Immigration to Canada.

The Rev. A. Styleman Herring, vicar of Clerkenwell, London, England, and Mr. John James Jones, also of London, arrived at Toronto last week. Both gentlemen have visited Canada on previous occasions, and have done much towards promoting the immigration to Canada of a desirable class of English settlers.

In Canada the workman realizes that he has the privilege not only of living, but of living well, and he is treated with an amount of respect which he does not quite comprehend until he has been here some considerable time.

The child of Diamond Smith, a wealthy citizen, was abducted by kidnapers, yesterday, and $1000 were demanded for its return. But the abductors, unable to get the child out of the city, left it at a neighbor's doorstep.

It is rumored that Hon. Mr. Chapleau, Premier of Quebec, has resigned, and will enter the Dominion Cabinet.

P. E. Island Live Stock.

The St. John Telegraph's correspondent says:—"The shabbiest thing about the average Island farms is the wretched live stock—horses excepted. This does not apply to the stock of a few enterprising and intelligent breeders, who were able to hand over to the butchers, last Easter, heifers weighing 1015 lbs., 850 lbs., 650 lbs., and so on, dead weight.

In Montreal on the 14th inst., a joiner named Jos. Thorberg, who came to that city from Quebec a few months since, was on a drunken carouse with his wife in their home. The man went to bed in a room off the kitchen, while the woman stretched herself on the floor of the latter.

Regarding Island horses, the same correspondent truly says:—"The great want at present is the lack of heavy mares to breed from." It is to be hoped that this want will be supplied.

A very amusing despatch was sent over the wires a few days ago to the effect that "everybody on the American ships at Alexandria was much disappointed at the inaction of the English vessels, and it is said that the Americans would have done the work in half the time."

Should England have to put an end to the Egyptian troubles by force of arms, Canada will not be unrepresented in the army of the Empire. We observe by our exchanges that the army corps under orders to proceed from India to Aden includes among other distinguished regiments the famed 78th, or as they are now styled in connection with the 72nd, the Seaforth Highlanders.

The Khedive has received news that a large number of Bedouins have collected three miles from the railway gate of Alexandria, which is opposite the weak point in our defence; also 1,500 Arabs at Fort Guelani, throwing up earth works.

Ragheb Pacha, president of the ministry, has written a letter to Admiral Seymour, stating the preparations that Arabi Pacha is making are against the will of the Khedive and the Government; that Arabi had been ordered to suspend them; that the Khedive decided to dismiss him, but danger of a repetition at Cairo and elsewhere of the fatal disorders which occurred in Alexandria induced the Khedive to temporarily defer publication of his decision.

The Late T. D. McGee.

The following extract from the Wexford Independent of the 17th June last, in reference to the late Hon. T. D'Arcy McGee, will be read with interest by all who knew and admired that great man:—"We knew the latter from his childhood, and watched with jealous solicitude his intellectual progress and astounding ability through many vicissitudes, and those columns bear unerring testimony to that store of literary wealth and practical knowledge which he happily possessed. For many years he was the American correspondent of the Independent, under the nom de plume of "One of the Maces."
