—From the San Francisco Alta, June 4th.

The story of Queen Victoria's illness is once more repeated. A cablegram to the Boston Herald, dated London, June 21st, says, "It is rumored that the Queen is again ill with melancholia, and it is reported that she will probably abdicate." This week's London Truth prints the following statement:—The Queen has, for two months been in a state of mild melancholia which, in the course of time, if not relieved, would probably become very difficult to treat. Her condition has naturally caused great anxiety, because of the tenderness of her family. Her Majesty and Princess Beatrice will, in the autumn, go to the vicinity of Florence, Italy, where they will remain two months.

M. Tricon, special envoy of France to China, has delivered to Li-Hung-Chang an ultimatum rejecting the Chinese suzerainty of Annam, with the alternative of war, and has demanded an immediate answer. Should any Chinese soldiers be found in Annam they will be shot as bandits by the French. Should China make a movement of troops or ship them to Annam, it will be regarded as an act of war. He insists that China shall make an instant and absolute withdrawal of her pretensions. France proposing to deal with Annam as an independent power, and intimates that France may demand of China the expense of the expedition, because the Chinese action rendered the expedition necessary.

The London Standard recently pointed out that, though the population of the United States was about twelve times as large as that of Canada the emigration to the former country had of late only been four times as great as that to Canada. During the past year 51,399 persons left the United Kingdom to proceed direct to the Dominion, of whom 38,551 were of British origin and 13,038 were foreigners. This was an increase of 65 per cent. over the emigration of 1881, and 190 per cent. over that of 1880. The figures given above did not, however, include the emigrants leaving Bristol and some Irish ports, nor those who went to Canada by the New York route. The emigration to the United States during the year was, on the other hand, only 34 per cent. in excess of that of the previous year. In 1882 Irish emigration to the Dominion had doubled, and that statement did not include persons sailing from Galway nor those going from Queenstown by American ports. "It is apparent from these figures," says the Standard, "and from those referring to Australia, that more attention is now being directed in Great Britain to the resources and capabilities of our Colonial Empire, and that the tide of emigration is being turned, if only gradually, in that direction."
