

BUSINESS ON THE BRAIN.—One night last week the wife of Justice Moses was roused from a sound sleep by a stern voice:—

'Are you ready for trial, I say?' 'Hush! Don't make a noise or else you will wake the baby,' she replied, endeavoring to smooth him.

'Don't talk back to this court,' he vociferated. 'If you've got any witnesses bring 'em on, but let your lawyer do the talking.'

'Why, Tom, how you take on! What is the matter?'

'I send you up for sixty days—that's what's the matter. Here, Enders, take her away. Now I'm ready for that petty larceny case. Bring up the prisoner.'

And jumping out of bed he started for the next room to summon a jury, but fell over a rocking chair, barked his shins, woke up, and asked his wife what the dickens was the matter, anyhow.—Virginia Chronicle.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A Canadian doctress, Miss Howard, connected with the Methodist Episcopal Mission at Peking, China, is reported to hold a high position in the capital of the Flowery Land.

A woman was recently dragged under a railroad train at Newcastle, Eng., and killed in consequence of shaking hands with a friend at a car window as the train moved on.

Margaret Smith sued the Cunard Steamship Company in New York for $25,000 damages for injuries caused by a berth above her falling upon her, while she was a passenger in one of the steamers. The jury awarded her $2,000.

Mr. Frank L. Gundlack, well known in journalist circles in Montreal, died in London, Ont., on Saturday night from the bursting of a blood-vessel in the head. He had been struck on the head with a cane the previous night by a stranger with whom he had some altercation.

A NOTORIOUS FAMILY.—The woman Armour, lately convicted of larceny at Amherst, is one of a most notorious family. For some years stores and dwellings have been burglarized in Pugwash, and sufficient evidence to convict was not forthcoming. The robbery at Thompson's Station was so brazen-faced that they were at last overtaken in the toils, and now the whole family will be united in bonds stronger than brotherly love, and where, at least, "thieves don't break out and steal." We refer to Warden Flynn's commodious apartments on the North West Arm.

The Police Magistrate at Clerkenwell Court, London, has been called upon to decide the knotty question whether a man who goes into a dining-room and eats a dinner for which he cannot pay commits a felony or only incurs a debt. In the case before His Worship the defendant was very indignant that he should be charged with stealing his dinner. He contended that the affair was a matter of business, and that he was simply responsible to the landlord for the value of the dinner he had eaten. The Magistrate has taken time to consider his decision.

James A. Smith was put under bonds at Pittsfield, Mass., in the sum of $400, on Friday, for trial by the superior court, for peddling a scurrilous sheet called the "Tomahawk." Other peddlers of the paper are to be arrested. Judge Tucker decided that the paper was "indecent and immoral" under the statutes of 1862, and the penalty for selling it is from two years in jail to five years in the State prison. In Halifax, recently, the vendor of this sheet was fined by the Police Magistrate. Hundreds of copies are openly sold in St. John, but the agents are undisturbed in their "business."

A "house-warming" of an uncommon character was that which took place at Frelighsburg, P. Q. Mr. Landsberg, a well-known merchant of that place, who was burned out last summer, built a new brick store 60 x 80 feet, with plate-glass front and Mansard roof, and his friends resolved to give him a "house-warming." From all quarters within 25 miles around came 1,100 people, and the three flats of the building were made reception room, refreshment room and ball room, for the occasion. Under the heading of "what one man has accomplished in a country village," the St. John News devotes two columns to a description of the ball and supper, and to eulogy of the merchant who was the subject of what it terms the inauguration party.

A TERRIBLE TALE.—An old colored woman named Cook, gave a statement before the Halifax Stipendiary, on Saturday morning, which made a newspaper reporter's hair stand on end (at first). She said: "I saw a warrant for Sinclair. Dey murdered my nephew and grandchild and cut off dere legs, and trow'd dem in de alleyway. And Scot was in it, too." "All murdered?" said the Stipendiary. "Yes, and another one, too. And de neighbors aint no better. Der bodies is dere now."

Then it transpired that the poor old woman was crazy, and a first-class sensation was spoiled.

False Impression.

It is generally supposed by physicians and the people generally that Dyspepsia can not invariably be cured, but we are pleased to say that GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER has never, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Headache, palpitation of the heart, Indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, &c. Out of the 50,000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters from Druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample Bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all Druggists.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont. DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your "Constitutional Catarrh Remedy" was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be "too good to be true."

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward "drop" from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long. I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head.

A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly,

W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister. Port Elgin, Ont., Aug. 24, 1878.
