FOR SALE.

THAT valuable well-known FREEHOLD FARM, belonging to the Subscriber, consisting of One hundred and three acres of Land, forty of which are in a high state of cultivation, with or without the crop on the ground. The uncultivated part of the farm is covered with solid wood of the very best description, both for fuel and farming purposes. The crops which the Subscriber has raised on it for a succession of years have equalled in quality and quantity any farm of the same extent in the whole Island. There is on the premises a comfortable DWELLING HOUSE, with a good Barn and Stable. The Garden, which is in the highest order, is planted with English and American Fruit Trees of the best quality, and gooseberry and currant bushes in great variety. There is besides a beautiful stream of water running close by the premises, in which, when the tide is in, a good sized boat can come within a hundred yards of the door. The farm is surrounded on every side by quiet and obliging neighbours. In short, a more desirable farm can seldom be met with for a person of industry and moderate capital, and the Subscriber's only motive for parting with it is an intention of returning in the decline of life to his friends and relatives in England. An indisputable title can be given, and possession of the premises as soon as the stock and crop are disposed of. For particulars, (if by letter, post paid,) apply to
GEORGE ROBERTSON.
Newtown, Belfast, July 16th, 1841.

THE Leasehold Interest of that eligible FARM, situate at Crapaud, and at present occupied by the subscriber, comprising 144 acres of excellent Land, 50 of which are in a high state of cultivation. About 30 acres more may be made ready for the plough at a small expense, and the remainder is well wooded. There is an excellent Mill-site on the Farm; the shore furnishes a supply of sea manure, and Lime may be obtained at a moderate rate from a Kiln adjoining the premises. The dwelling-house, to which is attached a Shop or Store, has recently been thoroughly repaired and considerably enlarged, so as to afford every convenience for the accommodation of a respectable family. It has a frost-proof cellar underneath, and a never-failing well of water at the door.

These premises—pleasantly situated, on the banks of the river Westmorland, in the midst of a thriving and populous settlement, and within 15 chains of the public Wharf—afford an opportunity for investment, both for agricultural and commercial purposes, seldom to be met with.

For Terms of Sale, and other particulars, apply to Mr. John Davis, jr., Merchant, Charlottetown, or to the Subscriber, on the premises, who is about to leave the Island.
