IN MEMORIAM

CHEVERIE — In fond and loving memory of our dear husband and father Frank (Dinky) Cheverie who departed this life February 3rd, 1954.

Though tears in our eyes do not glisten, And our faces are not always sad, There is never a night or a morning, That we don't think of that wonderful Dad.

Not a day do we forget him, In our hearts he is always there, For we loved him dearly and miss him, As it dawns another year.

Always remembered but sadly missed by his wife and family.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all those who sent cards and messages of sympathy during my recent sad bereavement.

Mrs. Annie MacDonald, Cornwall.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ALETHA MacVITTE — In the early hours of the morning on December 11, 1957, the angel of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rodgerston, Hampton, and claimed for its own a mother, Mrs. Aletha MacVitte, at the age of sixty years.

She was born at Lot 16, May 7, 1897, an only daughter of the late Grace Best and Alfred Simmons. She spent her girlhood days in Saskatchewan and returned to this province with her ill mother who later passed away.

She married Everett Heber MacVitte, Westmoreland. She later resided in Craipaud, where they operated a meat store and Kozy Korner, until the sudden death of her husband two years ago. She became ill and entered the P.E.I. Hospital for treatment but of no avail.

She returned home and later was nursed and cared for by her two daughters, Grace (Mrs. E. Rodgerston) and Mary (Mrs. G. Sturdy) who never left her until the end.

Her pleasant smile and kindly disposition won her many friends and she bore her great suffering with Christian fortitude. She was visited frequently by her pastor, Rev. L.R. Graves. She was a member of the W.M.S. Westmoreland.

Her funeral was held on Dec. 13, Rev. L.A. Graves read the Scripture and spoke comforting words to the bereaved. Rev. M. K. Charman led in prayer. The hymns sung were "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Unto the Hills". A solo, "There's a Land that is Fairer than Day" was rendered by her brother-in-law, Lewelyn Gamble, City. Dr. Peter MacDonald was in charge of the music.

Her remains were tenderly laid to rest in the Westmoreland Baptist Cemetery beside her loved ones.

The pallbearers were Park Canfield, Winfield Gamble, Harry Best, Arthur Simmons, Lorne Simmons and Earle Francis.

She leaves to mourn three daughters, namely Mrs. Everett Rodgerston (Grace) Hampton; Mrs. James Moore (Evelyn) Westmoreland; Mrs. George Sturdy, (Mary) Craipaud; two sons Keith Martin, Lynn, Mass., Carl, Craipaud; and six grand children, who will ever cherish her memory of a dear one, who is absent in the flesh, but present with the Lord.

Beyond the rainbow's end there lies
The land of love and light,
Where shadows never dim the skies
For there — there is no night
And though, our loss is hard to bear
Of our loved one, or of friend
We know that we shall find them there
Beyond the rainbow's end.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Aletha MacVitte express their gratitude for floral tributes, cards of sympathy, to the clergy, relatives and neighbours, W.I. and Dr. Peter MacDonald, who helped in their recent and very sad bereavement.

N. Y. Stock Prices Up Substantially During January

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite an atmosphere of business recession, the stock market rose substantially in January.

The quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange rose an estimated $9,860,000 in the first month of 1958. This is based on a rise of $7.80 in the Associated Press average of 80 stocks, which closed this week at $162.50. It was the third straight weekly advance. Last week's gain was 50 cents.

Part of the rise was due to re-investment demand usual at the start of a new year. The advance was helped along also by news of greater defence spending, official predictions that the business slump would end well before the year was over and by credit-easing measures.

Monday the market had to reckon with the news that Robert R. Young, board chairman of the New York Central Railroad and of Allegheny Corp., the holding company which controls Central, had committed suicide.

But Wall Street had ample time to sleep on the shocking news. Although there was a 90-minute delay in the opening of NYC stock Monday because of the throng of buyers and sellers, the stock closed unchanged that day. It was one of the market's most actively traded stocks during the week, closing at 15 1/4, off only 1/4.

The rail section as a whole provided virtually the only excitement of the week, staging a strong technical rally Wednesday.

Among active Canadian issues last week on the American Stock Exchange was Webb and Knapp, unchanged at 1 1/2.

Says Top Need Is Leaders In Christianity And Humanities

HALIFAX (CP) — Prime Minister Diefenbaker says the greatest challenge facing this scientific age is leadership in Christianity and the humanities.

Communist countries have rushed to develop scientists, he told students of St. Mary's University Thursday, but they proved that "conformity can't be produced by stuffing the mind and starving the soul."

"All the scientific miracles of a lifetime can't fulfill the requirement of the world for leadership... or nullify the need for Christian character."

Mr. Diefenbaker received an honorary doctor of laws degree from the university for "his loyal public service and his enlightened discharge of his duties."

OTHERS GET DEGREES — Most Rev. Gerald Berry, Roman Catholic archbishop of Halifax and St. Mary's chancellor, conferred the degree.

Also receiving honorary doctor of laws degrees were W. T. Ross Flemington, president of Mount Allison University, Sackville, N.B., and Harold S. Foley, British Columbia industrialist.

Mr. Flemington was termed a "distinguished educationalist." Mr. Foley made a "tremendous contribution to international goodwill" by underwriting the transfer of a Hungarian forestry school to his province.

Mr. Diefenbaker, in a "simple message" to the university's student body, urged them to devote time to community work, so that some day they can help fill the need for leadership in public affairs.

"And next to Christian leadership, leadership in public affairs provides unlimited scope for helping mankind."

protection for 1,484 boats.

Those figures have been given by G. L. Grant, who administers the plan in the Maritime region from Area Headquarters of the Department of Fisheries, Halifax.

The low cost of the insurance — the premiums are only one per cent of the value of the boat — coupled with the constant presence of sea and fire encourage fishermen to protect their means of livelihood. The scheme gives protection to all commercial fishermen on boats ranging in value from $250 to $10,000.

This plan of insurance is available to Canadian fishermen on both coasts. In British Columbia the 1,415 boats presently insured represent a value of $6,800,000. The Value of boats insured in the Maritime Provinces is $2,337,000.

Maritime Provinces is $2,337,000. An increase of about $700,000 over the figures for January, 1957.

Claims paid last year to Maritime fishermen totalled nearly $26,000. Premium revenue was less than $25,000. Since the plan was inaugurated in 1953, more than $22,000 in claims have been paid to fishermen in the Maritime provinces for total and partial losses.

Fishermen Get In Government Insurance Plan

HALIFAX. — Each year sees an increase in the number of Maritime fishermen taking advantage of the Fishermen's Indemnity Plan, a Federal government scheme for insuring small and medium-sized fishing craft. Last year in the three ocean-side provinces the amount of insurance in force jumped 19 per cent above the 1956 level to provide
