SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Fatal Railway Accident.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 16.

The south bound passenger train of the latter branch of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, which left Butler, Pa., at 3.30 this afternoon jumped the track at Sarver's Station. The express train, two passenger coaches, a combination smoking and a baggage car went over the embankment and were totally wrecked. Three persons were killed outright and twenty-five others injured, a number of whom will die. The accident was caused by the spreading of the rails on a small bridge. The rails were on stringers rotted with time and long service. The engineer passed over safely and the first car derailed plunged down into an abyss 30 feet deep. The rails ploughed through the second car, and escapes were miraculous. One lady had her dress cut from waist to shoulder, another lost a small piece of her cheek, and a third had her chin cut.

Conspiracy to Kill.

WIHINIAC, Ind., Aug. 16.

A conspiracy to kill five farmers of this vicinity was made known yesterday by Charles Lyttle, who files an affidavit against John Sutton charging the latter with hiring him (Lyttle) to put strychnine in whiskey and give it to the five men, neighbors of Sutton, and then to burn their barns, and also the Oddfellows building at Slave city, Lyttle was to receive $5 for his work when completed. Lyttle had strychnine in his possession, and gave it to sheriff Burton last night. Sutton is one of the wealthiest farmers here, and owns about 1000 acres of land. A quarrel with his neighbors, it is alleged, is Sutton's reason for forming the conspiracy. Sutton is under arrest.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Cruelty to Animals.

SIR,—In yesterday's issue of the Island Guardian I read an article entitled "Heartless Cruelty," wherein the writer calls attention to a recent act of brutal treatment to a hired horse by a young man in the vicinity of Summerside, and urges the necessity of our Provincial Legislature, following in the footsteps of the English Parliament and protecting the brute creation from cruel treatment. Allow me to state, for the information of the Editor of the Guardian that a stringent law has already been placed upon the Statute Book by our Dominion Parliament respecting cruelty to animals, and which law is in full force in this Island. It is enacted that everyone who wantonly, cruelly or unnecessarily beats, binds, ill-treats, abuses, overdrives or tortures any cattle, horse, mule, ass, swine, sheep or goat, poultry, dog domestic animal or bird, is liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding three months, with or without hard labor or both.
