Royalty and Art at Montreal.

The formal opening of the new Art Gallery, which took place at Montreal on Monday, was an event of great interest to the citizens which was heightened by the presence of His Excellency and Her Highness the Princess Louise. Eight o'clock was the hour set for the reception of guests, but long before that hour ladies and gentlemen in full dress began to assemble. Carriage after carriage rolled up to the entrance until nine o'clock, at which time not less than a thousand persons were present, the ladies displaying most elegant and fashionable toilets. At ten minutes past nine, the Governor General and Princess Louise arrived, attended by Lady McNamara and Major DeWinton, A. D. C. Their Excellencies were received by the Council of the Association—Hon Justice Mackay, Hon. Thos. Ryan, R. W. Shepherd and Peter Redpath—and escorted to the Retiring Room in the rear of the building. This room is beautifully furnished and several choice paintings adorn the walls, some being pencil sketches by Harlow, the favorite pupil of the late Sir Thomas Lawrence.

After a little delay the august visitors were conducted to the Grand Gallery, where they took their places on a dais erected in the eastern end of the room. The President of the Council of Arts, Mr. Justice Mackay and the other members, ranged themselves in front of the dais, and the President read an address detailing the history of the foundation of the Art Gallery, which takes its rise from the munificent gift of a former merchant of this city, late Mr. Gibbs.

His Excellency briefly replied, congratulating the Board on the possession of such a splendid building and fine collection of pictures for the benefit of the citizens. He expressed a hope that the time would soon arrive when they would have a Royal Academy for the promotion of art. He concluded by declaring, amid applause, the Art Gallery open.

After a few introductions, their Excellencies took their departure for the hotel.
The exhibition comprises noble gifts of 72 choice pictures bequeathed by the founder, twelve belonging to the Association and the loan collection, aggregating 232 oil paintings, water colours and sketches. Her Royal Highness, the Princess Louise, has contributed four paintings from her own easel. They comprise an oil portrait of the grand-mother of Lord Lorne, a copy, and three out-door sketches of Scotch scenery.
Her Royal Highness was dressed in white silk, with pearl necklace, and diamonds in her hair. His Excellency was in plain evening dress without any decoration. Soon after their Excellencies departed the assembly began to disperse. A guard of honor of the Victoria Rifles, with their band, was in attendance.

MONTREAL, May 27.

Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise, accompanied by Lady MacNamara, walked into the city from the Windsor Hotel today, in the forenoon, and visited several of the principal dry goods establishments in St. James and Notre Dame streets, inspecting also, en passant, various public buildings. Her Royal Highness expressed herself especially pleased with the new post office and Bank of Montreal buildings, and stood admiring the architecture of the latter for several minutes. At ten o'clock this p. m. the vice-regal party, accompanied by a number of leading citizens, left for the back river, where their Excellencies visited the Convent of the Sacred Heart and were accorded a brilliant reception.

OTTAWA, May 23.

The Governor-General and Princess Louise will formerly visit St. John, N. B., during the summer. It is said that two very handsome cars are being constructed by the Gilbert car manufactory at Troy, for the Marquis of Lorne. They are calculated to run on any road, and will be used in conveying the Marquis and Princess Louise on their extended trip in Western Ontario. The Vice-Regal party will stay a week at Halifax, and will also visit St.
John, after their trip West to Kingston and Toronto. According to present intentions they will return to Ottawa in time for the celebration of Dominion Day, after which it is not unlikely that they will make a short visit in consort to the United States. There is some talk of getting up a grand celebration here on Dominion Day; and invite regiments from Montreal, Toronto and Quebec to participate.

KINGSTON, Ont., May 27.

The Dean of Ontario is to preach before the Marquis and Princess on Sunday, a. m.
The programme for Queen's College, on Friday, is made known. The principal, professors, graduates and students are to meet at 10.30 and, marshalled by Mr. Mc-Intyre, M. A., they are to meet the Governor and Princess as they enter the grounds, and conduct them to the platform, where a special convocation will take place, and where the degree of L. L. B. will be conferred upon the Marquis. An address will also be presented by Hon. J. Hamilton, as chairman of the board of trustees. After the convocation the Marquis and mayor will make addresses to the assembled audience.

LATER.—Both the Governor and Princess will lay a stone and plant memorial trees. The graduates and others will lunch at the close of the ceremonies in Convocation Hall. There will be a military escort from "A" battery, "Cavalry," "College Cadets," and 14th P. W. O. Rifles.

The Anglo-Afghan Treaty.

The principal points of the Anglo-Afghan treaty are already known. In addition to these the treaty provides:—

That henceforth there will be peace and friendship between the contracting parties; That British sympathizers in Afghanistan will be amnestied;

That the Ameer will be supported against foreign aggression;

That the British resident at Cabul will be provided with a proper escort;

That he will have power to depute British agents to the Afghan frontier on special occasions;

That the Ameer will be permitted to send agents to India.

A telegraph line to Cabul will be established. Commercial affairs form the subject of a separate convention, to be concluded for one year.

An Interesting Event.

The ordinary religious services at the Grafton Street Methodist Church, on last Sunday evening, were supplemented by an occurrence which have been highly gratifying to the zealous pastor, Rev. Mr. Heartz, as well as to the congregation generally—in fact it was occasion when all Christians might rejoice. At the invitation of the Rev.
Mr. Heartz over thirty persons, embracing heads of families and young men and women vacated their pews and took positions around the communion rails in front of the pulpit, preparatory to being formally received into connection with the Methodist Church. The impressive ritual of the church for the reception of members was read by the pastor, and each candidate was interrogated separately on doctrinal points.
All having answered satisfactorily, the right hand of fellowship was extended to each of the candidates, and thus they were admitted into church fellowship.—H.

All About a Hat.

The London correspondent of the Manchester "Guardian" writes:—"Mr. Rivers Wilson has left Egypt, and if ever the personal history of the Khedive's comp d'etat should be accurately recorded, may possibly be found that the cause of much of the trouble of last month could be hung upon a hat peg. Mr.
Rivers Wilson, it seems, did not and would not wear a fez, and appeared, as to coat and hat, in the Khedive's presence always in the fashion of Pall Mall. Anyone who knows the Es: is aware of the gravity of such an innovation. At Constantinople aid at Cairo, Mahomedan rulers have had officers of every nationality in Europe. But Mr. Rivers Wilson is probably the first who insisted on appearing bareheaded and hat in hand in the sovereign's presence. To Orientals it would seem that such a person could not possibly be in the Mussulman service. It is the costume of a visitor or of a master. The Khedive himself would probably care little about the matter, but the reflection upon himself would be really serious in the eyes of an Oriental Court."

The following appears as a Montreal despatch to the St. John Globe of last evening:
"Hon Geo. Brown received a very kind and graceful note announcing the fact that Her Majesty desired to confer the honor of Knighthood on him, and at the same time assuring him of the pleasure which it afforded His Excellency to be the agent by which the distinction was to be conveyed. Mr.
Brown, however, felt it on the whole to be his duty not to this acknowledgment of his services as a public man, and his presence in the city on Saturday was for the purpose of expressing to the Marquis of Lorne, in person, his sense of Her Majesty's favor as well as to ask permission to decline the reception of it."

A NEWCASTLE despatch of the 24th says:— "It was reported here this morning that Campbell & Co.'s mill on Beaubear Island was destroyed by fire at 12 o'clock last night.
The mill was well fitted up for sawing deals, dimension lumber, clapboards, laths, shingles and barrel staves. No insurance. Wm. Mc-Fayden, of Prince Edward Island, had an interest in the mill."

THAT Turks are not altogether incapable of good work is shown by Ahmed Vefyk Pasha, who has in two months drained some thousands of acres of swamp in the beautiful plains of Beoussa. He is now employing a vast number of the unfortunate Mussulman refugees in planting and sowing the land.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles, when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented.
Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.
