Thant Fears Wider War

UNITED NATIONS (AP) - UN Secretary-General U Thant deplored what he described as "the intensification of the bombing of North Vietnam" by the United States. Through a spokesman, he also expressed fear "it might lead to a wider war."

A spokesman gave Thant's views when asked for the secretary-general's comment on "the bombing of Hanoi." He said:

"The secretary-general on a number of occasions has expressed his conviction that the first step in the search for peace in Vietnam should be the cessation of the bombing of the North."

"He has also voiced his opposition to any form of military escalation in Vietnam."

The Guardian, Charlottetown, Sal., Dec. 17, 1966. II

"Against this background, the secretary-general cannot but deplore the loss of lives and the worsening of the situation resulting from the intensification of the bombing of North Vietnam."

if this trend were allowed to continue, it might lead to a wider war with dangerous consequences."

The spokesman said he could not answer a question whether Thant had conveyed his view to the United States.
