EARNSLIFFE NOTES.

Mr. John McAulay, of Pinette, is visiting friends in Earnsliffe.

Miss Norah Crane, of China Point, is recovering from her recent illness.

Mr. Austin McInnis, of St. Dunstan's College, and his sister, Angelina, of Notre Dame Convent, are spending their Xmas holidays in Earnsliffe.

In our last letter we spoke of this being a "free country." We here apologise to THE EXAMINER'S readers for making that statement; we forgot we are ruled by Tarte and his minions.

During the past week the road from Cherry Valley to Southport has, at times, owing to the numerous deep pitches been almost impassible; and many travellers have had narrow escapes from serious injury to life and property. The people are now asking if this is the first instalment of the "new improved system of road-making" we were promised before the last election.

A Sluggish, Torpid Liver

When the liver gets slow and sluggish in action bile is left in the blood to poison the whole system and give rise to serious bodily derangements. When there are biliousness, headache, constipation and indigestion Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills make you well in a surprisingly short time.

Mrs. H. A. Smith, 132 Manning avenue, Toronto, states:—"My daughter has had a wretched time of it for quite a while with liver complaint, causing, among other troubles, weakness of the stomach, very sallow complexion, and a most miserable state of feeling generally. My husband had occasion to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and spoke so highly of their merit that I concluded to have her try them, and since beginning their use she has markedly improved in every way. I can with confidence therefore recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills." One pill a dose; 25 cents a box.

feat Mr. A. A. McLean; and in proof of this charge point to the large number of almanacs to be seen in the homes of ex-tory electors. But, believing Mr. Irving fought a fair fight, we are of the opinion that this influence was brought to bear on weak-kneed electors without his knowledge or consent.

A year ago we suggested some New Year resolutions for the ladies; and we believe a lot of our fair friends are better off today for having adopted those suggestions. We now suggest a few resolutions for some of our bachelor friends to copy and sign on January 1st, 1901. They are:

I resolve that,—
I will not be "hog."
I will not be a "dude."
I won't bite off more than I can chew.

I will strive to avoid barb wire fences after dark.

I will give up such bad habits as—buying candies for the girls, using face powder, wearing "horse collars," singing in my sleep, talking about my troubles and complaints, and snoring.

If I can't get a girl I will get a pipe—perhaps two.

I will keep no secrets from my neighbors—tell them everything.

I will advocate and work for a "home" for incurable Grits.

I will cease thinking that the earth was made for my special benefit; also, that every girl that smiles on me is pining for my love.

I will cease writing my fair correspondents that "I could die for you," or "I cannot live without you," etc.

I will not woo the daughter, Of any Liberal 'dove,' I will not leave the Tories, O For almanacs or love.

You will not be doing yourself justice if you buy an ulster, reefer, or fur coat, until you see our prices: we will save you dollars.—J. B. MacDonald. 4 ins.

TRUE ECONOMY

THE DIFFERENCE between buying a cheap suit and a good suit is the cheap suit never looks well, and a man doesn't look well in it—looks as if it was made for some other man, and will only wear a short while at the longest when it is all out of shape. Our make of Suits, Overcoats and Trousers always look well, and a man feels good in them, feels as though there is no better dressed man than he; and will keep their shape and look well till they are worn out.

Every Person Would Like to be Well Dressed

WELL, COME TO OUR STORE, where you are sure of getting the best fitting suit in the city. No wrinkles on the shoulder, no falling off at the collar, but every garment made decently and according to order
