

A Feature for Every Friday— Among The Farmers Federation Of Agriculture News

No Politics While we feel it would be quite out of place to discuss in this column either Provincial or Federal politics, we do feel safe in making a few observations on the recent elections in the United States.

Beef Marketing

In the first ten months of this year, fifteen thousand head of cattle—three thousand less than last year—had been sold through inspected plants in the Maritimes.

Candidates and Co-Operatives

During the course of the Presidential campaign, Eisenhower and Stevenson, through the "Country Gentlemen" replied as follows to this question: "What is your position on tax laws for farmer co-operatives?"

Federation Meetings

Annual County Federation meetings will be held for Prince and Kings at O'Leary and Morrell during the week of November 17th, with Queens County meeting the following week.

Farm Forum

Farm Forum got under way last Monday night and we have the feeling that more groups met on the first night than in previous years.

Turnip Time

The hardy turnip which laughs at moderate frost and snow and indeed thrives in their company is the last crop to be dealt with by the farmer.

Card Of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks for the many remembrances from relatives and friends during my recent illness.

ASTHMA

Get welcome relief from the wheezing, gasping struggle for breath caused by Asthma. Take RAZ-MAX, specially made to relieve Asthma misery.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear Grandfather,

MR. NELSON MacWILLIAMS who passed away November 7th, 1950.

If all the world were ours to give, We'd give it, yes and more, To see our dear Grandfather, Come smiling through the door.

Lovingly Remembered by the Strang Family.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our Dear Mother, Mrs. Robert Wilfred Smith who passed away, Nov. 6th, 1945.

Today is a day of remembrance, With many sad regrets, A day we shall always remember, When the rest of the world forgets.

I think of you in silence, And oft repeat your name, What would we give to hear your voice, And see your face again.

Sadly missed by daughters Arlida, Dolly, Marion and son Winston.

St. Charles Auxiliary Observes Feast Day Of Patron Saint

The Feast of St. Charles Borromeo, Patron Saint of St. Charles Auxiliary, on November 4th, was observed by the members attending Holy Mass at St. Charles Chapel at the Charlottetown Hospital, offered by Rt. Rev. Patrick McMahon, Chaplain of the Auxiliary.

In the evening Benediction of The Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Most Rev. James Boyle, Bishop of Charlottetown, who gave an inspiring resume of the life of St. Charles Borromeo, whose work was principally for the poor and sick.

Later the members were guests of the student nurses. A lovely lunch was served and a lively entertainment was presented at the Nurses' Residence. An evening of music, dancing and song was greatly enjoyed by all.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son

UPTON L. SMITH who passed away November 7th, 1948.

He had a nature that you could not help loving, A heart that was purer than gold, And those who knew him and loved him, His memory will never grow old. Lovingly Remembered by Mom and Daddy.

Limestone Policy

For some years past the P.E.I. Department of Agriculture has encouraged, by subsidy, the use of ground limestone and is this year prepared to spend sixty thousand dollars at the rate of two dollars per ton or seven hundred and fifty carloads in all.

Winter Fairs

Farmers who arrange to get to Amherst this week could hardly fail to be impressed with the size and variety of the Show. P. E. Island products more than held their own and our congratulations go to the prize winners in general and championship winners in particular.

Turnip Time

The hardy turnip which laughs at moderate frost and snow and indeed thrives in their company is the last crop to be dealt with by the farmer.
