

What is Scott's Emulsion? It is the best cod-liver oil, partly digested, and combined with the hypophosphites and glycerine. What will it do? It will make the poor blood of the anemic rich and red.

It will give nervous energy to the overworked brain and nerves. It will add flesh to the thin form of a child, wasted from fat-starvation. It is everywhere acknowledged as The Standard of the World.

HOUSE CLEANING.

Sing a song of cleaning house, Pocketsful of nails; Four and twenty dustpans, Scrubbing brooms and pails, When the door is open, Wife begins to sing:

"Just help me move this wardrobe here, And hang this picture, won't you, dear? And tack that carpet by the door, And stretch this one a little more, And drive this nail and screw this screw; And here's a job I have for you— The cupboard door will never catch, I think you'll have to fix the latch; And, oh, while you're about it, John, I wish you'd put the cornice on.

"And hang this curtain when you're done I'll hand you up the other one; This box is got to have a hinge Before I can put on the fringe; And won't you mend that broken chair, I'd like a hook put right up there; The wardrobe door must have a knob, And here's another little job— I really hate to ask you dear, But could you fix a bracket here?"

And on it goes, when those are through, And this and that and those to do, Ad infinitum, and more, too, All in a merry jingle. And isn't that enough to make A man wish he was single? (Almost.)
