FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while outlasting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Lyr

SOME QUESTIONS FOR DR. McNEILL.

Sir.—Poor Dr. McNeill! Evidently the Kickapoo Indians have out into his practice and this does not speak well for the people's opinion of Dr. McNeill. It is plain that the Doctor feels this and his letter proves it. Now I wonder if the recipe for Lidian Oil, published by the Doctor, would not compare more than favorably with many of his mixtures, and I would like to know what the Doctor has to say about all the tinctures and such like preparations which he uses—what percentage of alcohol do they contain?

ONE BENEFITED BY INDIAN OIL.

Consistency a Jewel.

Sir.—The senior member of the first Legislative Council District of Prince County, when he first ran, stated in his card, "I am in favor of two Houses, as the best form of Legislature." He was returned on that ticket, and again ran on the same ticket three years ago and was returned. Now he is strongly in favor of the Peters Amalgamation. Truly, election pledges with some men are as nothing. But he cares not, as he will never again dare to face his deceived constituency.

Time and Money.

A couple of bachelors were talking about their (terrible and undouble condition.

"Well," said one, "I should have married long ago, but I haven't had time enough to think about it."

"Time?" echoed the other. "Time! Well, if the adage is true that time is money, then I haven't had enough time, either," and they went on their way dejected and sad.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The Edgar - Caron Charges.

OTTAWA, March 22.

The whole afternoon sitting was spent in committee upon the Government's bill to amend the criminal code. The bill passed.

After recess Mr. Edgar brought up his charges against Sir Adolphe Caron. He said that in refusing to appear before the Commission he was backed up by the independent press. In reading over the evidence he had no fault to find with the ruling of the Commissioners, but he could not say anything in favor of the conduct of the counsel for the crown. He had not sheltered himself behind his parliamentary privileges, but had openly published his charge in several newspapers and had on the public platform repeated them before the face of McKenzie B. well and challenged him to bring the speaker before any court.

Mr. Bowell did not accept the challenge. Mr. Edgar then proceeded to discuss the evidence taken by the commission, dealing particularly with those portions which he considered bore heaviest against Sir Adolphe Caron. Mr. Edgar, who is the possessor of a voice that sounds as if he were talking through a telephone, is not the style of speaker to arouse enthusiasm, and when 9.30 o'clock came he was talking to about 150 empty seats. In closing his speech, Mr. Edgar moved the following amendment:

"That in the opinion of this House, the evidence taken by the Royal commission, establishes facts which should have prevented the reappointment of Sir Adolphe Caron as an adviser of the Crown, and renders it highly improper that he should continue in that position."

Hon. Mr. Curran made an effective reply to Mr. Edgar's speech. He treated the evidence taken by the Commission in an exhaustive manner, and read extracts after extract to show the falsity of the two sets of charges against Sir Adolphe—those laid before the Commission and those preferred by Mr. Edgar, who cowardly refused to appear when summoned as a witness.

Mr. Davies moved the adjournment of the debate at 11.50. The vote will probably be reached to-day.

The Connolly-McGregory trial has been adjourned till September, owing to the absence of Robert McGregor, who skipped from the train on which he journeyed from Quebec to the capital. A Bench warrant has been issued for his arrest.
