SANTA BIDS "farewell and a Merry Christmas" to children at the Provincial Sanatorium last night after visiting and distributing personal gifts and treats to the patients there and also in the Rehabilitation Centre.

Rotarians Accompany Santa To Sanatorium, Rehab. Centre

Santa Claus, accompanied by a group of Rotarians headed by chairman, J. A. Carruthers, paid his yearly visit to the Rehabilitation Centre and childrens department of the Provincial Sanatorium last night to dispense individual Christmas gifts to all and serenade with Christmas carols.

The Rehabilitation Centre children ranging in age from five to 13 years totalled 12, with Dr. Todor Gencheff in charge and Miss Irene Dewar, director of nursing. Mrs. Olive Livingston teaches the school age patients in this area.

In the children's department of the Provincial Sanatorium 21 children ranging from six months to 13 years of age are undergoing treatment. Children of school age are taught by Mrs. Lloyd Hawkes.

In both centres Santa was assisted by Rotarians in the distribution of treats in abundance to bring cheer and joy to all concerned in which the adult patients were not forgotten.

Debbie Gallant well known to Rotarians as a former "Timmy" thanked Santa and the visitors on behalf of the children as did also Linda Dugay in the 'San' division.

John Fielding with his accordion gave zest to the singing in which the children joined. A demonstration of the "twist" by Santa brought mirthful ejaculations and applause from all present.

Dr. E. M. Found, superintendent, gratefully acknowledged this annual gesture of goodwill on behalf of the children, the staff and the director of nursing Mrs. Lumena MacDonald and supervisor of children's department, Miss Gertrude Arsenault.

A film of Santa Claus as appearing in the street parade recently in Toronto was shown in conclusion and greatly enjoyed.

Rotary Votes $7,600 To Aid Community Organizations

Rotary voted more than $7,600 at the luncheon meeting held in the Charlottetown Hotel yesterday, to better the financial position of several organizations regularly remembered by the club at Christmas time.

The Polio Foundation Chapter received $4,000 to cover operating expenses at the summer camp with lesser amounts going to the Playgrounds Commission, $1,500; Protestant Family Service Bureau $1,000; Catholic Social Welfare Bureau, $1,000; Unitarian Service Committee, $50, the P.E.I. Musical Festival committee $25 and a "sum sufficient" to provide for the annual Christmas party for the children at the Sanatorium.

Lt.-Col. F. J. Storey was chairman and R. E. Seller, co-chairman. E. C. Taylor, city and Raymond Nadeau, Moncton were guests.

Relative Dies In Mass.

Percy J. Landrigan, 40 Walthen Drive, Charlottetown, learned during the weekend of the sudden death of his brother-in-law, Donald J. Baize of Birmingham, Mass., on Saturday, Dec. 15, at his home.

Mr. Baize was married to the former Nellie Landrigan of Charlottetown. The funeral is to take place this morning, with interment in the Birmingham Roman Catholic cemetery.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Third Queens Election Results Not Finalized

Hon. Andrew MacRae has an apparent majority of 16 votes over Liberal Cecil Miller in Third Queens, although no official count will be available until the official results of the Tracadie poll are available this morning. Returning Officer Benjamin Gallant, Charlottetown adjourned the Declaration Day court yesterday afternoon to meet in his office in the Province Building at 10 a.m. today.

Returns from the other deputy returning officers in the Third Queens district, plus the unofficial returns on election night of 114 for Miller, 69 for MacRae in the Tracadie poll, give the apparent majority of 16.

However no official total will be available until the official Tracadie poll return is received. The deputy returning officer at Tracadie failed to fill out the required forms indicating the votes polled for each candidate.

ADD TO MAJORITY

Harold Smith, Councillor and Stewart Ross, Assemblyman were declared elected in Fourth Queens with majorities of 130 and 212 respectively. Official returns increased the majority of Mr. Ross from the 193 that was indicated on election night. Their opponents were H. Bennett Carr, Charlottetown and John A. Murchison, Point Prim.

Premier Walter Shaw finished up with a majority of 148 votes in First Queens with 1,350 votes. His colleague Frank Myers has a majority of 112 votes. This gives the premier one more than the margin indicated election night, and Mr. Myers three less.

The premier's 1,350 votes compared with 1,202 for his opponent Allison Mayne, Springfield and Mr. Myers' 1,540 votes were scored against Stephen MacLeod, Bonshaw who polled 1,428.

Totals indicated on election night proved correct in Second Queens where Lloyd MacPhail, New Haven had 1,609 votes, 195 more than Horace Willis, Charlottetown; and Hon. J. Philip Matheson's 1,785 votes were 94 more than the 1691 polled for Ian MacLeod, Charlottetown.

No official totals were declared in Fifth Queens where several deputy returning officers had to be sent for in order to get complete information in polls where returns were not properly or completely filed.

Unofficial returns election night gave Hon. J.D. Stewart a majority of 1,004 votes over C.M. McLean and M.A. Farmer, QC, a margin of 536 votes over Elmer Blanchard.

HAD CEMETERY PLOT

One man polled a property vote in a First Queens poll on the strength of his having a plot of ground in Floral Hills Memorial Gardens' cemetery at Fredericton, Premier Walter Shaw said last evening and added the vote "was not legal," because money turned over to the cemetery is for perpetual care; it does not involve actual ownership.

Mr. Shaw added that he knew of two other men who had voted twice in the same electoral district, "which is also not legal." Property ownership enables a person to vote in more than one district, if he has property in more than one electoral district, but no man, it was explained, can legally vote in more than one poll in the same electoral district.

Case Dismissed Against City Man

The case against Gerard Joseph Devine, Charlottetown, was dismissed Monday following a decision by Magistrate James B. Johnston in Queens' County magistrate's court that, on the basis of the preliminary hearing, there was insufficient evidence to commit him for trial.

He was charged with theft of money from the Charlottetown Golf Club. Magistrate Johnston said he could not see that a trial would serve any purpose, as he did not believe a jury could find sufficient evidence for a decision. John P. Nicholson was counsel for the accused.

APPLICATION DISMISSED

Application was dismissed in a hearing of a private citizen's request that Alvin MacCarville, West Covehead, be bound over to keep the peace. Magistrate Johnston dismissed the application with a warning to MacCarville.

Two persons charged with being intoxicated in a public place were fined $20 and costs or 15 days. A third, charged with possession of liquor in a place other than his residence, was fined $20 and costs or 30 days.

The case of Chessel William Irving, Murray Harbour, charged with drunken driving, was adjourned to Jan. 7. The case of Charles Maxwell Stewart, charged with unlawfully passing another vehicle, was adjourned for hearing to Jan. 4, and hearing for John Wallace MacNeill, charged with driving without due care and attention, was set for Monday, Jan. 21. The case of James Ian Auld, charged with impaired driving, was set over to Dec. 27 at 10.30 a.m.

In traffic court, an accused charged with failing to halt at a stop sign was fined $5 and costs or two days.

Worker Hurt As Floor Falls

Gordon Cuteliffe, Tryon, received head injuries yesterday when a section of floor in the old public library gave way while he was in the cellar and fell on him.

The accident happened about 11.30 and Mr. Cuteliffe was taken to P.E.I. Hospital by Cuteliffe's Ambulance where head lacerations were stitched.

The library is being torn down to make way for the Confederation Memorial Building.

Dismantling Of Library Is Underway

Demolition of the old public library at the corner of Queen and Grafton Streets began yesterday morning, as Curran and Briggs Limited dismantled the top windows that looked into the former Harris Memorial Art Gallery.

Tenders close Friday for the tearing down of the Cabot Building.

Both buildings are on the site of the Confederation Memorial Building, excavation for which is to begin in January.

Government offices in the Cabot Building are prepared to move to new quarters. The motor vehicle branch has almost completed moving into the old Queen Square school, and tomorrow the treasury department begins its move to the New Way Building, at the corner of Kent and Great George Streets.

HAUSNER RESIGNS

JERUSALEM (Reuters)—The resignation of Gideon Hausner, Israeli attorney-general who was chief prosecutor in the trial of Adolf Eichmann, has been accepted by the cabinet, a government spokesman announced Sunday. Hausner, 47, submitted his resignation following a prolonged disagreement with Justice Minister Dov Joseph, a native of Montreal, on the scope of the functions of Hausner's office in relation to those of the justice minister.

Lineman Suffers Leg, Hand Burns

As the result of coming into contact with a high voltage power line, Richard J. (Dick) Carroll, 21 Palmers Lane, Charlottetown, is in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, suffering from burns of the left leg and right hand.

The accident occurred at about 9:30 yesterday morning, when Mr. Carroll, who is a lineman with the Island Telephone Company, was working on a pole in the Dunbury district.

Plant superintendent, E. G. Cameron, said last night that reports received from medical authorities revealed that Mr. Carroll's injuries were not considered too serious. He is to be kept in the hospital until this morning under observation, and following another medical examination further decisions as to treatment will be made.

Four Testify Before Case Is Adjourned

The case for the Crown was completed and one witness called for the defence last night in the case of Hollis Sturgeon MacKay, French River, in Queens County magistrate's court. MacKay is charged with leaving the scene of an accident in an effort to escape civil or criminal liability.

Alan K. Scales, acting for the Crown, called Charles Earl MacRae, French River; Glenwood MacLeod, Park Corner, and Cnst. William A. Wilson, RCMP, Charlottetown, as witnesses.

The accused was the only witness called by defence counsel, J.P. Nicholson, before the case was adjourned until Jan. 7 at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Nicholson requested the adjournment in order to call another witness. Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, heard the case.

Souris Pupil Gets Prize

SOURIS — At a brief ceremony held last night in St. Mary's Parish Hall, Souris, Miss Cathy Osborne, aged 10, of Souris, was presented with an award for having been judged first in the province, in the Royal Canadian Legion sponsored essay contest on the subject of "Why I Wear a Poppy."

The persentation was made by Frank Rush, Charlottetown, representing the provincial command, who was introduced by Bruce Stewart, Souris, the P.E.I. representative to the Dominion command. Also present for the occasion was Andrew MacEachern of the Charlottetown branch.

The ceremony was held during an intermission of a variety concert, which included a one-act play staged by the pupils of the Souris Elementary School, St. Mary's Convent and the Souris and District Drama Association.
