St. Dunstan's Tangle With Mt. A. Mounties

By CHARLEY MacMILLAN

First place in the Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey League is at stake this afternoon when St. Dunstan's University Saints of Charlottetown will meet Mount Allison Mounties at Sackville. The Saints and the Mounties are in a first place tie with four points apiece, courtesy of their 8-4 victories last week against the hapless Acadia Axemen.

Coach Jack Kane of SDU indicated yesterday that he considers this game as "a must win" encounter. "Naturally all our games are a must this year," he said, "but if we don't take the pre-Christmas games, it will be that much harder to make it up after Christmas. Last year we blew two games before Christmas — to U.N.B. and to St. Thomas — and it cost us the championship. We don't plan to do the same this year."

The Saints will be minus the services of Gordie Whitlock, who is suffering from a badly torn shoulder muscle. The injury was received in the third period of the game with Acadia. He has been out practicing all week, but wasn't dressed in full gear.

GORDIE WHITLOCK

Team Captain Vince Mulligan has also been on the limp. He received a badly swollen ankle in practice Wednesday when he stopped a puck below the shin pad. The swell has gone down considerably, however, and he can start tomorrow.

The Mounties have played two games to date, the bout last week against Acadia, and the one two weeks ago against the University of Moncton, which it won 7-3. The Mounties were paced in the Acadia game by the six goal performance of their top line of MacLernon, Attridge, and Velon. Dave MacLernon, a former football star with Mt. "A", rifled home four big goals, including the winner.

This is the only game on tap in the MIHL this weekend.

Dunstans and Norm "Hawk" Larter of the Rangers expect a victory from their respective teams and it will be interesting to see which one of these gentlemen turns out to be correct.

The Rangers are requested to be at the Charlottetown Forum at 6.45 p.m.

Rangers Meet St. Dunstan's

There will be an exhibition hockey game between St. Dunstan's High School and Rogers Rangers at the St. Dunstan's Rink tonight at 8 p.m.

The St. Dunstan's team, the defending Island Interscholastic Senior "A" Hockey League champs will be meeting the Rangers for the first time. The Rangers have been undefeated in their first year in the Charlottetown and District Junior Hockey League.

Some of the players returning from last years championship teams for St. Dunstan's are: Herbie Steele, Cecil MacDonald, and Carl McQuaid. Allan Flood and Billy Weatherbie, two of the stars of last years Charlottetown Legion team have bolstered the ranks of the St. Dunstan's squad.

This game should be a real crowd pleaser as the Saints have the nucleus of last years great team while the Rangers have proven themselves the top team in the Junior circuit.

Leafs Play Host To Wings; Will Use Sawchuk In Nets

By JERRY GLADMAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Toronto Maple Leafs dropped another game Thursday night, this one 4-2 to Montreal Canadiens and the cry immediately went up that the defending Stanley Cup champions' veterans could possibly be saving in.

However, it shouldn't come as much of a surprise if the leafs come storming back in weekend action with a few of the "old men" leading the way.

Leafs play host to the first-place Detroit Red Wings Saturday night while Chicago Black Hawks are at Montreal and New York Rangers visit Boston Bruins. Montreal is at Detroit and New York at Chicago Sunday.

As soon as Leafs lose a few games—they've recorded only one victory in their last five starts—the critics put the rap on oldtimers such as Johnny Bower, 40-year-old goalie, centre Red Kelly, 37, defenceman Allan Stanley, 38, and right-winger George Armstrong, 34.

However, past charts will show the veterans usually bounce back with impressive performances to silence their critics.

PRIME EXAMPLE

Stanley, the square - jawed Timmins native is a prime example. For the last three years, people have been insisting that Stanley is past his peak and should retire. Yet he has been one of Leafs' most solid defencemen throughout and makes up for a lack of speed by using his knowledge.

Kelly is another target for the barbs. During the 1963-64 campaign, Kelly divided his time between Parliament—he's Liberal member of Parliament for York West—and hockey and it was suggested strongly that he couldn't do both. But the red-headed former defence man came back strong this season and has been skating with the zest of a youngster.

Bower admittedly looked rusty against Canadiens, but this more than likely is a result of a seven-game layoff than old age. However, it's doubtful whether Bower will be able to play himself into shape since Terry Sawchuk, another veteran at 33, probably will be tending net duties against his former team-mates Saturday.

MISS BIG M

It's no secret that Punch Imlach's Leafs sadly miss the efforts of their star leftwinger, Frank Mahovlich, who has been in and out of hospital the last few weeks with a mysterious ailment. Mahovlich and the Leaf brass know what the ailment is but won't release the information to the public.

The player who misses Mahovlich the most on the Leafs is rookie Ron Ellis. Placed on a line with Mahovlich and smooth-skating Andy Bathgate at the beginning of the season, Ellis promptly potted six goals to lead the club in that department.

Then Mahovlich took ill and Ellis stopped scoring goals. He went 11 games without registering the red light until Thursday when he scored his seventh of the campaign.

Imlach may be forced to make a few changes to get his squad back onto the winning track, but past performances would indicate the critics would do best not to sell the Leafs short just yet.

Veteran Detroit defenceman Marcel Pronovost will be forced to miss both weekend games as a result of a broken bone in his left foot. Pronovost was hurt when he stopped a hard drive from Reg Fleming in the Wings' 4-2 triumph over Boston Thursday.

Leftwinger Ron Murphy and centre Ed Joyal, both nursing shoulder injuries, will also sit out Saturday. Coach Sid Abel said he will retain the services of rookie centre Butch Paul, who made his NHL debut Thursday.

New Souris Club Officially Opened

SOURIS — The Souris Curling Club officially opened last night with over one hundred people in attendance.

Milton Fitzpatrick acted as master of ceremonies at the opening. Councillor Leard as the representative of the mayor spoke briefly and welcomed everyone to the new curling rink.

Dr. Edward Kassner, on behalf of the club, presented a gift to Mrs. Genevieve Roach.

Henry Larter, vice-president of the Souris Curling Club, welcomed the members of the Summerside Curling Association, Flt. Lt. Al Forgie who is also president of the Prince Edward Island Curling Association.

Mr. Forgie congratulated the Souris Curling Club on its fine new building and welcomed the Souris Curling Club to the Prince Edward Island Curling Association.

Mr. Forgie also threw out the first rock which was decorated with two small flags; one was the island tartan while the other was of the three maple leaves design.

The opening ceremonies were followed by a reception.

Two curling teams will meet to decide who will represent the Souris Club in the Gaboury Trophy Bonspiel.

The bonspiel gets underway today, December 5 at 2:30 p.m.

All seven teams in the P.E.I. Curling Association will be represented. These clubs are: Montague, Charlottetown, Belvedere, Souris, Summerside, Albrton, and Summerside RCAF.

Sports Coliseum May Not Be Built

VANCOUVER (CP)—Stafford Smythe, president of the Toronto Maple Leafs, was quoted Friday as saying that his proposal to build an $8,000,000 sports coliseum is withdrawan if city council insists on restrictions.

"The deal is off" if council insists that he cannot build a hotel or other facilities within zoning regulations, Smythe was quoted as saying by radio station CKNW New Westminster in a telephone interview from Delray Beach, Fla.

"We wouldn't even bother negotiating on those terms."

A few hours later, however, Mayor Bill Rathie issued a statement saying he had also talked with Smythe by telephone Friday and that "Smythe had said the coliseum deal stands."

Saints On The Road

The St. Dunstan's Varsity Saints take to the road today and travel to Sackville, N.B., when they will cross sticks with Mount Allison Mounties. Today's encounter will be the Saint's second contest in Maritime Intercollegiate competition, this season. They garnered an 8-4 decision over the Acadia Axemen in a battle staged at the SDU rink, last Friday night.

The Saints will be favored to nail down a victory in today's battle, but visiting clubs have found it quite difficult to take a victory oue of the Mt. Allison rink over the years. The sudents at the Sackville University are rabid hockey fans and they turn out in hordes to cheer their team and this encourages the Mounties to give an all out effort in order not to disappoint their loyal followers.

The John Kane coached Red and White squad will be going into the Mt. Allison arena with a full line-up, with the exception of right-winger Gordie Whitlock. Whitlock suffered torn ligaments in his left shoulder in the third period of the Acadia battle. Gordie will likely be out of action for at least anouther week.

Coach Kane has called upon speedy Jack Hynes of Charlottetown to fill the vacancy left by Whitlock's injury. Jack will be performing at right-wing with George MacMillan at the pivot spot and George Monaghan patrolling the port side. The Kanemen have quite a task ahead of them this season as they have to have an almost undefeated season in order to earn the right to represent the MIHL in dominion playdowns. There are no playoffs and the team that leads the league down to the wire picks up all the marbles.

The Saints and St. Francis Xavier are being touted as the powerhouses of this year's loop and the local pucksters will have to meet the X-men on home ice this season in a four-point battle. This columnist can well share the Saints' feelings when they think of meeting the powerful X-men in their home rink. We feel this rink should be declared out-of-bounds by the league executive as it is too small for this calibre of hockey. The X-men are used to the small surface and have a passing and checking system which is practically unbeatable in this rink.

Coach Kane is well aware of this and we think he will have his team at a high peak of enthusiasm for this battle and will have them well briefed on the type of hockey they will have to play under these rink conditions.

Best of luck to the Saints in today's battle with the Mounties.

Tid Bits From Here And There

All six teams will see action in the National Hockey League tonight. The Black Hawks will travel to the Montreal Forum to battle with the Canadiens, the Wings will be in Toronto and the New York Rangers will envade Boston.

Czechoslovakia defeated Sweden, 3-0, in the second match of their international ice hockey meet in Stockholm, Friday night. Last Wednesday the Czechs won 4-1.

Coach Frank Clair is back in the Ottawa fold and he signed a three year contract with Rough Riders, Thursday. Clair told the press after the signing of the contract that he hadn't really been serious about going with the Toronto Argonauts. We think he was just trying to play a little game of two sides against the middle.

Sugar Ray Robinson has been quoted recently as saying he wants another shot at the world middleweight boxing championship. Robinson said "my last wish is to retire as a champion." We think the "Sugarman is one of the best boxers to ever lace on a pair of gloves, but a young fellow by the name of Joey Giardello, whom is the present world champion, would no doubt hang his head in a corner, somewhere, if he lets a man 44 years of age beat him, no matter how good he was in his hey-day. Robinson is and was great, but you can't last forever in a physical contact sport.

The St. Dunstan's High School hockey team, under the coaching of Bert Steel will play their first game of the season, when they host the Norman Larter coached Rogers Rangers at the SDU rink tonight. The Rangers are undefeated in the Charlottetown and District Junior hockey league

Bears, Packers Clash In Battle For Second

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers, the teams supposed to be fighting it out for the Western Conference title, will be hitting in the snow banks of Chicago's Wrigley Field today but no national Football League title will be hanging in the balance.

Despite heavy snowstorms the last three days, a sellout crowd of 48,000 will watch this second meeting of the season between these old-time rivals. The Bears, defending champs, are in sixth place and the Packers, the pre-season favorite to dethrone the Bears, are concerned only with second money and a trip to the Playoff Bowl at Miami Jan. 3.

All of the other big league pro games are to be played Sunday. The real big game of the weekend will be played at St Louis where the Cardinals make their last desperate stand to stop Cleveland's march toward the Eastern Conference crown. A victory or a tie will wrap it up for the Browns If the Cards win, the race will go down to the final weekend of the season. Minnesota, still clinging to a chance for second place in the West if the Packers falter, invades New York for the first time ever to play the last-place Giants.

APPROACHES RECORD

Baltimore, winner of 11 straight and assured of the Western title and a place in the Dec. 27 championships game, plays Detroit Lions at Baltimore. Lenny Moore of the Colts needs only three more touchdowns to break the league record of 20 in one year. The Lions also have a shot at second.

Los Angeles, another team with a slim mathematical chance at second money in the West, plays at San Francisco.

Pittsburgh plays at Washington and Dallas at Philadelphia in other NFL games.

Buffalo hopes to continue its drive toward the Eastern Division title in the American Football League at Oakland Sunday. Boston Pats, hoping to bring the race down to their final meeting with Buffalo Dec. 20, play at Kansas City.

San Diego can wrap up the Western Division championship by beating or tying the New York Jets Sunday at San Diego

Allie DesRoches Leads Combines

Allie DesRoches scored two goals, Greg Deighan picked up four points and it was like old times for Enman Drug as they whipped Summerside's Junior Legionnaires 6-3 here last night. The Combines, winning their last two games now have a season record of 3-3.

Fine penalties were called in the fast skating Prince County League game.

DesRoches scored his first goal with 36 seconds remaining in the opening period to give the Combines a 1-0 lead. Deighan made it 2-0 at a 6.17 of the second period.

The Legionnaires, although in the midst of a five game losing streak are an aggressive club and it paid off twice after Deghan's goal. Steady Paul MacWilliams scored his first of two markers from along the boards on a shot that never left the ice. Goalie Tim MacGulgan took a swipe at the puck and missed. Don Arsenault tied the score 2-2 whacking in a rebound from a goal mouth jam up.

Combines defenceman Leroy Clow boomed a shoulder high slap shot passed a motionless goalie Gary Sommers. The net minder didn't even see the drive from the blueline. The goal gave Enman Drug a 3-2 lead going into the final period.

Four goals were scored in less than eight minutes in that period. MacWilliams scored on a breakaway rush for his second goal and Willie Gallant completed the scoring deking Sommers to his knees, swung around him and poked the puck behind the goalie.

Dodgers Trade Frank Howard

HOUSTON (AP) — Los Angeles Dodgers traded outfielder Frank Howard and obtained southpaw pitcher Claude Osteen in a six - player intep - league transaction with Washington Senators Friday.

The Dodgers also received infielder John Kennedy and an undisclosed amount of money while the Senators acquired pitchers Phil Ortega and Pete Richert and infielder Ken Mc-Mullen in the biggest deal of the annual winter meetings

Osteen won 15 and lost 13 for the ninth-place Senators in 1964.

Kennedy, whose normal position is third base, batted .220 with 35 runs batted in.
