

THE DAILY EXAMINER

AUGUST 2, 1898.

THE PATRIOT'S REJOINER.

The Patriot's rejoinder of last evening is characteristically weak, and bears all the earmarks of a lawyer with a bad case. Instead of frankly acknowledging the accuracy of THE EXAMINER'S statement regarding the responsibility for the present deplorable condition of the province it endeavours to place the blame upon the Liberal-Conservative administrations preceding the Peters Government. But the little game will not work.

It may be freely admitted that the Liberal-Conservative administrations had deficits. But they did not impose taxes, except during the first two or three years of their regime, and their deficits were such as could not be avoided under the circumstances.

The Liberals condemned the policy of deficits and rode into power upon the promise to make ends meet. But what are the facts? Each year they have by their reckless extravagance and mismanagement rolled up large deficits, and raised the debt of the province to close upon half a million dollars.

While this was being done they taxed the people to the tune of about $50,000 each year, the living and the dead alike being levied upon; and frittered away thousands of dollars of the people's money in the shape of discounts at the Land Office.

In his last budget speech Premier Warburton admitted that the debt of the province was $429,436; and predicted a deficit of $15,000 this year! But the deficit will probably exceed that amount.

This is the condition of things the new premier finds himself face to face with, and it is a state of affairs that the people expect him to grapple with manfully. THE EXAMINER is not disposed to give Hon. Mr. Farquharson other than a fair start, and trusts that he will be successful in getting the province out of the financial slough into which the administrations with which he has been more or less identified has plunged it.

THE EXAMINER has not been "grossly unjust" to the late premier in its reference to the demerit of the Warburton administration. The courtesy with which he discharged the obligations pertaining to the premiership we are not disposed to question; but as the leader of a Government he has not proved a brilliant success. With a judgeship in his pocket he for weeks continued to act as Premier and take an active part in politics, and one of the last acts of his political career was to participate in the letting by private agreement of a contract for the erection of the new Prince of Wales College, a contract involving the expenditure of thousands of dollars of the people's money!

It is worthy of note that this latter action is the only one the Patriot seems disposed to defend. It evidently has no excuse to offer for his conduct in reference to the judgeship.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Judge Warburton's appointment appears in the Canada Gazette at hand this morning. It is dated July 27th.

It is said that Italy's naval budget is to be increased in consequence of the additions that are to be made to the British fleet.

The Ontario Legislature meets today in special session, for the purpose of enabling seven or eight supporters of the government illegally elected to assist in the passage of an act relieving themselves from the action of the courts. The Ontario government is evidently in a bad way. Besides its supporters whose seats are in danger, two of its seven members were defeated the polls and have not yet secured seats in the Legislature while four of the remaining five are charged in the courts with having won the seats they hold by corruption.

It does not look as if monarchy was altogether an infelicitous institution when a little boy's attack of measles becomes an object of interest to two continents. As the Gazette remarks it is not easy for a hard hearted tacheur to repress a smile on reading the full details published in the United States press, but probably the tender hearts of many American mothers will be more moved by the Queen of Spain's distress than by the slaughter of several hundred Spanish soldiers by United States troops.

It is now said that Mr. William Mulock is to be knighted. This is eminently fitting. Mr. Mulock was, perhaps, one of the most out-spoken Liberals against what has been termed "tin pot titles." But others of his party have swallowed their opposition utterances on the point and grabbed all the titles in sight. Why should not he do the same. The list of titled democrats includes Sir Oliver Mowat, Sir Richard Cartwright, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Louis Davies, Sir Henry Joly, Sir Pantaleon Pelletier, and Sir James Edgar. And if reports be true Sir William Mulock will soon be added.

ESTEEMED EXCHANGES

Moncton Times: Mr. Beausoleil, one of Mr. Laurier's Quebec followers, who was kicking vigorously a short time ago against the course of the government, has been very quiet of late. Now it is said he will get an office.

Montreal Gazette: Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Cobden Club medal is described as being in size something less than a tea saucer. When he pins it on his fluted uniform, alongside the insignia of the Legion of Honor, and the token of his K. M. C. G. ship, he will be the most decorated democrat in the Dominion.

Hamilton Times: Brookline sailors are on strike against making U. S. military uniforms at 19 cents a garment. They set forth that the United States, being engaged in a war ostensibly at least for humanitarian purposes, ought not to tolerate inhuman treatment of the men and women at home who live by producing goods for the use of the army. The contention is well founded.

THE DEATH

OF BISMARCK

His Last Days and Death

GRAVE SYMPTOMS APPEARED ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

The Prince's Last Words Were to His Daughter.

LONDON, July 31.—A special despatch to the Associated Press says the news of Prince Bismarck's death reached Berlin at a late hour and was only generally known this morning. A number of newspapers did not contain the news of the Prince's demise.

The Nachrichten gives the fullest details of the last days and death of Bismarck. It says:

"On Thursday evening an improvement was noticeable in the Prince's condition in which repeated changes for the worse had occurred since October, when he was able to appear at the table and take part in the conversation, drinking champagne and afterwards smoking several pipes of tobacco, which he had not done lately.

"His condition was so satisfactory that Dr. Schwinger, after the Prince had gone to bed, left with the intention of returning on Saturday. Prince Bismarck's condition was comparatively satisfactory throughout Friday and Saturday. He read the Nachrichten and conversed on politics. Particularly referring to Russian affairs. In the forenoon he took luncheon grumbling jocularly at the small proportion of spirits in his drinking water. Then a sudden change for the worse occurred, in consequence of an acute attack of pulmonary oedema, and in the course of the afternoon he frequently became unconscious.

"Recently besides periods of unusual mental clearness, the Prince had had intervals of drowsiness, falling into long, sound and beneficial sleeps, on awakening from which he would be completely refreshed.

"On Saturday evening grave symptoms appeared. Death came easy and painlessly. Dr. Schwinger was able to some extent to enlighten the last moments by wiping the mucus from the patient's mouth and enabling him to breathe freely.

"The last words Prince Bismarck uttered were addressed to his daughter, Countess Rantzau, who wiped the perspiration from his forehead. They were: 'Thanks, my child.'

Seems as if all the things we like disagree with us, and all the things we don't like, agree with us. Dyspepsia lurks in most of the good things we eat, and indigestion follows the gratification of appetite. Of course it isn't Nature's fault. Nature does the best she can, and if a man will only help her a little bit at the right time, he may eat what he likes and as much as he likes. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for people who are troubled with indigestion. Particularly for those in whom it manifests itself in the form of constipation. The "Pellets" are quick and easy in their action. They are in perfect harmony with Nature. They effect a permanent cure. You need take them regularly only a little while. After that, use them occasionally when you need them—when you have eaten anything that disagrees with you. They may be taken just as freely as you would take water or any other necessity of life. Once used they are always in favor.

Crown and Bridge Work is one of the most beautiful operations in dentistry. Crowns are so useful and so comfortable to the wearer, that he or she soon forgets they are different than his or her own teeth. A Curious Fact

It is really remarkable the number of cheap plated watch cases that are made and sold these days—cases that will wear anywhere from six weeks to three years, and most of them containing a guarantee warranting them to wear for 20 years. A good filled case, one that will wear for 20 years, costs within a dollar of what it did seven years ago. That dollar represents the reduced cost of making—the gold costs just the same.

I sell gold filled cases, cases that have stood the test of years, and personally guarantee every case that I sell in addition to the manufacturer's warrant.

I have some of the latest and most desirable patterns in stock, also silver.

Any make of movement you want.
