Will Consider Second Montreal NHL Team

MONTREAL, (CP)—Entrance of a second Montreal team in the National Hockey League will be discussed in the near future by top executives of Montreal Canadiens, managing director Frank Selke said Saturday.

The plan is strictly in the formative stage now. If it materializes, the second team exercising the old Montreal Maroons' franchise, would be owned and operated by a group independent of the present owners of Canadiens.

Selke has built up junior hockey since he came to Montreal from Toronto more than seven years ago but the attendance has been falling off. It has been somewhat the same with Montreal Royals, who played senior until the Quebec Hockey League became pro this season.

"It's no use trying to sell people something they don't want," said Selke. "They want to see NHL Hockey and the only way more people can get to see the big leagues would be to have two teams operating in Montreal."

"I have on hand thousands of letters from fans who would like to see the Canadiens in action, and I keep getting more every day. It's certain we can't make the Forum any larger, so the only answer would be another team."

"We still have the Maroon franchise, and what we could do would be to lift the QHL Royals into the

Earth Tremors In Pennsylvania Coal Mining Centre

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—The second series of earth tremors in three days damaged hundreds of homes and broke up streets Tuesday night in an area where anthracite mines honeycomb the earth.

The shock sent hundreds of persons, many of them in nightclothes, fleeing to the streets. Police reported no one was injured.

Several residents of the area reported hearing underground explosions at the time of the disturbance. The Woodward colliery of the Glen Alden Coal Co., has workings 400 feet under the surface of the area. The mines were closed after similar tremors Sunday.

The upheaval cracked foundations, walls and windows of homes and raised some sections of pavement as high as a foot. Fences were pushed over. One garage attached to a home was pulled away several inches.

There was no estimate of the total damage.

Narcotics Racketeer Sentenced To Prison By Vancouver Court

VANCOUVER, (CP)—The score was two down and one to go today in the west coast war on the narcotics racket.

George Mallock, termed a kingpin in the largest drug ring in Canadian history, was sentenced Monday to prison terms which could keep him behind bars for 28 years.

He was the second of a trio charged jointly in 1950 after a slight, curly-haired United States treasury agent named Henry L. Giordano broke a narcotics ring doing an estimated $750,000 annual business.

Mallock was sentenced to seven years on each of three charges—conspiracy to possess narcotics, giving away narcotics and possession of narcotics. The sentences ran consecutively.

In addition, he was ordered to pay fines totalling $17,000 or in default serve an additional seven years.

William Carter, the first of the three to face trial, is serving a seven-year sentence.

Mallock's brother John, who fled with him on February, 1951, when they jumped a total of $40,000 bail, is still at liberty.

Buellock, captured in New York last December, was termed by a special Crown counsel, Douglas Brown as "a business dealing in murdering souls of the people."

They were several blocks from Tuesday night's shocks.

Similar earth movements rocked a residential area of Allentown, 76 miles to the south, several hours earlier. Allentown has no coal workings under it.

Montreal Secret Emergency Control Centre Opened

MONTREAL, (CP)—A secret centre which would be the main control point in the event of an atomic bomb attack on this city was opened Friday.

From the centre, whose location was not made known, all emergency forces to reduce and care for casualties would be directed.

The centre is in a building said to be safe from anything but a direct hit and was described as one of the best "main control" stations on the continent.

From a conference room, its walls lined with maps and charts, instructions could go out to the six sub-divisions and the 40 districts in the civil defence pattern.

Each emergency service has been allotted a room to direct its operations on overall instructions from the co-ordinator.

Plans have been made to use some 70 schools as temporary hospitals, each capable of handling 3,000 casualties.

The communications phase is being organized by 120 radio "chams," twenty-five mobile installations are ready to take over from disrupted regular channels.

Retired Mailman Recalls Challenge

DENVER, (AP)—Frank Schmacher, 70, retired general superintendent of mails here, recalled the "cleverest challenge we had" during his 50 years of getting the mails through.

It was a letter addressed to: "Wood, John, Mass."

Schmacher said the letter was finally delivered to John Underwood, Andover, Mass.—naturally.

Denies Mines To Blame

W. J. Clements, state mines secretary, blamed Sunday's tremors, which damaged 300 homes in a nearby area, on cave-ins in the underground workings.

However, Francis O. Case, president of the coal company, said they "were not due to mining activities under that area."

Many residential areas in this northeastern Pennsylvania coal mining area are built over active or abandoned mines.

Sunday afternoon's tremors were the first of their kind ever experienced in this city of 86,900.

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Eisenhower has vetoed a proposed merger of Eastern and Colonial Airlines.

The Civil Aeronautics Board announced the president's action Monday.

It reversed a C.A.B. recommendation made several months ago but kept secret. Under the law, the case had to go to the president because of international aspects. Colonial also flies into Eastern Canada.

The Army offers a healthy and vigorous life. A career soldier like Mr. Gardner, at 48, can put many men years younger to shame in physical fitness and stamina. He has made parachute jumps and proudly wears the paratrooper's wings. Excellent medical and dental care help look after the health and well-being of our soldiers.

As for opportunities, look at the wide choice of skills and trades a man can learn. What other organization will give him such excellent training and pay him for it at the same time? These days promotions can come very fast. There are hundreds of career soldiers who come from the ranks to become senior N.C.O.'s and officers.

There is plenty of travel, challenge and interest for the Canadian soldier these days. Manoeuvres and duty in all parts of Canada, including the Arctic region! Active service in Korea and Germany! The job of helping to defend Canada is as big as this country and as scattered as the threatening points of aggression.
