

Selects Headed For Mulligan Cup

by Fred MacDonald
 Playoff action started in intramural action last week. As usual, the Selects won their first playoff tilt, demolishing the Freshman squad 8-3. The game was won mainly due to the goon tactics of the King Kong of Ping Pong, Taco Lannan. What many people do not know about the Selects is that the team's plays are run by a computer. Paul MacDonald, who never shows up for a game, sits all night and plays with the computer. Paul, I hope, will be doing this through playoffs because he does better on the terminal than on the ice. The Freshman's excuse for losing was that Mork "Willie Coyote" O'Rourke did not play. Also, ex-flute blower Donnie Smith broke his knee at a fight at MacDonalds while some guy was giving him a Mac-Knuckle Sandwich. Darren Riggs also did not play because the checking in the last game moved his junior career out of place.

One big upset in the playoffs saw Blanchard Hall beat Marian Hall. Marian Hall, one of the tournament favourites, took a pounding from Blanchard. However, the result is irrelevant, because the winner will be demolished by the ever so powerful Selects. The Selects are the tournament favorites, and simply have too much offensive power to be stopped. They will coast all the way to the Mulligan Cup.

In another playoff game, the M&M demolished J.R.'s Juniors 9-0. The power from M&M came from P.E.I.'s number 1 hard luck lover Steve "Queen of the Silver Dollar" Burden. On the side lines, Steve is still looking for "Pearls" in the sea of love. He is looking for a truthful girlfriend so any girls out there interested call 4-9849 and ask for

Dr. Love. The Juniors said that the loss was due to the lack of hitting. Richard "Comerlot" Kays, who owns every corner in Charlottetown, certainly did not own the corners in the rink. M&M went in the corners because Richard was not charging his usual 50% markup.

In the only other game, Korakin rolled to default over Engineers.

The playoffs look like the Selects will roll to the Mulligan Cup. The only time I will get to see the other players will be at the sports banquet while the Selects collect the Mulligan Cup.

Broomball Title Still Undecided

by CIMN Travelling News.
 Bernie 1 advanced to the finals in broomball after defeating Second Floor 2-1 in exciting exhibition of play. Liz MacNeill, First floor's first bench choice, scored the winner for Bernie 1, assisted by her "wombate", Ann.

This win enabled Bernie 1 to grab top seat in the championship game against Daze students last week. Both teams had excellent turn outs; Vince commented that each team had improved immensely and were evenly matched.

For forty minutes, each team displayed determination, talent, and pizzazz. Spectators were biting nails, (their own and each others), yelling, and screaming obscenities when breakaways were made.

Buzz! The game was over! The final score was 0-0. Both teams awaited anxiously for the verdict- 1) would they take a penalty shot? 2) Wait and play next week (March 17)? Captains from each team were consulted and decided to postpone the game until Tuesday, March 17. Hopefully, luck will be with the Irish then.

In basketball action, the Championship game was played as well. - (Bernie 2 vs. Daze Students). Rosters for each team included:

- Bernie 2
 Nancy Gallant
 "Dud" Moran
 "Abdule" Doran
 "Ernie" Costain
 Red Murphy
 "Claire" MacAulay
Daze Students
 "Duckie" Drake
 Carolyn Meincke
 Eliz Zinc
 "Whimp" Morrison

Lori MacKinley
 Ann Cody

Refs for the game were Steve Wilson and Dale MacIsaac. They weren't too bad! Once they got rid of AUAA rules and let the girls stay 3 seconds in the key, they were fine.

The game got off to a slow start; the score remained close for 10 minutes. With 4:30 left in the first half, the score was tied at 14-14. What a close game!

Lori M. was fouled twice in the first half and was sent to the line. Tim MacArigole she's not, but she pegged a few. Outstanding highlight in the first half came when Whimp Morrison left the floor and jumped in the air to grab a pass. only to come down with Red's neck wrapped in her arms. Apologies were made on the spot and as soon as Whimp turned her back, Red kicked Whimp in her strained calf muscle (gastrocnemius for all you keeners)!

Clare MacAulay for Bernie 2 made superb plays as she put the ball in from the baseline.

The score at half time was close: Bernie 2 was only

"Calm down, people, its only a ball!"

"Help"

"They're so rough"

"Its a good game"

"Lets put three players guarding Abdule Doran"

The second half was underway and "Duckie" Drake sunk two 30 footers without looking.

Perhaps the best part of the game was a jump between Ann Cody (5'2") and Clare MacAuley (5'8"). Check Clare's neck for results in that play.

Daze Students were behind with 6 minutes to go; in desperation Whimp shot the ball and it went in. Her first two points of the year! Well, she has scored before but has not received any points for her efforts (Right, Muco?)

The final score was 36-30 for Bernie 2. This win gives Bernie 2 the title of Second Semester Champs in Basketball. Congratulations, girls. A year well played!

Don't forget to check with next week's column for second semester broomball champs. Watch out Daze Students!

Keep an eye out for a date on the upcoming sports banquet (Intramural).

Yes, avid readers of the SUN, it is true. Tony Carroll's Sophomore Heads lost 4-3. This defeat came at the hands of the Blanchard Hall Honkers. The secret of our win? We just simply knocked heads.

Blanchard markers were notched by Mike Kennedy (no relation to Forbie's clan); Brian Leslie, one of the veteran Seniors we carry on our roster; Jim Whalen, another seasoned veteran; and Lee Walker, who scored on a candidating drive. Unfortunately, at the time of this release, the scoring statistics for the sophomores was unavailable for printing. However, I honestly feel that Head, I mean, Tony, will fill us in on the particulars in his infamous column. I also believe that he will think up a letigifimate excuse for their loss.

Blanchard's Roving Reporter "Honk-Honk."

ahead by two baskets - 20-16.

A few comments were heard by different members of each squad:

Joke of the week: Definition of twins: Wombmates.

Q: How do you make paper babies?

A: Marry an old Bag!
