PREMIER VOICES

hearing held here last June.

In a letter of March 13, 1951, Premier Jones said to Mr. Gordon, "I suggest as a temporary expedient that the train could come to the Southport station which is only one mile from Charlottetown and the passengers, mail and baggage be brought to Charlottetown by bus."

A reply from Mr. Gordon stated that the railway considered the suggestion for the coordinated service to have a good deal of merit and was giving consideration to it them. The men are wearing helmets and khaki and their rifles are slung over their shoulders and, in the distance, they might be the Old Sweats in 1917.

But they aren't, of course. The Old Sweats are gone, absent with leave and with great honor from the ranks.

Mr. Edward Lowery and daughter, Miss Margaret Lowery, spent a recent week-end in Halifax, N. S., guests of Mrs. Lowery's son, Mr. William Lowery.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leard and Messrs Stanley Ferguson, Lloyd MacDonald and Charles MacLeod, motored to Charlottetown on Nov.

Montague, St. Peter's Exceed Blood Quota

*Citizens of Montague and surrounding districts responded in large number at the blood donor clinic held last evening at the Beaver Hall. During the three-hour session 126 donors contributed blood, putting the area over the top.

St. Peter's, which had its first clinic yesterday afternoon, also went over the top with 122 donors.

The members of the Blood Transfusion Service, mobile unit, were gratified by the excellent response. The ladies of the Montague Women's Institute assisted in registering the names, and also served a delicious lunch later in the evening. It is understood that this will be the last clinic here until next May.

The success of both the St. Peter's and Montague clinics reflect great credit on Dr. M. N. Beck and Mr. Gilbert Clements under whose leadership they were organized.

ember 23rd to attend the hockey game between the St. John Beavers and the Charlottetown Islanders.

A service preparatory to Holy Communion was held in Lorne Valley Church on Friday, November 23rd and was conducted by the Minister Rev. F. N. Young.

Mr. William Ferguson, who is employed with the Poole and Bears Construction Company, spent the week-end of Nov. 25th at his home in Lorne Valley.

Old Sweat Is Gone From 27th Brigade WITH THE CANADIANS IN GERMANY, Dec. 4 - (CP) - The Old Sweat is gone. If you grew up in an atmosphere of boyish awe and reverence for names like Ypres and Passchendaele and Vimy Ridge, you begin to notice that after awhile around the men and units of the 27th Brigade.

Russia Has Five New Jet Fighter Types (By Charles E. Whiting) LONDON, Dec. 4 - (AP)—Russia has five new jet fighter types of later design than the 640-mile-an-hour Mig-15 being used by the Communists in Korea, Jane's All The World's Air said today. The 1951-52 edition of the authoritative aviation book came out with a report that these and a number of other new Russian military aircraft "are known to exist." But no accurate information is available on their performance, it said.
