Statement Is Promised Soon On New Goods To China List

OTTAWA (CP)—Trade Minister Churchill said Friday he expects to make a statement within a day or two on the Canadian list of goods that may be exported to Communist countries. He was commenting for Opposition leader Pearson on reports from London that 15 countries, including Canada, have agreed to add 63 types of goods that may be exported to Communist countries.

China have purchased Canadian wheat. In recent years Red China has shown an interest in Canadian automobiles and Russia in Canadian ships. But the official feeling here is this interest may have been propaganda. There is some doubt here whether the Communists were willing to place orders.
