feared that the two would indicate—in line with standard convention—no more hearts. West later had cause to regret the latter play!

Declarer then proceeded to cash three diamonds and five clubs, producing this position:

With the lead in dummy at this point, Mrs. Burnstein managed to make two of the three remaining tricks. She led the five of diamonds, deliberately losing a trick to West, but at the same time applying a squeeze on East.

Duplicate bridge places a big premium on absolute precision. Making an extra trick, which the rubber bridge player scorns as a trivium, may assume much importance when garnered in a tournament.

This deal was played in a national championship some years ago. Declarer was Anne Burnstein, of Miami Beach, sister of Edith Kemp, both outstanding stars in the distaff division.

East won the heart lead with the ace and returned the queen. Mrs. Burnstein took the king. West playing the eight. West did not play the deuce because he

Bond Conversion Boosts Charges

OTTAWA (CP)—An increase of some $58,000,000 this year in federal government bond interest costs resulting from last year's bond conversion issue was indicated Wednesday by Finance Minister Fleming.

He told the Commons that the exact change in interest charges cannot be calculated.

But in reply to W. H. McMillan (L—Welland) he said interest charges in 1959 will be an estimated $250,886,250 for new conversion bonds and for war-time victory bonds which were not converted last summer.

He said the 1958 interest cost for victory bonds, in the absence of the conversion loan and assuming that no issues had been refunded before maturity, would have been $192,476,410.

The average coupon rate on the conversion loan bonds was four per cent, he said.

Jealous Husband Kills Wrong Man

DETROIT (AP)—A jealous husband barged into a Detroit home early Wednesday and killed the wrong man, police reported.

Detective Charles Perry said Robert K. Dine, 27, crashed through the back door and shot to death Fred McKinney, 36.

Edgar Jacobs, 35, told police, "I was the man he was after."

Also in the house were Dine's estranged wife, Marguerite, 26, and their three children and Mrs. Jean Kopeck, 34, and her three children.

Perry said McKinney was visiting Mrs. Kopeck and Jacobs was visiting Mrs. Dine.

Mrs. Dine called police and Dine waited until they came. He was booked for investigation of murder.

Bandits Make $9,000 Haul

MONTREAL (CP)—Three masked gunmen broke into a 79-year-old biscuit maker's suburban home early Wednesday and stole $9,000 from under his pillow.

The three escaped after the robbery at the home of Ernest Harnois of St. Thomas de Joliette, 30 miles northeast of here.

Mr. Harnois, owner of the Harnois and Sons Biscuit Co., said the bandits broke into the house, pulled Mr. Harnois and his wife from bed and woke their 45-year-old daughter.

The bandits tied them up, beat Mr. Harnois and took the $9,000 from under his pillow.

Spanish Leaders Of Opposition Get Police Talk

MADRID, Spain (AP)—Three Liberal monarchists active in a budding opposition to Generalissimo Franco were rounded up for a long talk at national police headquarters Wednesday. They were questioned for five hours, then freed.

The director of public security denied they were arrested.

The incident was believed to be a result of a hotel banquet last Thursday where formation of the Spanish Union (Union Española) a widely based group of republicans and monarchists, was announced. All parties except Franco's Falange are banned in Spain.

Picked up by police at their homes were Joaquin Satsrategul Fernandez, a wealthy, 46-year-old industrialist; the Marquis de Casa Arnuo, and Mariano Robles y Romero Robledo, grandson of a crown minister of 50 years ago.

In denying they were arrested, the security director said they were only taken to police headquarters for questioning. Associates of the three, however, noted that Spanish procedure does not provide for booking of prisoners. They are taken to police headquarters, questioned and then released or charged.

Satsrategul was the chief speaker at the banquet. Before a gathering of 87 that included army officers, lawyers and writers, he criticized the government's economic policy. He charged that Franco had usurped power and maintained his regime by force.

Robles and the Marquis were active in working for the Spanish Union, but did not speak at the banquet.

Leaders explained Wednesday the Spanish Union is not a political party in the strict sense. It has no officers, constitution or party discipline. The leaders described it as an organization of political figures who have a common objective and have agreed to certain basic principles.
