CALENDAR.—The Confederation League through their representative, Mr. W. G. Hogg, has presented the Guardian with a very useful calendar. Many thanks.

A FLOURISHING CLUB.—The 2nd annual meeting of the Marshfield Rural Entertaining Club, was held at the home of Mr. L. H. D. Foster this week. The report of the secretary showed a membership of thirty-five all in good standing, the finances in good shape after paying all expenses, and a nice balance to the credit of the club. The report of the President, Mr. Earl Foster, followed, which is too lengthy to print. He told of the activities of the Club for the year which were always for the betterment of the individual as well as the community. He said it was indeed with deep regret that he had to sever his connection with the Club but on account of attending the Technical School it would be impossible to attend, but he spoke for his successor in office the same hearty support and sympathy that was always accorded the officers for the year are—Health Foster; Secy, Martha Wright. The committee to furnish programmes on alternate nights were the High Road committee, Health Foster, Gladys Ferguson, Miss Jean Godfrey; the Low Road committee, Mr. Leo Mill, Emma Scott and Lila Boswell. Besides several programmes were given during the year for various good causes. It was decided to have a part of next night's program a debate on, resolved that a domestic science course is of more practical benefit to a girl than a business course. The speakers on the affirmative are, Mylie Gibson, Sara Mill, Martha Wright, Alex Scott, Health Foster, Ta'mara Fox, and the negatives will be the President, Ernest Foster, Jessie Jenkins, Roy Stewart, Leo Mill and Almon Wood. The following programme was then presented: Solo and Chorus, Alex Scott taking the solo; Reading, Harry Murray; Solo, Miss Wright; Duet, Sara Mill, Martha Wright; Solo, Jessie Jenkins; Duet, Sara Mill, Lurch was then served and a half hour spent in games and a general good time. After giving the retiring officers a vote of thanks, announcing the new President and Secretary, (a sturdy pair), the meeting closed by singing the national Anthem.

without foundation and as false as the Government itself, and that means the extreme of falsity. The remaining third consisting of multitudinous Promises, we have shown EVERY ONE OF THEM. WITHOUT ANY EXCEPTIONS. TO HAVE BEEN FLAGRANTLY AND RUTHLESSLY VIOLATED, AND PRACTICALLY IN EVERY PARTICULAR. Such a catalogue of broken promises was never before marshalled out in the history of responsible government. We commend these facts to the careful consideration of the people, and of His Honour the Lieutenant Governor, and ask, can His Honour continue to retain as his advisers this combination, which has violated every pre-election promise, and who are holding office, legislating and enforcing these enactments, adversely and in opposition to the will of the people, as directly expressed by them at the polls?

A SORE BEREAVEMENT.—Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McDonald of this city will have this heart-breaking word that came to them yesterday announcing the death of their only daughter, Mrs. Hensby in Prince George, B. C. The announcement came with a startling shock as her letters were coming regularly, including the glad Christmas messages, with no intimation of illness or of the shadow to fall so soon. No particulars have yet been received other than that she died suddenly. The late Mrs. Hensby left here thirteen years ago with her husband when he became Manager of the Royal Bank at Prince George, B. C. She visited her home here about a year after her marriage. She leaves to mourn besides her husband and parents two daughters, Ruth aged twelve years at her home in Prince George, and Helen, aged eight, who is at present with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McDonald of this city. To the bereaved family the Guardian tenders deepest sympathy.
