The Water Commissioners' bill has not yet been read a second time. Exception is taken to the clause which provides for an extra year in office for the Chairman of the Commissioners. It is thought the citizens should have the right to say whether they want him for that extra time or not, and that he should stand his election in 1893, when a test could be made as to whether the citizens approve of the expending of $20,000 for a new main.

Removal of the Jail.

To the Editor of the Guardian: Sir,—A few years ago the junior member for New London in a series of newspaper articles urged the necessity of utilizing the old asylum property for a jail and reformatory. He was then a private citizen and powerless to effect the reform. As he has since become an M.P., I would respectfully call Mr. A. B. Warburton's attention to the matter. If he was sincere then he should be active now.

King of Medicines

Scrofulous Humor—A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well."

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Citizen,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased and I began to feel better, and in a short time I was up and about doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then NEVER LOST A SINGLE DAY on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the King of Medicines." WILLIAM A. LAMB, 9 E. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.
