Commercial Domination.

SENATOR PLUMER, of Kansas, is very candid. In the course of an interview, recently, he said:—

"We do not want to annex Mexico because of the differences of race and general characteristics of the people. The Mexicans would not at present come up to the high standard of American citizenship. It is greatly more to our advantage to have commercial relations and to stimulate the free exchange of products than to bring on a union with Mexico. With Canada it is an entirely different matter. There we ought to have no reciprocity. We ought by exclusion to demonstrate to Canada, not the benefits of reciprocity, but the necessity of annexation. When we lock arms with Canada we want her people as full partners. We do not want the Mexicans as partners, but as commercial allies. We can dominate Mexico in a large measure in a commercial way. This would not be so true of Canada because of her relations to Great Britain."

Just so. The Americans can now "dominate" the Mexicans, but they can't "dominate" the Canadians. In order that the Canadians may be "dominated," they must be annexed; therefore "go in" for Annexation—or Independence. We fancy that our people prize their own free institutions too well, to submit to the "domination" of Uncle Sam, even "in a commercial way!"

A Threat to be Disregarded.

THE Government having maintained the faith of Canada in respect to the agreement with the C. P. R. that railways should not be built to tap the railway system of the United States against the wishes of some persons in Winnipeg, the Free Press of that city says:—

"The time has come, then, not to whisper, but to thunder a terrible warning into the dead ears of Ottawa. Let them beware. They have mistaken the spirit of this country before; may they not blunder again. Our minds are made up. If the moment should come when the Ottawa Government may lay a rough hand upon the railway which we propose to build with our own money to the boundary, it will be a moment to rue. Manitoba has long been muttering. It now hooves her to assault the ears of Ottawa with unmistakable words. Mr. Watson said: 'There would be serious trouble.' We repeat his words with all gravity and solemnity. If we are interfered with now there will be trouble such as Canada never saw in the lurid moments of past convulsions. There will be a rebellion such as the sleeping gods at Ottawa have never dreamed of."

If Canada must go to war with Manitoba to maintain her pledged faith, as well as the interests of the people of the Eastern Provinces, it will be a serious matter; but the right will probably triumph in the end.

The incorporators of "The Charlottetown Board of Trade" are to meet at the City Council Chamber this evening, at 7.30, to elect officers, make by-laws, and organize. The incorporators should attend in force. It is important that a good start should be made.

Cardinal Manning, in a letter to the clergy, read in the Catholic churches in London, said:—"No sovereign in our long annals has been more loved or has so won the love of the people as Her Majesty Queen Victoria. She has shown the heart not only of a queen, but also of a mother to those who mourn. Her home and her court have been a bright and spotless example for all who reign and a pattern for all her people. You will, I am sure, with joy offer our Heavenly Father both thanksgiving and prayers for Her Majesty on the jubilee of her just and happy reign."

The Jubilee Meeting.

The Jubilee Committee met in the Council Chamber on Monday evening, the Mayor presiding.

On motion of Mr. J. J. Chappell, seconded by Mr. A. McNeill, Chief Engineer Large was appointed Chief Marshal of the different processions.

On motion of Mr. A. McNeill, seconded by Mr. Isaac Wadman, it was decided to invite the firemen to take part in the procession of Societies, etc., on the afternoon of Friday.

On motion of Chief Engineer Large, seconded by Mr. Unsworth, a similar invitation was extended to the Militia.

On motion of Major Irving, seconded by Mr. Morris, it was decided that the controlling authorities of the different manufactories and churches be requested to blow whistles and ring bells immediately after the firing of the first gun on July 1st.

On motion of Major Irving seconded by Mr. J. J. Chappell it was decided to request the Dominion and Local Governments to illuminate the public buildings.

On motion of Mr. Unsworth seconded by Mr. A. McNeill a committee was appointed to draft a letter to the Admiral of the North American Squadron asking whether he or any of the ships of his fleet, purposed visiting the Island or at about the 30th June inst.

Adjourned until Friday evening next.

QUEEN VICTORIA is among reigning sovereigns the fourth in age. The Emperor William of Germany, who was 90 years of age last March, is the oldest. After him comes King William of Holland, who was 70 on February 19th. King Christian of Denmark was 69 on April 8th. Queen Victoria comes next with her 68 years. President Grevy will be 74 in August. In length of reign her Majesty surpasses all European Sovereigns. The Emperor of Brazil and Queen Victoria are the only sovereigns living who have reached their jubilee.

A St. John's correspondent writes:—"As I never close a letter without a business allusion, it is not at this time inappropriate to refer to A. Macdonald, of this city, who shows at his studio a wonderfully life-like portrait of the Queen, copied in India ink from a recent photograph. Mr. Macdonald makes a specialty of such portraits in crayon, India ink and water colors, and has recently executed commissions for Sir Leonard Tilley, John, and an especially fine picture of Mrs. Macfarlane, of Wallace, N. S. Some of Mr. Macdonald's pictures that have been sent to Montreal are considered the best that were ever seen in that city. T. B. Macdonald, of Summerside, will soon travel over the Island in the interests of this talented artist."

"The Lady of Lyons."

It was very pleasing to see a large audience at the dramatic entertainment in the Lyceum last evening. His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, Mrs. Macdonald and suite, and many of our principal citizens were "among those present"; and we may trust that the proceeds have added materially to "the Queen Square Fund." Butler's excellent play, "The Lady of Lyons," was put upon the boards with the following cast:—

Pauline Deschepelles..... Miss Claire Scott
Widow Melnotte..... Miss Katie Scott
Madame Deschepelles, Miss Maggie Connolly
Monsieur Beausant..... A. E. McEachen
Col. Dumas..... J. P. Murray
Monsieur Deschepelles..... F. Haley
Gasper..... J. Maloney
Gasper..... M. P. LaVie
Landlord..... A. P. Edmonds
Notary..... W. M. Flynn
Claude Melnotte..... S. K. Coburn

Some of the acting was very good, and some very bad indeed. Miss Claire Scott and Mr. Coburn, representing the leading characters, fully maintained their reputations. Indeed, we have not seen either of them appear to better advantage than they did last evening, though Mr. Coburn was decidedly weak at one or two points in the play. It is devoutly to be wished that players would take Shakespeare's advice—hold the mirror up to nature, suit the word to the action and the action to the word, and beware of tearing the passion to tatters. Truth to say, Mr. Coburn does not often greatly err in his delineations. He undoubtedly possesses dramatic talent worth all the cultivation he can give it. But if he desire to become a great actor, and will take a friend's advice, he will avoid the exaggeration of voice and manner which was most apparent at the parting scene. Of the performances of the members of the Charlottetown Dramatic Club who took part in the play we cannot speak in terms of unqualified admiration. Miss Connolly and Mr. J. P. Murray played very well, considering the opportunities they have had. The music rendered during the intervals by the Italian band was exceptionally good. An encore was demanded on the rendition of "The Mocking Bird," which was very beautiful.

The scenes painted by Miss Katie Scott and Mr. Coburn were greatly admired, and the play was on the whole well presented.

Mr. Coburn announced that the Greek play "Medea" would be performed in Charlottetown on the evening of the 1st July, proceeds to go to St. Joseph's Convent.

Convent de Notre Dame

The more advanced classes of the Convent of Notre Dame were examined on Thursday last by His Lordship Bishop McIntyre, the Rev. Father Gallant, the Rector of St. Dunstan's, Prof. Caven, Mr. Roach, and several others. It is hardly necessary for us to say that the classes were found to be in the same high state of efficiency in which we have had to report them in former years. In English, Mathematics and Languages the examination covered the subjects prescribed for second class teachers, and it is due to the Ladies who conduct this excellent Institution to state that in all these subjects the students were admirably grounded. Geometry, Algebra and Latin are not, generally speaking, subjects which lady teachers are successful in imparting to their classes. But the examiners spoke so highly of the knowledge of the classes in these subjects, that we at once concluded that the teaching was at all events equal to that of our best grammar schools. At the conclusion of the examination, which lasted from 10 a. m. till 6 p. m., His Lordship and some of the gentlemen present congratulated the young ladies on the satisfactory manner in which they had acquitted themselves. The results of the written examinations of the higher class were also laid before the examiners. The papers included English Grammar, History, Geography, Physical Geography, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, Latin, French, &c. The papers were remarkable for neatness in execution, and all of them bore high per centages. The prizes will be distributed in the Convent Hall this evening.

The Trades Procession.

PRACTICAL MEN TAKE PRACTICAL STEPS.

On Monday evening, pursuant to notice in the daily papers of the 18th inst., a goodly number of the mechanics, journeymen and apprentices, and also a number of their employers, met in Market Hall to take the decisive step with regard to the Trade Procession in connection with the Queen's Jubilee Celebration. Mr. H. Anderson was appointed Chairman, and the undersigned Secretary. After considerable discussion of the positions the employed and employers hold to the proposed procession, it was on motion

Resolved, That we shall hold a Trades Procession on July 1st, in connection with the General Jubilee Celebration.

About a dozen vehicles, representing different trades and local industries were promised, some by the employers present and others through parties authorized to do so. On motion it was

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed, with power to add to their number, to canvass the different firms not represented, and report at a meeting to be called at the earliest possible date.

At the close of the meeting the committee met, organized and laid out their work. Mr. H. Anderson was appointed chairman, and the undersigned secretary of committee. There will be another meeting in Market Hall this (Wednesday) evening, to receive reports of committee and make further arrangements. All interested are specially requested to be present.

W. P. DOULL,
Secretary.

The Templeton Opera Co.

The production of the Mikado to-night will be the most brilliant ever seen in Halifax, as it will be produced with original scenery which the company bring with them and principals of the first order, a strong chorus and orchestra. All following productions will be given with the same care to detail as will mark the first production.—Herald 20th.

Our people will have the rare opportunity of hearing this Company on next Monday and Tuesday evenings at the Lyceum. The plan of Hall and reserved chairs now ready at the Diamond Bookstore. A great sensation in the aquatic hue is promised for Tuesday evening.

Jubilee Celebration in St. John.

(Special correspondence of The Examiner.)

St. John, June 20.

SATURDAY'S trains and steamers were crowded with visitors from all parts of the Province intent upon attending the Jubilee services held in the different churches of the city yesterday. On that day the church attendance was larger than ever before and the services were generally of a highly impressive character.

In the morning the N. B. R. G. A. accompanied by their band were at St. Paul's; the 82nd Fusiliers were at the Centenary, where Dr. Lathern preached a special Jubilee sermon, and at the Offertory the band played Haydn's "The Heavens are Telling." A united service for the children of the Church of England Sunday schools was held in Trinity in the afternoon, and a united service for the Sunday school children of the Methodist churches was held in the Centenary at the same hour; addresses were delivered by Mayor Thorne and the Rev. Mr. Wadman. Prof. Wadman, of the Baptist Seminary, preached a special sermon in the Brussels Street Church; at St. Andrew's the topic of the pastor, Rev. L. G. MacNeill, was the Queen's Jubilee; in St. Stephen's Dr. Macrae spoke of the reasons for terming this a Jubilee year; in the St. John Presbyterian Church Rev. Mr. Fotheringham talked of a Royal Example, and in all the other churches reference was specially made to the occasion which is being celebrated throughout the English-speaking world.

Sunday morning was as beautiful a morning as ever dawned upon St. John. When your correspondent looked out over the city the sun was just rising, and the first object that caught his attention was the Union Jack and the Red Cross of St. George floating from the spire of Trinity, where Rogerson's beautiful bust of the Queen presented to the Church by the St. George's Society, was shortly to be unveiled, with appropriate ceremonies. The corner stone of Old Trinity Church was laid by the Right Rev. Charles Inglis, Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia on the 20th of August, 1788. Its first rector was Matthew Byles, D. D., and was rebuilt after the fire of 1877. It is one of the handsomest edifices in Canada.

After the ceremonies of to-day and tomorrow are over I will write you again.
