NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Brantford Courier rises to remark that some men are born rich, and some others are relatives of either Tarté or Sifton.

There was one immigration agent in Ireland under the late Government. Now there are three; and the three are not sending out so many settlers as their predecessor in office did.

Political interest just now is, the Montreal Gazette reports, languidly concerned as to whether Mr Choquette, Mr Guay, or Mr McMullen will be the next M. P. to take a Government job. The applicants seem to constitute a fair proportion of the Liberal representatives in Parliament.

Ex-President Cleveland's declaration against the acquisition of foreign territory is likely to be remarkable chiefly for its lack of effect. There is, as the Montreal Gazette remarks, no country in the world where "ex-" before a man's title means so much in the way of lost influence as in the United States.

Referring to the recent appointment of Mr F. DeC. Davies to survey a route by way of the territories to the Yukon Mail and Empire says: This makes three for Sir Louis: Brothes Ben, the Montana, farmer, who is an immigration agent at St. Paul; a brother-in-law, who has gone into a lighthouse; and the nephew, who is surveying.

Russia opposes an Anglo-Saxon alliance, and declares to the United States that such an understanding would be most injurious to that country, as Britain is its enemy. It is interesting to find such a journal as the New York Tribune combating the Russian contention. As a matter of fact, there are the ties of blood and of commerce, of literature and of science, uniting the two English-speaking peoples, and these cannot be severed. Besides, where Britain rules she extends freedom. This is where she differs from Russia.

The evil aimed at by my hon. friend from York is a decided evil, and it is possible to get at it this House should cure it." With these words Mr Lister, M. P., now a judge, endorsed in the session of 1896 Mr. Mulock's bill to prevent a member of Parliament, or a man who had been a member of Parliament from accepting a place of emolument at the hands of the Government. But now we have the same Mr. Mulock sitting as a member of a Government which appoints this same Mr Lister, M. P., to a judgeship. The two of them may, as the Montreal Gazette remarks, be judged by their own works.

The Halifax Herald says: Today the Dominion of Canada enters upon its thirty-second year. Looked at as a whole, the history of the united country is the history of thirty-one years of remarkable progress. Those who opposed that progressive and able measure which brought about the union, and who bitterly bewailed it for years, and years afterwards, must secretly feel rather ashamed of the part they have played. But, despite their "blue ruin" efforts, the country has advanced mightily and whether they outlive their pessimism or not, it is certain that a progressive Canada will outlive them, and all who think like them.

TEACHERS IN COUNCIL.

Annual Meeting of Western Inspectorate at Kensington.

The annual session of the Teachers' Convention of the Western Inspectorate opened in the Hall at Kensington on Wednesday morning. President McIntyre, in a few brief remarks reviewed the general work of the past year, the financial standing of the convention, and the action of the government respecting the supplementary clauses. A discussion followed participated in by Messrs Ross, R H Campbell and E S MacPhail.

At the afternoon session, interesting papers were read by Miss Durant, Mr. Charles Kielly and Rev. Charles McKay, and the usual committees were appointed. Dr. Darrach occupied the chair at the public meeting, and a choice programme was well rendered.

At Thursday morning's session a paper on Composition and spelling was read by Mr. Matthias Smith.

Mr. J. A. Ready, B. A., read a very instructive paper on the "Human Soul in Education."

The afternoon session was opened with a report from the finance committee, showing an enrolment of 49 teachers, and a good balance of funds on hand.

The following officers were chosen for next year: President, Charles W Kielly; Vice-President, Miss H Beattie; Secretary, Norman Carruthers; Executive Committee, E S MacPhail, W D McIntyre, Matthias Smith, J A Ready, Maggie Ross.

On motion of Mr Carruthers, the resolution passed by the Charlottetown Teachers' Institute regarding the action of the government in repealing the supplementary clause was unanimously adopted. Mr Hensley Stavert read a paper on "The personality of the Teacher." A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr Wagstaff, of Halifax, for his presence and assistance during the meetings of the Convention.

The convention closed with singing the National Anthem.

BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

The P. E. Island Association met with the North River Church yesterday morning in its thirty-first annual gathering. They proceeded at once to the work of organization.

The following officers were elected: Moderator—Rev. J. C. Spurr. Secretary—Dr. A. Simpson. Asst. Secretary—C. W. Jackson. Treasurer—Wm. Fraser.

Rev. J. A. Gordon, of St. John, Malcolm McLean, of North Sydney, and other visiting brethren were invited to seats in the Association.

The following pulpits appointments were made for the Sabbath:

Bonshaw, evening; Rev. C W Turner. Long Creek, morning; Rev C W Turner. Clyde River, afternoon; Rev D Price. Kingston, evening; C W Jackson. Cornwall North church Rev. E J Grant. Charlottetown, Baptist morning; Rev J A Gordon.

Charlottetown, Baptist evening; Rev. A Johnson. Charlottetown, First Methodist morning; Rev. Dr. Black.

North River, evening; Rev. J A Gordon. Charlottetown, Church of Christ Rev. A C Shaw.

Report on obituarious was read and spoken to by various brethren. No deaths were reported among the clergy of the denomination on the Island. Three prominent laymen had passed away, viz, Bro DesBrisay, of Ch'town; Bro Jones, of Hazelbrook; Bro Simmons, of Tryon. Other deaths among the laity were mentioned.

The afternoon session was devoted to Sabbath School work. The report on this work was presented by Pastor Brown. This report specially urged upon the body the evangelistic elements of S S work, and also urged that the denomination either take hold of the inter-denominational convention or form a convention of their own.

J K Ross, of Charlottetown, addressed the association on this matter, dealing with the evangelistic element of the work. He considered the aim of the Sabbath School the conversion of the schoolers. He feared that the desire to make the lesson interesting often obscured the grand aim of individual hearts. He says that of the 1330 scholars of the 23 Baptist S. S. on the Island, in 1897 only 40 were brought into the church. Here he believed was a field for thought and work on the part of the Church.

The matter of the S. S. Convention was thoroughly discussed and it was the general impression that the denomination should take a greater interest in the work and take a stronger hold of the union convention. A number of fresh and interesting addresses were made on general S. S. work.

At the close of the discussion the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, that this association approve of the objects of the P E I International Sabbath School convention in all its efforts in S S work and recommend our Sabbath School workers to avail themselves of its aid by a more general participation in the services of this convention. The evening session found a crowded meeting. The subject was young people's work. A number of societies reported good work. J K Ross made an appeal to the young people in behalf of the Buffalo convention. This trip, will be taken between July 11th and 21st., and will cost only $44.

J. P. Gordon presented a most interesting paper on "The Model Prayer Meeting." C W Jackson gave a brief outline of "Method of Conducting the Sacred Literature Course."

Rev E J Grant gave some ways of interesting young people in church work and Pastor Corey gave an excellent address on "The abuses of organizations. The music discoursed by the choir was charming, as was also the solo by Mr. Hugu McLean.

THE MILES COMPANY.

The Miles Ideal Stock Company gave their opening entertainment at the Opera House last evening to a large audience. "Under the British Flag" was the bill, and everyone was delighted with the presentation. The story was an interesting one, and the plot had a bearing upon the present war situation which made the play peculiarly appropriate. Many pleasing situations are developed during the course of the production, notably in the third act when high representatives of the various nations meet to protest against an act of the Spanish. The entry of each representative was heralded by a sailor bearing the flag of the nation represented, and the scene evoked the greatest enthusiasm. The various characters in the cast were all well taken, and Mr. Miles, Mr. Butler and the other favorites of last season were well received. The new members of the company also made good impressions. Between the acts specialties were introduced by different members of the company. This afternoon "Fritz in America" is being presented. To-night Michael Strogoff will be given. This is a capital play and it will be well interpreted by Mr. Miles and the clever company of players supporting him. There should be a full house.

"Fleetwood," 235j, stands at Andrew Doyle's stables, Grafton Street, every Friday. Balance of time at Albert Craswell's, Rustico. In breeding and in individuality this grand horse is not surpassed on the Island and Mr. Craswell expects to give him a mark of 2 26 or better this fall like he gave his brother Shaver last fall. Breeders should see "Fleetwood" 151 21 d 21w.
