ISLAND CHEESE.—The Montreal Trade Bulletin says that P. E. Island cheese soon to be offered for sale there will aggregate about 25,000 boxes. Some 10,000 boxes of cheese were sold there last week, said to be at about 9 1/2 to 9c. The market was generally quiet.

BEAVER WILL SOON BE HERE.

JOHN BOYLE O'REILLY.—We learn that the Rev. A. B. O'Neill, C. S. C. M. A., of St. Joseph's College, Memphiscok, will deliver a lecture on "John Boyle O'Reilly," in the Lyceum on the occasion of the opening of the new Reading Room.

THE BONAVITA.—The steamer Bonavita arrived from Montreal about three o'clock yesterday afternoon with a full general cargo, including a large consignment of flour. She left on return, via Sydney and St. John's, with a cargo which included 2,500 bags of oats, 250 tons of hay, 50 tons of oysters, 50 tons of sheep and a quantity of hay, butter and other sundries. Miss Cowperthwaite is a passenger to St. John's.

OPERA HOUSE.—Miss Cecile Lorraine will sing by special request "Alice Ben Bolt." Miss Lorraine is forced to respond four or five times nightly after singing that famous old English ballad. The company supporting Miss Lorraine and Mr. Gibson is the same that presented "Tribby" here last May. "The Irish Senator" comes well recommended, and it will be greeted with a good house. In addition to "The Irish Senator," a comedy-entire entitled "A Quiet Family" will be presented, so that attending the Opera House on Thursday evening will see two plays for the one price.

THE CONTRACT AWARDED.—The contract for building a summer residence at Tracadie for Alexander Macdonald, the Standard Oil magnate, has been awarded to Rhodes, Curry & Co. of Amherst. The house will be built on a site within about two hundred yards of the surf, with a large lake which covers one hundred acres, lying about 150 feet south of the house, and sheltered on the north and west by a beautiful grove of spruce trees. The contract price is said to be in the vicinity of $11,000, and the house is to be fully completed by July 1st. It is to be regretted that an Island firm did not secure the contract.

PETTY LARCENY.—The juvenile thieves who have been operating in the west end of the city for some time past have been found out, and they will be given a trial at the police court in a day or two. It is said that there are four of them. The thefts were usually committed on Sunday evenings while the occupants of the houses were at church. Preserves, cheese and sweet-meats were stolen. The residences of Mr. L. H. Davies, Mrs. Geo. W. Hodgson and Rev. James Simpson were among those visited by the thieves, and it was largely through the efforts of the latter named gentleman that the guilty boys were discovered.

TONKA. WHAT IS IT?

CROSBLEY AND HUNTER.—Everybody is invited to the Union Evangelistic service this evening in the First Methodist Church. The meeting opens at 7.30, sharp. A large audience was present last evening, and much interest was manifested. This evening Mr. Crosbley gives one more of his popular and impressive "song sermons" on "the Crowns of the Bible." Don't miss it.

The members of the Church choir, and all who love to sing, are cordially invited to come and assist in the service of song. The singers will practice meet in the school room at 7.10. The committee has arranged to accommodate an immense choir.

"Why," said he, looking at him rather indignantly, "I have never been to New York." "Beg pardon," said the enquirer, "by this time I discovered his mistake, that is, that fashionable overcoat that gives you such a stylish appearance." So it will if you buy your fall overcoat from S. A. Macdonald, the leading fashionable tailor.

THE EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

Several city clergymen occupied seats on the platform in the First Methodist Church last evening, and the body of the church was well filled.

Rev. Mr. Crosley took his text from Exodus 12-13. "When I see the blood I will pass over you." He pointed out that the sprinkling of the blood is intended to signify how we may be saved by the blood of the Paschal Lamb. The sacrifice of Christ, he went on to remark, was a vicarious one. The shedding of blood was held to be necessary, because blood is life. The blood of Christ was sprinkled. It was saving blood. Morality and good works are all right, but they should never be relied upon as a substitute for the saving blood of Christ. We are saved by faith and works, but by faith which inspires works. The two are inseparable. The blood of the text was sheltering blood. And so may the world be sheltered from evil. Pray for your loved ones to be saved. Use your influence that they may accept salvation. God has provided the way. Many neglect it, and by neglecting, despite it. Those who are aware of their ungodly condition, should use their intelligence in the matter, so that they may be brought to a saving knowledge of Christ. From the text might also be learned the simplicity of the way of salvation. It involves four steps—to hear, to believe, to be willing, to trust. And that those four steps might be taken by many perishing souls in this city was his most earnest wish.

Rev. Mr. Hunter made the announcement that Mr. Gale, the evangelist, now laboring in Moncton, would be in Charlottetown before the meetings closed. He also announced that Mr. Crosley would give a song sermon on Tuesday night, the subject of which would be "The Crowns of the Bible." Mr. Crosley's ability as a vocalist was amply attested by his rendition of "My Ain Country" and "The Two Lives."

A TO-WARM POLICEMAN. The policeman who arrested the Duke for coming in Central Park, has had such a roasting that it may be a while before he quite appreciates the provision against oild in his uniform. The Fibre Chamois lining which is put in the suits of New York policemen makes their duties possible on the rawest, coldest days, without any fear of chills or other troubles resulting from wind and exposure. This provision is even more necessary in our own climate, as it simply hedges the wearer in from the outer wind and frost, which can't penetrate Fibre Chamois, and keeps in the natural heat of the body, thus providing perfect comfort for all weather.

BLACK DIAMOND LINE.—The S. S. Coban sailing from Montreal on Friday morning Nov. 22nd will be due at Charlottetown on Monday morning, Nov. 25th and will call at St. John's, N.S., via Sydney. Shippers should note that this will be the last sailing of this line of steamers, this season and engage such space as they will require, at once. dy td.

FOOTBALL.—A match between the Abegweit and St. Dunstan's will probably be played on Thanksgiving day. Two of the three of the Abegweit seem disinclined to again play in a match, but it is hoped they will abide with the other members of the team, and play a match on Thursday. It will be too bad to let Thanksgiving pass without a match of some kind.

Makes New Friends At The Time and keeps them too. The finest tonic on the market is Wilson's Invalid's Port Wine, which is asked for by all invalid, debilitated, nervous people, as it has peculiar properties which make it invaluable to all such. These are—its undoubted blood-making property, being a fine old rich wine, of body and strength, its restorative properties, for it is the testimony of thousands that after use there is a feeling of strength and buoyancy to which the listless body and spirit have been strangers. A fine old wine, which one might drink without a thought of medicinal property, which is in the character of the beverage itself, and is not anything superadded. Sold by all dealers at $7.50 per case of 12 quart bottles, half case $4.00, or 75 cents per bottle. Address—Bordeaux Claret Co., 30 Hospital Street, Montreal. 246

Stop and Think a Second. When one recommends an unknown interlining as being cheaper and just as good as FIBRE CHAMOIS. There is a few paltry quid difference in price, for FIBRE CHAMOIS is very cheap, and besides you know that it has all the good qualities it claims, for they have been proved. The merchant likely makes a larger profit on the poor line, but you can't afford to risk spoiling your clothing on that account. For your own sake avoid worthless imitations, and when buying find the name FIBRE CHAMOIS on every yard. Ask to see it. Patented July 1890, March 1895. 234
