Open lead—five of hearts.

After 67 hands of the 156-deal match were completed, the United States team was leading Italy 103 international match points to 74.

At this point it appeared that an upset was in the making; that the powerful Italian team which had won three European and two world championships in succession was about to be toppled from its throne.

But the indomitable Italians rallied and gave a splendid performance for the rest of the match, overcoming the 29-IMP deficit to win by 50 IMPs, while the 'American team steadily reprogressed and lost a golden opportunity.

Before the collapse came, however, the American representatives shone at both tables on this deal, No. 60, while the two Italian pairs came up with bad results.

Avarelli passed the one heart takeout double, deciding to play for penalties. Stakgold ran to two clubs, doubled by Belladonna, who also doubled the two diamond takeout. Stakgold found this contract too unpleasant to take and bid two hearts, which Avarelli doubled.

The dummy was a welcome surprise to Stakgold. The bidding had sounded as though he was caught between two fires and the penalty might be severe, but the unexpected strength Harmon produced eased the situation considerably.

Declarer made the fine play of winning the heart lead in dummy, refusing the free finesse. He led a spade and lost the jack to the queen. Belladonna shifted to a diamond, which Stakgold ruffed.

The defense was unable to prevent Stakgold from trumping a spade in dummy. He also ruffed two more diamonds in his own hand and wound up making the doubled contract, winning five trump tricks, the A-K of clubs, and the spade ruff, or a score of 470 points.

At the other table, Fishbein, with the West hand, doubled Forquet's opening heart bid, whereupon Siniscalco (North) bid two diamonds. Hazen and Forquet passed. Fishbein, after great thought, also decided to pass.

Siniscalco went down two—100 points. America gained 570 points on the deal—6 IMPs.

Dynamite Blast Is Big

CHUTE des PASSES, Que. (CP)—Engineers on a giant power project here hope to do some noisy plug pulling this week with 30 tons of dynamite.

If all goes according to plan they hope to crumble 27,000 tons of rock in the biggest dynamite blast since Ripple Rock, in the straits between the British Columbia mainland and Vancouver Island, was powdered in an underwater blast last year.

The solid rock plug blocks the entrance to an underground spillway leading from the Peribonka River. When the plug goes, river water will pour into the spillway tunnel but will be blocked by a dam ¼-mile from the intake.

Eventually it will pass from the dam into another steep tunnel which will carry it underground to the turbines.

FOR ALCAN PLANTS

When the second tunnel is opened later this summer this Aluminum Company of Canada hydro station 250 miles north of Quebec City will start turning out power for Alcan plants at Arvida and other points in the Lake St. John area.

Engineers on the project—including F. D. Bickle who set up the Ripple Rock blast—want to blow the plug while the water level in the Peribonka is still low under winter ice.

Drillers have bored shot holes into the plug to hold the close-spaced charges which are to pulverize it. A deep excavation has been dug into the tunnel floor near the plug. Debris from the blast is supposed to settle in there and allow the water to pour through the tunnel.

After the charges have gone off frog men will enter the tunnel to make sure a free passage for the water has been cleared.

Nfld. Minister Refuses Reply

OTTAWA (CP) — Newfoundland Liberal J. W. Pickersgill tried unsuccessfully Monday to get that province's cabinet representative to indicate whether he differs from his cabinet colleagues on federal aid to the island province.

In the Commons, he asked Hon. William J. Browne, minister without portfolio, whether he concurred in the government's announced decision to continue financial aid to Newfoundland only until 1962.

Mr. Pickersgill read from the March 26 St. John's Daily News which had quoted Mr. Browne, commenting on the government's intention, as saying there are "22 other members of the cabinet and I can't be expected to push my opinion down their throats."

The Liberal MP for Bonavista-Twillingate said that "in view of the well-known doctrine of collective responsibility," the Commons had the right to know whether Mr. Browne concurred in the cabinet decision to repudiate the solemn obligations under the terms of union."

Speaker Roland Michener said he did not consider Mr. Pickersgill's remarks a question of privilege. There was no further discussion.

CANAL REOPENS

PORT COLBORNE, Ont. (CP) The Welland Canal opened at 8 a.m. Monday but there is little traffic moving on the waterway. Shipping officials here said a warming sun and rain were needed to soften up the ice on Lake Erie.

KILLED BY FOOTBALL

WILMSLOW, England (AP)—A 64-year-old soccer club official died soon after he was struck on the head by a football, an inquest was told Monday. The official, Fredrick Davies, was hit over right ear by a kicked ball during practice Saturday.
