NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

OTTAWA, Oct. 9.

The Government resigned this afternoon. Mr. Himsforth, clerk of the Privy Council, was sent to Montreal to-night to place the document in the hands of the Governor General.

Sir Albert Smith left to-day for home; Mr. Burpee leaves in a couple of days and Mr. Cartwright has gone. The remainder, except Mr. McKenzie, leave to-morrow.

Mr. Horton, M. P. for Centre Huron, has offered to resign in favor of Mr. Cartwright.

TORONTO, Oct. 9.

The cricket match between the Australian eleven and twenty-two Canadians was resumed this morning. The Australians finished their first innings at noon, making 123 runs to the Canadians 100.

In their second innings the Canadians scored only 54, leaving the Australians only 32 to make to win, which they did with eight wickets to spare.

LONDON, Oct. 9.

The proposed tour of inspection to Malta and Cyprus by the Lords of the Admiralty, accompanied by the Secretary of War and the Colonial Secretary, has been recognized and will probably be abandoned.

The race for the Middle Park plate for two years old at New Market to-day, was won by the colt Peter.

The London Times says orders have been issued from the India office for all officers on furlough belonging to regiments whose corps are detailed for the Afghan expedition to join their posts by the first steamer. Those absent on medical certificates are directed to present themselves for examination, and should their health permit they will be pushed on to the front.

It is feared that an accident has happened to the Eddystone lighthouse during the storm that is now raging, as not a light is visible at Plymouth. The foundation of the lighthouse was recently reported as becoming unsafe.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 9.

Russia contests the competence of the commissioners appointed for the organization of Eastern Roumelia to invite the Porte to nominate a Governor for that Province.

The Russian charge d'affaires has informed the Porte that 4,000 wagons with Christian refugees are following the returning Russians towards Adrianople, and has requested the Porte to send a commissioner and detachment of troops to re-assure the population.

Two English leaders of the Rhodope insurrection have been driven away by the insurgents on suspicion of their having come to an understanding with the Russians; and it is feared that their dismissal will be followed by an outbreak of anarchy and brigandage.

BERLIN, Oct. 9.

At the re-assembling of the Reichstag to-day, Herr Frankenstein read a declaration on behalf of the "Centre Catholics," to the effect that although they recognize the dangers of Socialist agitation, they do not consider the pending bill as the proper means for combating it—therefore, the centre will vote against the bill.

The Hon. Peter Mitchell.

(From the Montreal Gazette.)

The latest canard comes from Ottawa in the shape of a despatch to the Herald to the effect that "some extraordinary revelations concerning the Administration of the Department of Marine and Fisheries under the Hon. Peter Mitchell, recently unearthed, will be made next session. They are said to be of the most 'damaging character.' That such a despatch should be sent at such a time, only shows how bitterly the Government and their friends feel at the fact that even in his temporary defeat Mr. Mitchell has been the recipient of marks of favor and evidences of popularity in his own Province, which the locally successful party have been denied. We do not suppose any one believes this latest story. Mr. MacKenzie and his friends have devoted five years to the task of unearthing so-called scandals. The whole force of the department has been employed at times in this work. The Committees of Parliament, under the guidance of a tyrannical majority, have been engaged every session in similar work. And, after all, the Department of Marine and Fisheries, notwithstanding that during Mr. Mitchell's control of it, it did an immense amount of valuable work, came out without discredit. And now, just as these gentlemen are leaving the departments, when they are busily engaged in destroying the evidence of their own misdeeds,—and remaining in office for that purpose after receiving from the people a most unequivocal notice to quit, we have this extraordinary story sent abroad simply upon the principle that if mud enough is only thrown, some portion of it is almost certain to stick.

There is a feature of this malicious attack, however, which should not be overlooked. Mr. Mitchell, during the last five years, has been in Parliament ready to answer any attack made upon him or his management of the department, over which he presided for six years. His conduct in Parliament certainly did not indicate that he had anything to fear from his opponents. His opposition to them was pronounced and vigorous; and he knew them well enough to know if they could injure him, they would not be restrained by any consideration they might have entertained for him. During the whole of that time no word was uttered of this great exposure. But now, when for the moment he is out of Parliament, and not therefore in a position to meet his traducers on equal terms, this malicious slander is sent broadcast over the country. The Government and their friends are counting without their host in this matter, however. If half that we hear of the means by which Mr. Mitchell's defeat was accomplished be true, his opponent's triumph will be very short lived. The Courts will soon re-open the constituency, and then it will be seen that Mr. Mitchell, although temporarily beaten, is not vanquished; and that the electors of Northumberland only wait the opportunity to repair the blunder committed by them on the 17th September.

The Fishery Award.

A Washington despatch to the New York World says that, "Aside from the interest felt in the result of the re-opening of the controversy over the fishery award, from the fact that the arbitrator was M. Delfosse, the Minister from Belgium to Washington, some of the members of the Diplomatic Corps are from higher considerations inclined to informally discuss the possible upshot of the correspondence so lately inaugurated by the Secretary of State. The result of this is the impression that the award will be paid and not set aside. In fact the claim that the award was not agreed to by the American members of the commission, and is therefore invalidated, is regarded as a most untenable one, from the fact that an arbitrator is selected on all international commissions to decide only when either representative of the respective governments is a dissident, and that this was expressly provided for in the Treaty of Washington authorizing a commission on the fishery dispute. The further claim that the commission went outside of the real issue, and virtually included inferential damages in the award of a sum in gross to be paid Great Britain, is said to find its parallel in the Geneva award, where a large sum in gross was awarded to the United States after the latter had abandoned a specific claim for consequential damages, but which, nevertheless, covered a large excess of actual damages, as the distribution of the award has shown."

The award is payable, by the terms of the treaty, on November 23rd next, and in that time the President will be called upon to decide whether, under the law of the last session, he will refer it back to Congress or direct its payment.

Miscellaneous News.

A Berlin special confirms the report that Dr. Petermann, the great geographer, committed suicide. He was divorced from his first wife in 1877, and remarried. Four months ago his recently divorced wife commenced to persecute him. He also suffered great bodily pain, and was haunted by the fate of his father and brother, who killed themselves. These things combined drove him frantic, and he hanged himself.

The Russians are much pleased with Punch's cartoon of Lord Beaconsfield as "Humpty Dumpty" sitting on the wall. It has been copied into the illustrated papers and leading articles written upon it in the dailies. The translator experienced some difficulty in finding an equivalent for Humpty Dumpty in Russ, and at last bolted it entire as "Goompt Dumpty," with the foot note appended that the word implied "something big, broad and breakable like an egg."

The members of the English medical profession are determined to have, if possible, a large number of representatives in the House of Commons at the next general election. Medical men complain that at present they are almost entirely without representation, while the bar, the railway interests, trade, commerce and all the other interests have numberless spokesmen in Parliament. Dr. Andrew Clark, it is said, will be urged to stand for the University of London. Sir Henry Thompson is also spoken of as a probable candidate for a seat.

Dr. P. G. Tait, Professor of Physics at the University of Edinburgh, and a colleague of Sir William Thomson, has transmitted to the International Review, of New York, a reply to the recent article of James Anthony Froude on "Science and Theology." Professor Tait holds that there is no incompatibility between science and religion, that humanity does not require a new revelation, and the great majority of Christendom do not expect it; that from the most absolutely common-sense view, independent of all philosophy and speculation, the only religion which can have a rational claim on our belief must be suited equally to the necessities of the peasant and of the philosopher, and this is the specially distinguishing feature of Christianity.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 6.—A tragic affair occurred at St. Stephen's Catholic Church near Franklinville, Baltimore County, about 7 o'clock this morning, involving the fatal shooting of Joseph Miller by John Shanahan. It is charged that, about two years ago, Miller betrayed a sister of Shanahan's, at that time only ten years old, and after the affair became known to the girl's friends, left the locality, returning only a few weeks since. Shanahan saw him for the first time since his return this morning at the church, and at once approached him. Miller exclaimed, "Hallo!" which greeting Shanahan returned with a similar exclamation, and drawing a revolver, fired upon Miller twice, one shot penetrating his left breast, and the other his abdomen. Dr. Gittings entertains little or no hope of his recovery. The parties all moved in respectable society. After the shooting, Shanahan proceeded to Towson town and surrendered himself. He is about 22 years old, and bears an excellent reputation. Miller is between 35 and 40 years old.
