LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Bishop Binney has gone to England. He will be absent about four months.

"The Sabbath School Convention" meets at Summerside on the 7th September.

Killed by Lightning.—A child was killed by lightning yesterday evening, at Millcove, Lot 54.

The Protestant Academy.—Mr. Edward Manning, late of the St. John Grammar School, has accepted the appointment of Principal of the Protestant Academy (late Wesleyan Academy) of this city.

We were informed that a Miss Campbell of Fairfield, accompanied by some gentlemen, went mackerel fishing a few days ago, when she caught 144 fish herself. Can any of our Souris ladies beat that?—Times.

The N. B. Senatorship.—It is the general opinion in St. John that Mr. J. D. Lewin, President of the Bank of New Brunswick, will succeed the late Hon. John Robertson as Senator—that is if Mr. L. will accept the position.—Ex. Chronicle

The Bank Robbery.—The Halifax papers are now publishing the evidence in the Bank Robbery case. One of the witnesses, a woman in care of the Bank building, swears that she believes one of the prisoners to be the man who passed her and made his way into the Bank. Other witnesses swear that the two men showed large bundles of notes at Bedford. When they were arrested they had not those notes.

Accident.—On election day, as Miss Isabella Hope was driving past Feetham & Henry's butcher shop, her horse took fright from the blowing of the foudry whistle, and ran away. The horse became unmanagable and ran into the ditch near the corner of R. T. Holman's residence, upset the wagon, and pitched Miss Hope out. Mr. Holman who was standing near at the time ran to her assistance. Fortunately, she received but one or two slight bruises. The wagon was completely smashed up.—Journal.

The Land Commission.—Sittings of the Land Commission were re-commenced on Thursday last—Ex. Governor Wilmot presiding. The titles, accounts, etc., in connection with following estates, have been enquired into:—

Margaret S. Stevenson,
Frederick Francis Holland,
A. E. C. Holland and wife,
A. E. C. Holland,
John Yeo, James Yeo, William Richards, John Ings and others.

The estates of J. Roach Bourke, the Fannings, Thompson, and De Brisay are still to be dealt with by the Court, which will probably complete its labors next week.

Sad and Untimely Death.—We deeply regret to announce that on Monday last Mr. Daniel Fitzpatrick of "Ten Mile House," St. Peters Road, met a shocking and unexpected death. He was driving from Mount Stewart to his home in a sulky, attached to which were two horses—one in the shafts the other, without harness, trotting alongside. It is supposed that the latter, a young and spirited animal, had forged ahead and that, in the effort to get him back to his place, Mr. Fitzpatrick was drawn from his seat. At any rate, when the horses arrived home, he was hanging from the seat of the sulky by the left leg, his head dragging on the ground, bruised and fractured, and he quite dead. The marks on the track showed that Mr. Fitzpatrick had been drawn, in the position in which he suffered his last agony, about four miles. An inquest was held in view of the body on Tuesday last, and a verdict rendered in accordance with facts.

CORRESPONDENCE.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, D.C., Aug. 23, 1876.

Those who some months since predicted an unusually warm campaign have, so far as this place is concerned up to this time, proved false prophets. Both parties are remarkably quiet, and it is seldom you will hear politics discussed about the hotels or other places of public resort. They have, however, their National and State Clubs and of course campaign documents are liberally circulated. The probabilities of a battle between the U. S. troops and the forces of Sitting Bull grows less from day to day. The wary chief feeling that he may be worsted in any battle that may now take place, has adopted the Fabian policy and is holding off. He will not fight except at great advantage to himself, and Crook and Terry are not able to force him into such a position as will compel him to give battle. The chances are therefore, that no engagement will take place, but that the approaching frost will compel the U. S. troops to return to their base of supplies, and force Indians to disband and seek winter quarters or their Agencies. Gen. Sheridan telegraphed to Gen. Sherman yesterday requesting him to ask the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to permit him to raise one hundred Pawnee scouts, and wants to know at once. Gen. Sherman forwarded the despatch at once to the Indian Bureau, endorsed 'do you object?' Commissioner Smith telegraphed immediately to Superintendent Nicholson to permit the Pawnees to go and render all the aid necessary. The 'St. Paul Pioneer Press and Tribune' says that Medicine Cloud and party, belonging to the Fort Peck Agency, whom Major Mitchell, Indian Agent at Fort Peck, sent to Sitting Bull with a massage May 27th last, returned to the Agency. The message sent by Major Mitchell to Sitting Bull was to the effect that he desired him to come and visit Fort Peck, hoping that such a step would result in his returning upon the reservation and ceasing hostilities against the whites. To this Sitting Bull replied July 27th: "Tell him I am coming before long to his Post to trade. Tell him I did not commence: I am getting old and did not want to fight; but the whites rush on me and I am compelled to defend myself; that, but for the soldiers stationed on the Rosebud, I and my people would be there before. If I was assured of the protection of the great father, I would go to Fort Peck for the purpose of making peace. I and other chiefs want the Black Hills abandoned and we will make peace.' The Connecticut Peace Society of Mystic Corner have passed a resolution opposing the erection of the Indian Bureau to the War Department: demand the invasion of the Black Hills: charge that the war was forced upon the Indians; demand an investigation of the many enumerated outrages on the Indians; comment on the Congressional investigations of the war and navy department, and declare that General Custer's death was but a just retribution for the slaughter of friendly Indians. Zachareah Crouch presided. During the session of two days, two thousand persons attended. The following was received here yesterday at 3.50 a. m.: Rockbridge, Alum Springs, Wm. Kerr suffered the most intense agony up to midnight last night, but thereafter rested more comfortably. His death is now only a question of time and that a short one. His mind is still clear and active, his will as firm and resolute as ever. Hon. S. S. Cox and wife have just arrived to pay their last tribute of respect to the dying speaker. He converses with them as freely as his failing strength will allow. Hon. Montgomery Blair has had to day a quite lengthy conversation with Mr. Kerr. Dr. Pope says he cannot last much longer, that his food refuses to assimilate, and that he is now living wholly upon his own flesh. This will soon fail him. Mr. Kerr is surrounded by friends who momentarily are expecting his death. In writing to his law partner he says: 'The end of it all is near at hand. I wish it could be without pain, but fear it is not.

SAXON.

A convict who escaped from a North Carolina jail stopped at a farmhouse and told the inmates that he was an officer in pursuit of a fugitive, and had put on the prison dress in order to deceive him. He asked a revolver and got it. At another place by telling the same lie he borrowed a horse. Several bloodhounds overtook him but he shot them. Yet, after all that good luck, he was captured.

Mr. Freemantle, the Conservative candidate for the Imperial House of Commons for the representation of Bucks, rendered vacant by Disraeli's elevation to the Peerage, is to be opposed by the Hon. Rupert Carington.

Queen Isabella, on leaving for Spain, wrote a letter to Marshal MacMahon, expressing her thanks for the friendliness displayed toward her during her eight years' stay in France and begging him to convey the expression of her gratitude to the French people by means of an official communication.

Stanley writes that he has discovered a pale-faced race of Africans in the Gambaragaro mountain region. They are a handsome people, and some of the women are exceedingly beautiful. Their hair is kinky, but inclined to brown in color. They have regular features and thin lips, but their noses, though well-shaped, are thick at the point.

Mr. Disraeli has been elevated to the peerage with the title of Earl of Beaconsfield. It is probable that this is preparatory to his retiring like his great opponent Gladstone from the leadership of his party. His great abilities are universally recognized and the length and value of his services to the nation were spoken of in the Times in highly complimentary terms.

£2,500 seems a large sum for a bull, but this has been paid by the Canadian Company, through Mr. Ashburner, for the Fourth Duke of Clarence, by Eighteenth Duke of Oxford, from Duchess 100. This animal, which is a rich roan, was sold last year to Mr. Lodge by Colonel Gunter, from his Wetherby herd, and the price it has now realized is, we believe, the largest ever obtained for a bull for exportation.

Italy possesses now seventeen universities kept up at the expense of the State, four free universities maintained by the respective municipalities, and one academic institute maintained at the cost of the provinces. The seventeen State universities are at Turin, Genoa, Cagliari, Sassari, Pavia, Padua, Porma, Modena, Bologna, Pisa, Sienna, Macesata, Rome, Naples, Palermo, Catania, and Messina. The four free universities are those of Perugia, Urbino, Camerino, and Ferrara, and the academic institute is at Florence.

Will it be War?—We are threatened with another Chinese war it seems. The English Minister, a Mr. Wade, affronted by the action of the Chinese officials, or by their refusal to do what he demanded, has left Pekin and refused to return, and he says that troops are on their way from India to sustain his demands. He rejected all overtures made by the Chinese Government, and refused to re-open negotiations. The Chinese on their side are making military preparations. They are not quite so contemptible a foe as they were a few years ago.

Every Man and Woman, the young, the old, the middle-aged, and even those more advanced in life, may derive untold benefits from a perusal of the works published by the "Peabody Medical Institute," Boston, viz:—"The Science of life," (a treatise upon the generative organs, and the nervous diseases and nebility caused by the errors of youth and abuse of the system); "Sexual Physiology of Women and Her Diseases," and "Diseases of the Nerves and Nervous Maladies," all three from the able pen of the same author. The true way to health and happiness has been pointed out to thousands by these books. A very elaborate and costly Medal of gold and diamonds has just been presented to the author of these works by the National Medical Association. We refer our readers to the advertisment in another column.

AGRICULTURAL WORKS!

Good Work Triumphant!

NOTWITHSTANDING the Dull Times, the demand for my make of Carriages, Sleighs, Threshing Machines, Fanners, &c., in King's County, has rendered it necessary, in order to supply the rapidly increasing demand, that I should extend my business into that County. I have, therefore, at the request of a large number of my friends and patrons, opened a BRANCH FACTORY AT CARDIGAN BRIDGE, which is conducted by a competent mechanic, who served his time in the "Nonpareil," and has since worked for several years in the United States—a mechanic who knows his business, and has such an interest in the work as to allow nothing but a faithful job to pass. He and several competent workmen will attend to the wants of the public in that County.

The stock used in the construction of the work will be of the best imported, viz:—American Hickory, Oak, Ash, Elm, Bass, Whitewood, etc., etc. The iron will be of the best English refined; and Norway and Swedish iron will be used for the parts requiring extra strength and durability.

Also, in connection with the said branch is a PAINTSHOP, which is conducted by a first-class carriage-painter, who will attend to the painting of new and second-hand work for the public.

N. B.—Persons wishing work done in the Carriage, Sleigh, or Farming Implement line, will please call, and they will be treated courteously and fairly dealt with. All kinds of REPAIRING, including Mowing Machines, done. Prices Moderate; Terms Easy.
