A WOMAN HORTICULTURIST.

Mrs. Barroilhet Demonstrates the Business Capacity of Her Sex.

The name of a California woman is now added to the list of successful feminine horticulturists. This one is Mrs. Henry Barroilhet. She is the widow of a San Francisco banker, who gave her his entire fortune on the failure of his bank. At his death his wife set to work to supply flowers to the San Francisco market, and she now owns 140 acres of fine land, all under cultivation. Seven acres are in orchards, and there is an immense variety of fruit in extent. There are seven acres of chrysanthemums; roses, lilies and other flowers drive a good many more acres between them. Two thousand small plants and three thousand pines, sequoias, and other trees are very profitable, the branches and leaves serving for decorations.

Every day during their respective seasons 8000 chrysanthemums, 2000 bunches of violets and 800 to 1000 bunches of peonies are shipped to the city. Hundreds of other flowers, of course, go with them in fragrant company, but the specialties are violets at $2.50 per dozen bunches, and chrysanthemums at from 1 to 5 cents apiece. Last season there were 18,000 chrysanthemum plants blooming, including 275 of the finest Japanese varieties. When Mrs. Barroilhet was shipping 2000 bunches of violets daily she had only a five-acre lot. Since then she has enlarged it by 14 acres, so that the number of bunches will be quadrupled. This flower plantation is said to be a perfect Eden. The proprietress personally attends to every detail of irrigation, cultivation, gathering, packing and shipping. Her success has attracted the attention of every woman who can do when thrown on her own resources.—New York Sun.

It Worked Miraculously.

She is Now Well and Strong.

There is nothing that gives more pleasure and happiness to the average man and woman than delivery from agony and suffering. We all expect to meet with a certain amount of pain, and expect to be called upon to share in some of life's trials while in this vale of tears; but continued months and years of excruciating agony we are not prepared for.

Mrs. A. Legault, of 710 St. Andre St., Montreal, has had her share of terrible experiences in the way of bodily suffering and mental anguish. Her trouble—headache, sleeplessness, nervous prostration and loss of memory—were fast making her a physical wreck, and leading on to the dark gulch of insanity.

At a critical period friends advised the use of Paine's Celery Compound, that great preparation discovered by Professor Phelps, of Dartmouth Medical College. Mrs. Legault tells us that shortly after she commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound it worked wonderfully and miraculously. This indeed the experience of thousands who have used the life-giving remedy. No other medicinal agent has ever done such a work in the world of suffering, and no other can point to so many victories over disease and death. In the following letter Mrs. Legault fully explains her sufferings and tells of her complete cure.

"I cannot help telling all sufferers what Paine's Celery Compound has done for me. I would have been a lost woman had I continued six months longer in suffering. My case was a bad one. Headache, insomnia, nervous prostration and loss of memory made up my troubles, and I feared they would lead to insanity. I went to several doctors, who treated me with all their skill, but I did not get any better. I had a very bad case of neuralgia, I became disheartened with failures and being obliged to spend so much money. My friends advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound. The first bottle gave me little relief, but the second began to work miraculously on my nerves. I continued using the Compound, and after taking nine bottles I can positively say I am cured!"

For Over Fifty Years.

An Old and Well Known Remedy—Paine's Celery Compound has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children's wailing and teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures the colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It pleases to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Paine's Celery Compound, and take no other kind.—W. W. Wiley—ly
