

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN AND IRLAND.

LONDON, Dec. 13.

It is reported in Irish legal circles that the law officers of the crown have been considering the advisability of indicting T. P. O'Connor and Mr. Healy for conspiracy, on their arrival in England. The part they took in the proceedings of the Land League Convention at Chicago is relied upon as sufficient to ensure their conviction.

A meeting at the Mansion House, to organize a committee of land owners and city magistrates in support of the Irish Property Defence Association, was held to-day. It is understood that a resolution was carried appointing a committee to obtain subscriptions on behalf of those who are boycotted, or who are unable to gather their crops.

DUBLIN, Dec. 13.

It is understood that a movement is being organized to hold a meeting of landlords to express indignation at the working of the Land Act and to demand compensation.

GALWAY, Dec. 11.

Fishermen arriving from the North Island of Arran report that a shock of earthquake was felt yesterday. Thousands of fish were thrown upon the beach along the coast.

LONDON, Dec. 13.

The Queen contributes £200 to the fund for the relief of distressed Irish ladies.

Mr. Martland, one of the proprietors of the Liverpool Mercury, and President of the Press Association, is dead.

At a meeting to-day a motion by the Prince of Wales, that the genius and public services of the late Dean Stanley entitled him to a national memorial, was unanimously adopted. A recumbent effigy, to be placed near the grave of the late Dean's wife, was decided upon. A committee, headed by the Prince of Wales, will receive subscriptions.

The Marquis of Lorne, before sailing for Canada, will escort the Princess Louise to the South of France, where she will remain some time for the benefit of her health.

LONDON, Dec. 13.

The Times' Dublin special says the conspiracy against the payment of rent is more extensive than ever and more truculent in tone.

There is reason to believe the Land League branches, though nominally suppressed, are in full working order.

At a large meeting last evening of the Royal Geographical Society, presided over by Sir Henry Rawlinson, it was urged that England should reciprocate the active aid given by Americans in the search for Sir John Franklin by an effort to ascertain the fate of the Jeannette, and that their society defray a portion of the expense.

The absence of news from the balloon in which Walter Powell was carried to sea on Saturday causes a sensation. Powell had a project on hand to cross the Atlantic in the balloon.

EUROPEAN.

LONDON, Dec. 13.

The Times' Berlin despatch says the Augsburg Allgemeine Zeitung announces that Germany is about to negotiate with England concerning the ceding of Heligoland to Germany. It is reported from Wiesbaden that the German Ambassador at London believed that England will offer no insurmountable resistance to the cession of the Island.

VIENNA, Dec. 12.

An immense concourse of people was present this morning at St. Stephen's Cathedral, where a solemn requiem mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of the victims. Bishop Anzger officiated. The Court Opera choir assisted and their voices occasionally were almost drowned by the agonizing sobs of the mourners. The large square in front of the Cathedral and adjoining streets was filled by many thousands of people.

After the requiem at St. Stephen's Cathedral, the funeral ceremonies began at the cemetery. The catafalque was illuminated by several hundred candles. There were seventy metal coffins, those containing unidentified remains being numbered, while others bore the names of the occupants. All around were numerous plants and wreaths, provided by mourners and various Viennese corporations. Many mourners were present. The funeral procession included all the members of the Common Council, many members of the Reichsrath, representatives of the various theatres and members of the aristocracy. After the services the Burgo-master delivered an address. The coffins were then lowered into a common grave.

It is probable that the real number of victims will never be known. It is suspected that in some cases names have been falsely entered in the lists of missing by persons wishing to obtain cards of admission to view the bodies at the hospitals, and in some instances a positive trade has been done in such cards. The work of lowering the coffins into the grave lasted from noon until nightfall. The number missing now is reduced to 805.

UNITED STATES.

WASHINGTON, Dec.

Additional correspondence between the State Department and South American Ministers is published. Under the date Nov. 22nd, Secretary Blaine writes to Minister Hurlburt, at Lima, that a construction has been put upon his language and conduct indicating the policy of active intervention on the part of this Government beyond the scope of his instructions, and that this interpretation of his action must be considered as the result of some strange and perhaps prejudiced misconception. Secretary Blaine considers that Admiral Lynch, as commander of the Chilean army, had no right to ask or receive informal assurances as to the opinion of the United States Government from Hurlburt, but that any information necessary for him to know should come from the Chilean Government through the Minister regularly accredited to Chili. He adds: "For while the United States unquestionably regard with disfavor the imperious annexation of the Peruvian territory as a right of conquest, you were distinctly informed this Government could not refuse to recognize that such annexation might become a necessary condition in a final treaty of peace. You had no responsibility in the matter and it was injudicious to assume that the Calderon Government had already been recognized; but we did not make and never intended to make the special result of the peace negotiations the basis of our recognition of the Calderon Government."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.

Among the bills introduced into the Senate yesterday and referred, was the bill re-establishing the court of commissioners of the Alabama claims.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.

J. H. Welles was indicted by the Grand Jury for sending threatening letters to Jay Gould.

1882. THE EXAMINER. 1882.

Now is the time to Renew Subscriptions and Subscribe.

ONE of the most prominent questions to be agitated is that of improved communication with the Mainland during winter and summer. THE EXAMINER will, in 1882 as in 1881, be actively employed in the discussion of this question. At the suggestion of the Hon. S. Prowse—who seems to have a high opinion of the influence of THE EXAMINER—and who has taken a leading part in the measures which have been adopted by the Local Legislature and Government—we shall keep before the public eye the following extract from the

TERMS OF UNION.

SECTION 7.—That the Dominion Government shall assume and defray all the charges for the following services, viz:

SUB-SECTION J.—Efficient steam service for the conveyance of mails and passengers to be established and maintained between the Island and the mainland of the Dominion, winter and summer, thus placing the Island in continuous communication with the Intercolonial Railway, and the Railway system of the Dominion.

As heretofore, THE EXAMINER will, in 1882, advocate the introduction of improvements calculated to advance the interests of Prince Edward Island, in particular, and the great Dominion of which we form a part, in general.

THE EXAMINER is in favor of cutting down the Local Legislature, consolidating the Local Civil Service on a sound business basis, maintaining a system of rigid economy in the administration of local affairs, and applying the money thus saved to the advancement of the Agricultural and Industrial interests of the Province.

THE EXAMINER's policy shall be, as it has been, first National and then Political; first for the Island, next for Canada, and then for the Party by which both are governed.

Articles on Practical Agriculture will form a prominent feature of THE EXAMINER during 1882; and our columns will, as heretofore, be well filled with news and interesting miscellany.

Now, therefore, is the time to subscribe.

1882. HARPER'S MAGAZINE. ILLUSTRATED.

"Always varied, always good, always improving."—CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, JR.
Harper's Magazine, the most popular illustrated periodical in the world, begins its sixty-fourth volume with the December Number. It represents what is best in American literature and art; and its marked success in England—where it has already a circulation larger than that of any English magazine—the same class has brought into its service the most eminent writers and artists of Great Britain. The forthcoming volumes for 1882 will in every respect surpass their predecessors.
