Shamrocks Nip Dodgers 13-11

The lowly Dodgers come close to winning their first game of the season last evening. It was a dead heat right down to the wire with the score knotted 11-11 going into the bottom half of the final frame.

It was a race to the finish with the Dodgers putting up a terrific battle. They scored one run in the first frame, two in the second, five in the fourth, two in the sixth and one in the seventh, while the Shamrocks scored one in the first, two in the second, four in the third, two in the fourth, two in the fifth and two in the seventh.

Ev Beagan's Irish were up at bat last. The first two players up for the Irish flew out, and the next man up, Roy McGonnell, was given a free pass by hurler Keith Dalziel. Lorne McGuigan, the next batter, hit a homer to give the Irish a 13-11 victory. This was the fourteenth straight defeat for the Dodgers.

Den Burge, well known to all local sport fans as a player and a writer, made an appearance on the Dodger team. Den, home on leave from the air-force, was called on in the fourth inning when the Dodgers lost one of their players. On his turn at the plate Den hit a triple to drive in one run.

Roy McGonnell and Ev Beagan shared mound duty for the Irish, being tagged for a total of fifteen hits, three of them for extra bases. They also walked seven and struck out two.

Charlie Smith, catcher for the losers was top man at the plate, hitting 3 for 4.
Other triples were hit by Wally Shepherd, Roy McGonnell and R. Dorian of the Shamrocks and Gerard Burge of the Dodgers.

Drysdale, Wynn Will Hurl In All-Star Game Today

By JACK HAND
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Young Don Drysdale of Los Angeles Dodgers and 39-year-old Early Wynn of Chicago White Sox will try to stop righthanded power with righthanded pitching in today's 26th all-star baseball game.

The weatherman promises to be kind. Although some scattered thundershowers were scheduled during the night, it was supposed to be sunny and pleasant today with the temperature in the 80s.

PRACTICE

Willis Hennessey has called a practice of Intermediate Abbies baseball team for this evening at Memorial Field.

Shoe Tossers Keeping Busy

Brighton Horseshoe Club members had as their guests over the weekend a group of shooters from Canoe Cove.

Dominion Day results have been held up at the local club. One game has not been completed and will have to be run off before the outcome of the holiday games are announced.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

THIS IS THE DAY of the All-Star classic and Forbes Field, Pittsburgh will be jammed-packed this afternoon when Dodgers' Don Drysdale starts throwing them up to the American League batters.

Drysdale has been given the nod by manager Fred Haney and the young man from Los Angeles looks like a good choice to start subduing the American Leaguers. Don has been a big gun in the Dodgers' bid to cop the flag in the senior circuit and is sporting a 9-6 record as he enters this all-star classic.

His opponent is the 39-year-old hurler from Chicago, Early Wynn who feasts this 1959 season are keeping Al Lopez and company in the thick of the pennant race.

THIS IS THE FIRST TIME since 1944 that that Pittsburgh was the site of this colorful baseball exhibition. That last encounter at Forbes Field was the only other time the cream of both leagues got together there. On that occasion, the senior circuit won the ball game 7-1 and National Leaguers are hoping and predicting such a happening again today.

OF COURSE, folks around these parts don't get too worked up over an all-star game. By that we mean they are not too interested in who wins or loses. They enjoy the game immensely but their interest is pretty well confined to seeing the game's great stars in action and players on both squads have their good wishes.

Today's tussle should provide ample opportunity for these 'name' players to strut their stuff. Not all of them will shine but enough will come through to make this annual affair really worthwhile.

WE HAVE A FEELING that neither Fred Haney or Casey Stengel will have their heart really in today's game. Sure, they'd like to outfox each other and grab the verdict, but right now so much more serious things are crowding their minds.

THE OTHER MASTERMIND in today's game, Casey Stengel, has far more worries than has Haney. The champions and one-half game and only 0011 points lead are the upstart Los Angeles Dodgers. Both Giants and Dodgers refuse to let the Braves out of their sight and the Pittsburgh Pirates have by no means given up the chase. They trail by three and one-half games.

THE NEW YORKERS got away to a horrible start but they did make a rather sensational rebound. However, when they got close to the top (they could have been first by beating the Tribe in that twin bill a few weeks ago) they muffed their chance and started down again.

AND THESE INDIANS have been winning the big ones every time they have come up. That Sunday afternoon in New York they could have lost the league lead to the Yankees. They had a one and one-half game bulge entering the twin bill and a double loss would have made them runners-up. But instead of cracking under the pressure, the men of Joe Gordon took the bit in their teeth and walloped the Yankees twice that afternoon.

with a long string of scoreless innings. The only question mark in the starting lineups had been Al Kaline, Detroit's centre fielder. Kaline underwent corrective surgery last week for a cheekbone fractured June 18. He hasn't played in a week but relayed word to Stengel that he was having the stitches removed and definitely wanted to play. Stengel was duly impressed. In Detroit, Kaline said he would ask to be relieved after three innings.

The proceeds of this game go to the player pension fund along with 60 per cent of the radio and television cash. This is part of the $3,250,000 radio-TV deal covering world series and all-star games. There will be an additional fee for the second all-star game to be played Aug. 3 at Los Angeles. Three more men will be added to each squad, making a total of 28 for each side, in the California game.

Ft. Augustus Takes Game

Fort Augustus St. Pats trimmed the Iona St. Mike's 19-6 at Iona Sunday afternoon. Emmett Hughes went all the way on the mound for the winners and gave up two hits. McCabe started for Iona and gave way to Phelan in the fourth. Both were tagged hard by the Fort Augustus batters.

St. Pats and Cardigan are tied for top spot in the league, with three wins and one loss. Vernon River is in third spot and Iona fourth.

Kuenn Takes Hitting Streak Into Today's All-Star Game

NEW YORK (AP) — Harvey Kuenn of Detroit will take a 20 game hitting streak and a 12-point lead in the American League batting race into today's major league all-star game.

A week ago, Kuenn led Pete Runnels of Boston, the runner-up, by only five points. However, in the last week's action, including games of Sunday, July 5, Kuenn climbed one point to 356 while Runnels dropped 19 points to 333.

in fourth place. He gained five points to 330 with 12 hits in 25 tries. AARON SLUMPS In the National League, Aaron, slumping steadily the last few weeks, lost 11 more points. He had only five safeties in 22 times at bat and his average tumbled off to .370.
