

THE DAILY EXAMINER. FEBRUARY 4, 1892.

Soulanges.

This constituency has been redeemed from the grite. The reverse in Richeleu has thus been met. How delighted the Opposition must feel over the result of Mercier's campaign of election petitions!

Reciprocity.

A GOVERNMENT delegation is about to proceed from Ottawa to Washington. The object of the delegation is to arrive at an agreement for reciprocity of trade between the United States and Canada in conformity with the will of the people as expressed at the general election.

The Civic Election.

We hoped for a lively and friendly contest over the question whether or not the Mayorship should be held in perpetuity or for many years consecutively by one man!

In respect to the Ward elections, also, we have to complain of a lack of that emulation and wholesome civic strife which is invariably found in the most progressive towns.

The contest in ward three is between Councillor Taylor and Mr. L. E. Prowse, of the enterprising firm of Prowse Brothers.

In ward five there are four candidates for three seats. The candidates are Councillor Hughes, W. D. McKay, D. L. Hooper and Maurice Blake.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND

In Prince Edward Island.

Encouraging Reports to the Diocesan Church Society.

The annual meeting of the Diocesan Church Society was held last evening in St. Paul's Schoolroom, the Hon. Mr. Justice Hensley presiding.

GENERAL REPORT.

Your committee have to report no great change in the condition of affairs of the Church as a whole in this Province. Services have with few exceptions been regularly conducted and a reasonable measure of progress has been secured.

The Rev. Frederic E. J. Lloyd, while continuing to hold the charge of the parish of Georgetown, has resigned the parish of Cherry Valley, of which he has been the rector for four years past.

The Rev. C. F. Lowe then read a paper on "The attitude of the Church of England towards our separated brethren." He shortly reviewed the divided state of Christianity to day and said that for the present, at least, corporate union seemed practically impossible.

Nothing divides people so widely and bitterly as religious and political differences. The doctrine of proportion should be held and no compromise. The truth as received by the Church should ever be thought of.

Nothing is gained by a surrender of principle—but men respect one who teaches what, after due and full examination, he believes to be true and living in what he teaches.

The Church is high, low and broad—so unvaried an antidote that provision is made for all who hold to the formulated creed of a once undivided Christendom.

The word gospel means Jesus to the soul of man. The Church is a multiplication of Jesus—in fact is all Jesus. The stream of parochial life can never rise above its fountain, we must be always what we profess to be.

More elasticity in the order of service was recommended, and spathy in church congregations was denounced in vigorous language.

The public attitude of the Church towards others was mentioned last. This is an age of an illogical undenominationalism. Too often our vaunted minimizing of vital differences ends only, as is so easy, in winning the applause of assailants by hollow compliment and questionable eulogy.

This paper provoked a lively discussion, which was participated in by Mr. L. H. Davies, M. P., Hon. T. H. Haviland, Charles Palmer, Esq., Hon. F. Brecken, Rev. James Simpson, and Rev. Wm. Hamlyn. After a few appropriate closing remarks by the Rev. Mr. Lowe, the meeting closed with the Benediction.

The Church in the States. Sir,—At the meeting of the Diocesan Church Society held Wednesday night Mr. Charles Palmer stated that the total number of Episcopalians in the United States of America in the year 1886 was 441,000.

The accuracy of Mr. Palmer's figures was questioned by a number of gentlemen who followed him. Upon examining the statistics I find Mr. Palmer is entirely astray. He has mistaken communicants for members.

The last December number of the Living Church Quarterly gives the number of communicants alone in the Episcopal Church in the United States at 531,368.

Valentines.—Get your choice from the varied stock at the Diamond Bookstore. POLICE COURT.—This morning four young men for being drunk and disorderly were disposed of for fines ranging from $3 or 14 days to $50 or 30 days.

WANTS DAMAGES.—Two suits for $20,000 each have been entered against the Maine Central Railroad by two young men who were hurt last November in an accident on that road.

Rev. Thomas Lloyd reports many outward manifestations of interest in the work of the Church and deepening of spiritual life. He expresses his thanks to the Lieutenant Governor for the gift of a valuable chandelier for St. Mark's Church, Kensington.

Rev. Henry Harper reports that improvements continue to be made in the church year by year. At 11 the interest in Church work is growing stronger. But the church at Bedford is dilapidated and there is a prospect that before another year rolls around a suitable church will be erected.

Meeting of the Clerical Association of P. E. Island. The nineteenth meeting took place in St. Paul's Parish on Wednesday, Feb. 3. The day began with Holy Communion in St. Paul's Church at 8 a. m., at which the Revs. Messrs. Hamlyn and Daniel officiated.

At 11 a. m. the business session was held in the rectory. Members present, Rev. A. W. Daniel, of Crapaud; Rev. W. Hamlyn, of St. Paul's; Rev. Jas. Simpson, of St. Peter's; Rev. Thos. Lloyd, of Kensington; Rev. F. E. J. Lloyd, of Georgetown and Charlottetown; Rev. C. F. Lowe, of Summerside. Revs. J. Forbes, H. Harper, E. B. Roagh and T. H. Hunt were absent from various causes.

After usual office, and minutes read and approved, a conversation ensued on mission work in Charlottetown. Mr. Lloyd had not continued his negotiations with the Rector of St. Paul's.

After several other matters of importance to the clergy had been freely discussed, the election of officers for the ensuing year was proceeded with.

Rev. J. Forbes, of Alberton, was elected President and Rev. C. F. Lowe, of Summerside, re-elected Secretary. Rev. Thomas Lloyd enquired about the advisability of holding the annual D. C. S. meetings in other places besides the city, but it was deemed inadvisable by the brethren present.

Rev. Fred. E. J. Lloyd then spoke of the Church in the eastern part of the Island, and the best ways of grappling with difficulties were discussed by him.

Rev. C. F. Lowe then proposed, seconded by Rev. J. Simpson—"That we, as members of the Clerical Association, do hereby tender our sympathy in the loss of our retiring president, who has sustained in the death of his universally respected father, Mr. Daniel, of St. John, and we ask our president to accept this cordial sympathy from us, his kindly brethren, at this meeting of the Association."

Mr. Daniel in reply said that the death was not unexpected, and that he highly appreciated the fraternal love of the brethren. It was then decided to hold the next meeting in Port Hill, during the 2nd week in June, and the Secretary was asked to draw up a list of subjects, from which the several clergy could choose to speak upon at the different meetings.

The meeting was then adjourned till the afternoon. The clergy dined with Rev. Fred E. J. Lloyd at his residence, at which Mr. F. Brecken was present. Everything was exceedingly pleasant, and the thanks of the brethren are due to the hospitable host, Mrs. Lloyd and Miss Green. At 4 p. m. a social and afternoon tea was held in St. Paul's Rectory, where a delightful time was spent by all who had the good fortune to be present.

Afterwards some of the clergy dined with Mr. & Mrs. L. H. Davies, at their residence on West Street. A largely attended public meeting was held in St. Paul's schoolroom, a report of which will be found elsewhere.

Thanks for the Firemen. Sir,—I wish to take this opportunity of thanking the firemen for their promptness and speedy work in putting out the fire that some malicious person started in my outbuilding on Sunday last, a little before nine, after night.

With respect, yours truly CHARLES HEARTZ, PAROCHIAL.
