

JUBILEE IN THE CHURCHES

Large Congregations and Appropriate Services.

Military and Societies Attend—Special Music by the Choirs.

Yesterday special services were held in all the churches in honor of the Queen's Jubilee.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

The service in St. Paul's were attended by large congregations. The two city companies of Artillery and the Engineer corps with the Artillery Band, and a detachment of blue-jackets from the Rambler, attended in the morning. The form of service used was that prescribed for the Church of England, and was as follows:—

I exhort that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men; for Kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty; for this is good and acceptable unto our Saviour.—1 Tim. ii. 1, 2, 3.

Proper Psalms, xx., cii., cxvi. The First Lesson—Joshua i. 10, v. 10, or Proverbs viii. to v. 17.

The Second—Rom. xiii. to v. 11, or Rev. xxi. 22 to xxii. 4.

The suffrages next after the Creed shall stand thus:

Priest—O Lord, show Thy mercy upon us. Answer—And grant us Thy salvation.

Priest—O Lord save the Queen. Answer—Who putteth her trust in Thee.

Priest—Send us help from Thy Holy place. Answer—And evermore mightily defend her.

Priest—Let her enemies have no advantage over her. Answer—Let not the wicked approach to hurt her.

Priest—Endue Thy Ministers with righteousness. Answer—And make Thy chosen people joyful.

Priest—O Lord save Thy people. Answer—And bless Thine inheritance.

Priest—Give peace, in our time, O Lord. Answer—Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only Thou, O Lord.

Priest—Be unto us, O Lord, a strong tower. Answer—From the face of our enemies.

Priest—O Lord, hear our prayer. Answer—And let our cry come unto Thee.

After the first Collect, at Morning or Evening Prayer, shall be used the following collect:

O God, which providest for Thy people by Thy power, and rulest over them in love, grant unto Thy servant, our Queen the spirit of wisdom and Government, that, being devoted unto Thee with all her heart, she may so wisely govern this kingdom that in her time the Church may be in safety, and Christian devotion may continue in peace; that so, persevering in good works unto the end, she may by Thy guidance come to Thine everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ Thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Ghost ever one God, world without end. Amen.

If the Litany be sung or said, these prayers shall follow immediately after the prayer, "We humbly beseech Thee"; and if the Litany be not sung or said, then these prayers shall be said instead of the Prayers for the Queen and for the Royal Family at Matins or Evensong.

O Lord our God, who upholdest and governest all things by the word of Thy power, receive our humble prayers for our Sovereign Lady Victoria [as on this day] set over us by Thy grace and providence to be our Queen; and, together with her, bless, we beseech Thee, Albert Edward Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family, that they all, ever trusting in Thy goodness, protected by Thy power, and crowned with Thy gracious and endless favor, may continue before Thee in health, peace, joy and honor, and may live long and happy lives upon earth, and after death obtain everlasting life and glory by the merits and mediation of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who with Thee and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth one God, world without end. Amen.

Almighty God, who rulest over all the kingdoms of the world, and disposest of them according to Thy good pleasure; we yield Thee unfeigned thanks, for that Thou wast pleased [as on this day] to place Thy Servant our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, upon the throne of this Realm. Let Thy wisdom be her guide, and let Thine arm strengthen her; let justice, truth, and holiness, let peace and love, flourish in her days. Direct all her counsels and endeavors to Thy glory, and the glory, and the welfare of her people; and give us grace to obey her cheerfully for conscience sake. Let her always possess the hearts of her people; let her Reign be long and prosperous, and crown her with immortality in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

A PRAYER FOR UNITY

O God The Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace; Give us grace seriously to lay at heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from unity and Concord; that, as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one Hope of our Calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God, and Father of us all, so we may henceforth be all of one heart, and of one soul, united in one Holy Bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify Thee through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

In the Communion Service, instead of the Collect for the Queen, the Collect, "O God which providest," shall be said after the collect for the day.

The Epistle will be 1 St. Peter ii. 11 to 17, and the Gospel St. Matthew xxii. 16 to 22.

Thanksgiving to be said immediately after the General Thanksgiving.

Oh, Lord, our heavenly Father, we give Thee hearty thanks for the many blessings which Thou hast bestowed upon us during the sixty years of the reign of our Gracious Queen Victoria. We thank Thee for progress made in knowledge of Thy marvellous works, for increase of comfort given to human life, for kindlier feeling between rich and poor, for the wonderful preaching of the Gospel to many nations, and we pray Thee that these and all Thy gifts may be long-continued to us and to our Queen, to the glory of Thy Holy name, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Rev. Mr. Reagh preached an able and patriotic discourse from the text "By Me Kings reign and princes decree justice." Special prayers were offered for the Queen. After returning to the Drill Shed the military with uncovered heads sang God Save the Queen.

ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.

All the services and sermons at St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday had special reference to the Queen's anniversary. Rev. James Simpson, M. A., preached an exceptionally able sermon in the forenoon. He eloquently reviewed the chief events of the life and reign of our beloved Queen, marking particularly the improvement in religion and the wonderful extension of the work and influence of the Church of England. His text was from Psalm xx. 6, 7. "Now I know that the Lord saveth His anointed; He will hear him from His holy heaven with the saving strength of His right hand. Some trust in chariots and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the Lord our God."

In the evening the Rev. T. H. Hunt, M. A., B. D., contributed a thoughtful and timely commentary upon the Queen's career, taking for his text, 2 Samuel xxiii. 3, 4. "The God of Israel said, The Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God. And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds, as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain."

The music at each of the choral services was appropriate to the occasion. That which was used in the rendition of the Benedictus and Agnus Dei, composed by Mr. L. W. Watson, is admirable from the musical point of view, and was particularly well rendered yesterday. The National Anthem, with the appropriate stanza supplied by the Bishop of Peterborough, was sung at the close of the Communion service in the morning and during the course of the evening service. The singing of the National Anthem and some of the hymns was distinctly supported and strengthened by a cornet in the skillful hands of Mr. E. A. Earle,—in addition to the fine organ, over which Mr. Watson so ably and worthily presides.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

Large congregations were the rule at all services. In the forenoon Rev. Mr. Campbell treated the Sunday School children to an interesting and instructive address, and the children assisted in singing from printed sheets. In the afternoon Rev. Mr. Kirby conducted the services, and Rev. Mr. Campbell preached the sermon. Every seat both in the body of the church and in the galleries was occupied. Rev. Mr. Campbell's address was a masterpiece of word-painting, and was listened to with the closest attention throughout, and at the close the church rang with the well known words of that grand old anthem, "God Save the Queen." The service was attended by the different societies, and the Mayor and City Councillors. A number of sailors from the Rambler were also present. The music by the choir under Mr. Earle was excellent throughout. In the evening Rev. Mr. Sutherland preached an eloquent and patriotic discourse to a large audience.

GRACE CHURCH.

The services in this church were of a very interesting character. The pastor preached in the morning from the words in Exodus viii. 1-19—"This is the finger of God," dealing with Divine Providence in the life of Her Majesty and the development of the Empire. The Finger of God in history and in the opening up of the world to the Gospel and the important place the English nation has had in this consummation. The condition of P. E. Island sixty years ago was referred to and it was shown that only four years before the coronation when the population was only 33,293 the Island imported for their own use 34,000 gallons of rum, 22,500 gallons of brandy, 3,000 gallons of Geneva and 2,000 gallons of wine. There was only one Protestant minister here before 1805, when Dr Kier came to represent the General Assembly. No Methodist came to stay till 1807, and then for many years only fifty members were reported. Sixty-five years ago the 26th of this month Francis Metherall landed at Bedouque and began that great work in the Bible Christian Church, the fruit of which remains until this day. Now what changes! Wherever you look and in whatever department of progress, we mark the stamp of the beneficent and peaceful reign of Her Majesty. The two great doctrines which have been developed beyond others are those of the Fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man, seen in the caution shown in the time of trouble between nations and in other matters. The finger of God is seen, doubtless, in this Jubilee celebration, and the great honor shown to Canada's Premier is for the colony's sake rather than his, and the end of this special notice is hard to divine. Much benefit everywhere may even to our beloved Dominion. Let us watch the pointing of the Divine finger and we shall see its tendency is towards victory and eternal glory. The choir rendered some choice music, and the whole service was very much appreciated by all. There was no Sabbath school service, but the children gathered at night with the congregation and the pastor addressed them from Prov. xxxi. 29 Many daughters have done virtuously but thou excellest them all." There was applied to her majesty as it referred to her (1) girlhood (2) Married life (3) Widowhood. The numerous illustrations used showed the Queen to have been exemplary in each period of her long and happy life. The children will long remember this service, and the other members of the congregation will often recall the references made to the gentleness, love of home, and the sympathy of the Queen. The choir again rendered some choice selections which were highly appreciated.

ST. JAMES' CHURCH.

Rev. Mr. Fullerton preached to large congregations at both services. His text in the morning was from John 16:13; and in the evening it was from the 78th psalm, 7th and 8th verses. Both sermons had a special bearing upon the jubilee celebration, and the preacher paid an able and eloquent tribute to the British nation and Her Majesty the Queen. At the evening service the choir, under the direction of Mr. Bell, rendered a choice programme, which included Parry's Grand Te Deum, and closed with the National Anthem. For the closing voluntary Mr. Bell played Watson's Queen's Jubilee march in fine style.

ZION CHURCH.

All the services in Zion Church were well attended. In the morning an eloquent and patriotic sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Sutherland. The Rev. gentleman spoke of the development of the British Empire during the Victorian era, and said its present vast proportions were evidences of Divine favor. If Britain forgot her God she would fall as other nations had fallen. Victoria was a righteous ruler, who began her reign with prayer and solemn recognition of the King of Kings. Loyal subjects, desirous of seeing the British nation preserve her proud position, were assured that such result could only be obtained by recognition of God's government and obedience to His laws. At the close of the service the National Anthem was sung. In the afternoon Rev. G. M. Campbell addressed the Sunday school, and Mrs. J. M. McLeod sang "Consider the Lilies" very effectively. At the evening service Rev. G. M. Campbell addressed the congregation with special reference to the Jubilee. His discourse is highly spoken of.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The services yesterday were attended by large congregations. In the morning at the opening strains of the National Anthem, the congregation rose to their feet and remained standing throughout its rendition. Then after the usual opening ceremonies and some choice music by the choir, Rev. Mr. Corey began his discourse, which was a very able one. He dwelt upon the progress made in science, art, literature, etc., during the reign of Victoria the Good, and showed to what extent Christian principles, forces and institutions have advanced. Temperance, religious liberty, and all that goes towards the betterment of our race he showed had made remarkable strides. The service was concluded by singing the Diamond Jubilee Hymn composed by Rev. H. F. Adams, of the Prince Street Methodist Church, Toronto, N.S.

ST. DUNSTAN'S CATHEDRAL.

The various services yesterday were well attended, and the choir under Mr. Blanchard's direction rendered choice music. At the half-past ten o'clock Mass His Lordship Bishop Macdonald referred to the Queen's Diamond Jubilee celebration, and spoke in glowing language of the goodness and worth of Her Majesty and the growth of the British Empire under her benedict rule. He also referred to the freedom which the church enjoys under Queen Victoria as compared with her freedom in many of the so-called Catholic countries. The choir rendered Haydn's 1st Mass at this service. Mr. Macey, the clever baritone of the Josie Mills Company singing the "Veni Creator." Mr. Macey also assisted at the evening service, singing "The Holy City." Miss Delisle, of Quebec, also assisted the choir, and sang Millard's "Ave Verum." The solo in the "Laudate Dominum" was taken by Mrs. Byrne, and the solos in Emmerig's Grand Magnificat by Prof. Caven and Mr. Hermans. Paster's Te Deum, (plain chant) closed the musical portion of the service, after which the National Anthem was sung, the congregation standing throughout its rendition. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was imparted by His Lordship Bishop Macdonald.

SOURIS.

Rev. T. F. West, B. A., conducted the services yesterday in St. Alban's Anglican Church. The altar was appropriately decorated. The special jubilee service was held in the evening, and a large congregation was present. Besides, others the Bishop of Wakefield's jubilee hymn and the National Anthem was well rendered. The preacher took for his text: Romans 13, 1, "Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers, for there is no power but of God; the powers were ordained of God," and preached an able and eloquent sermon.

WEDDING THIS MORNING.

Mr. William M. Flynn, the popular station agent at Cardigan, and Miss Catherine Lewis, daughter of William P. Lewis, Esq., sub-collector of Customs at the same place, were married this morning at five o'clock in the pretty little chapel of the Convent De Notre Dame. The chapel was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the ceremony was witnessed by a number of relatives of the contracting parties. The nuptial mass was celebrated by Father Johnston, who also performed the marriage ceremony. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Joseph Flynn and the Maid of Honor was Miss Janie Lewis, of Georgetown, niece of the bride.

The bride wore a travelling suit of Sage green, with hat to match. The bridesmaid was gowned in white. The bride and groom carried elegant bouquets. The bride was conducted to the altar by Mr. T. E. Flynn, father of the groom. The singing at the mass was by Miss Delisle, of Quebec, who is here on a visit, and the wedding March was exquisitely played by one of the ladies of the Convent. After the ceremony the bridal party with several guests partook of a sumptuous breakfast at the Convent. After breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Flynn, amidst showers of rice and good wishes left on a wedding trip to the United States via Halifax. They will remain in Halifax for the jubilee celebration. The large number of wedding presents include a beautiful silver cake basket and an address to the groom from the station agents and telegraph operators. Mr. Flynn made a fitting reply to the address.

The EXAMINER joins with the hosts of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Flynn in wishing them every happiness in life.
