Mrs. James Beer, president of the Presbyterian W. M. S., presided, and members of the Cornwall United Church and Clyde River Baptist Church participated. Mrs. Gordon McKinnon was organist. Special prayers were led by Mrs. Colin Murray, Mrs. Robert Matheson, Mrs. W. A. McLean, Mrs. Watson Livingston, Mrs. Katherine Murray and Mrs. John Gillespie.

A duet by Mrs. Gordon McKinnon and Mrs. Louis McLean was much appreciated. The offering was received by Mrs. John Gillespie and Mrs. George Hyde. ### IN MEMORIAM

WILLIAM JOHN HARRINGTON

—William John Harrington, a well known and highly respected farmer, passed away at his home at Spring Valley on Saturday morning, February 21st in his 69th year after an illness of several months duration.

He had been exceptionally successful in his chosen calling, and by executive ability coupled with hard work had built up productive and extensive holdings and a modern and well kept farmstead. Having in recent years given over the management of the farm to his son, Keith, he continued to enjoy good health and to take part in the work until the late months of the past year when his last illness began to take its toll.

Politically he was a staunch Conservative. Active in the interests of the party, and mentally alert, he kept well informed and interested in the welfare of community and State.

A lifelong resident of Spring Valley and an Anglican, he was a regular attendant at St. Stephen's Church, Burlington. Surviving are his wife, the former Maude Ramsay of Malpeque, one son, Keith on the homestead, two daughters, Ellen, Mrs. John E. Cousins, Park Corner, and Cordelia, Mrs. Russell Ramsay, R. N. of Summerside, also six grandchildren and two brothers, James and Hiram both of Spring Valley.

Annual Meeting Of York' W.C.T.U.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of York held their annual meeting on Monday evening, February 16th. Mrs. Milton Vessey, active member of this Union, entertained the York Branch at her home, with 11 members answering roll call, and four visitors present. The president and leader, Mrs. Horace Vessey presided and all members repeated a lovely pledge in unison. Mrs. Marshall Sproule accompanied on the organ while members sang the hymn "A Charge I Have". "Success, What Is Success" was read by Mrs. Sproule.

A tribute to Francis Willard as written in the White Ribbon Tidings was read by Mrs. Elmer Brown. Mrs. Horace Vessey read a passage of Scripture from Matthew, chapter 5.

An interesting temperance reading was given by Mrs. Harry Lewis and Mrs. Leigh Vessey read "Blessed Are The Meek".

A beautiful prayer by Mrs. Sproule was given. A reading stating the work of the Salvation Army by Mrs. Frank Vessey, was indeed interesting and inspiring. Mrs. Elmer Brown's reading, "A Child's Prayer" and its results was about a child praying at the bedside of her drinking father who pretended he was sleeping.

After she left the room she heard her father arise and at his bedside he prayed and later the daughter returned and they prayed together. Results followed in later years, as it took many months to conquer the thirst for drink, to become a friend of the drinking man, helping them also to give up wasteful spending and degradation and shame.

A temperance reading was given by Mrs. Lloyd Vessey, and Mrs. Milton Vessey read Scientific Doctrine.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered by 13 members. Nine members paid fee for 1953 and three new members joined. The treasurer's annual report was given, with a small balance for 1952's activities.

This W.C.T.U. held a delightful party in 1952 for those (23) who wrote the Temperance course examinations. Sixteen wrote the examination with resulting good marks. Those writing these exams were Misses Elizabeth and Erma Watts; Misses Shirley, Hazel and Fernie Vessey; Misses Carol and Annabell Hardy, Misses Elaine Cooke and Muriel MacDonald, also Wilma Newsome and Misses Earla and Joyce Ling, along with Messrs. Merrill MacDonald, Frankie Lewis, and George Proude, and also Miss Marjorie Lewis.

These successful students will be guests of honour of the Women's Christian Temperance local branch of York, sometime in March, at a party. Mrs. Sproule, Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. Raymond Vessey were appointed to look after details of same.

A new slate of officers for 1953 was elected as follows: President, Mrs. Harry Lewis; vice-president, Mrs. Lloyd Vessey; secretary,
