DEATH OF A PRIEST.—The death of Rev. Father Francis Macdonald is announced to-day. It occurred at St. George's this morning. The deceased priest was 85 years of age, and a few weeks ago passed the sixtieth anniversary of his ordination. He had the reputation of being the oldest priest in Canada. Owing to his advanced age and declining health "Father Francis," as he was familiarly called, has not been able to take a very active part in the duties of the priesthood for some time. He was widely known and greatly esteemed. The funeral will take place on Thursday.

LECTURE ON HEALTH.—The parlors of the W. C. T. U. were well filled last evening to hear Dr. Agnes Haviland deliver her lecture on "Health." Although it lasted for nearly two hours the intense interest manifested proved no one felt the time long. Dr. Haviland has for many years been connected as consulting and corresponding physician with the Viavi Co., of San Francisco, Cal., one of the most extensive and successful medicine companies of the world. Her explanations of the Viavi treatment were plain and practical and appealed to a woman's common sense. There was not a woman that left the room last night but came away knowing much more about her marvellously constructed body than she did before entering. Dr. Haviland, who is touring the States and Canada in the interest of the Viavi Co., was introduced by Miss Duffett, Viavi manager for Prince Edward Island. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered the Doctor at the close for her very instructive and interesting lecture. —d&w.
