DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Fredericton track race committee are planning for the biggest event of the racing season at that track on the night of August 9th. It will be featured by the Walter Dale Memorial Race, in memory of his outstanding performance when on the afternoon of September 15, 1937, he set up a track record of 2:02½ which was also a Canadian pacing record. He was owned by Sullivan and Mawhinney, Machias, Maine, and was driven by Henry Clukey. It has stood the test of time as a Maritime record and the chances of its ever being bettered are slim.

The starters in that race and the way they finished were: Walter Dale (Clukey) 1-1-1, Signal Senator (Sweeney) 2-3-2, Marjorie M. (Jabalee) 3-2-3, Peter Magnus 4-4-4 Time 2:07½, 2:02¼, 2:06¼. The 2:25 class that day was won by Millie Kalmuck, owned and driven by Willard Kelly, in striaght heats, Star Dillon (Killam) 3-2-2, Peter McKinney 2-4-4, Tara Hanover 4-3-3. Time 2:12½, 2:12¾ 2:13 ½ Tara Hanover is the dam of the very promising trotter Lorne Budlong 2:16 3-5.

HAMILTONIAN

The Hambletonian, richest harness trotting stake, is the main topic of conversation among horsemen at the larger tracks in the United States. The stake will be worth upwards of $100,000 and is for 3-year-old trotters and will be raced at Goshen Good Time mile track Wednesday afternoon August 8th. Up to a week ago Saboteur, champion money winning 2-year-old trotter of last year, and Maine owned Egyptian Princess, who set up a 3-year-old world's record over a half mile track this season, were the favorites; but now a new one has shown up in Ego Hanover. Unlike the others, he made his first start on June 19 and will only have four races prior to the big event. His top performance was a mile recently in 2:02 2-5 — the season's record for 3-year-old trotters.

The first reinsman to take a two-minute ride this season was Harry Pownall, trainer of Arden Homestead Stable, Goshen, N. Y. A week ago at Vernon Downs he drove the 4-year-old Trump Hanover in 2:00 flat .. .. ..Adios Express has cut the 2-year-old pacing mark for the season down to 2:02 2-5 in winning the $11,000 Billy Direct Stake. Smart horsemen are predicting a 2:00 tab or better for Adios Express at Lexington this fall. Joe O'Brien has done wonders with this youngster. ..

NEW RECORD

At Truro Raceway Tuesday night in races 1 and 4 Silver Dawn Honor (Harrison) was 1-1, Lady Abner (Johnston) 2-2. Time, 2:16 3-5 —

In the final match Willett and MacAleer ran away to a 4-0 lead only to have MacMillan and Cullen win five straight games to go ahead 5-4. The champs rallied to win three in a row to take the title.

The winners advanced to the final round by defeating Mark MacGuigan and Joan Weir 6-2, 6-3 in an earlier match.

Moore-Patterson Title Bout Is Postponed Until October

NEW YORK (AP)—The heavyweight title fight between Archie Moore and Floyd Patterson will be delayed at least until October, it was decided Friday after a panel of doctors examined fresh x-rays of Patterson's healing right hand.

Seven physicians expressed unanimous agreement that Patterson "was not in the position as of today" to go through with a Sept. 25 bout with Moore, the light-heavyweight king and No. 1 heavyweight.

The decision was announced by Julius Helfand, chairman of the state athletic commission. Helfand said the doctors were optimistic, however, that the 21-year-old Brooklyn boxer would be able to fight in October. Another examination will be made in four weeks.

Patterson broke the fourth metacarpal (bone behind the knuckle) of his right hand while defeating Hurricane Jackson in a heavyweight elimination bout June 8. The injured hand was placed in a cast until July 12. When the cast was removed Patterson and manager Gus D'Amato were confident that the big outdoor promotion could be held Sept. 18 or 25.

Cornish Favorite For Singles Tonight

HALIFAX (CP) Lanky Jim Cornish from Palo Alto, Calif., became the heavy favorite to win the Nova Scotia senior singles title when he defeated top-seeded David Piers of Truro in straight sets Friday.

Cornish, who took full advantage of his six-foot height, drove Piers into the back court, winning 6-2, 6-3, 9-7. Piers, who stands out with his net play, fell back before the booming chalk-biting slams of Cornish.

Meeting Cornish in the finals today will be Kenny Reardon of Halifax. Reardon reached the final with a win over Bob Fraser of Halifax, but not before Fraser forced him to four sets. Reardon took the first sets, 6-2, 6-3, only to have Fraser rebound with a 6-4 win on the third.

Reardon edged Fraser 7-5 on the final set.

In the ladies singles final, it will be Anne Stacey and Vida Large, both of Halifax. The two met last year with Miss Stacey winning.

Mrs. Pat Nowland of Wolfville, N.S., forced Miss Stacey to two sets in the semi-finals, before bowing 10-8, 2-6, 8-6.

Mrs. Gordon Hughes of Windsor, N.S., provided only token resistance to Miss Large, going down 6-2, 6-2.

David Piers and Reardon, top seeded in the doubles, reached the final with straight set 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 wins over Pat Nowland and Cornish.

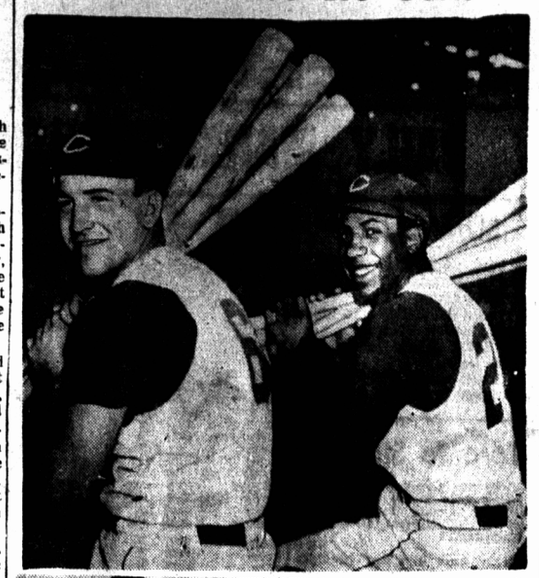
CINCINNATI'S BIG GUNS



Three reasons why the Cincinnati Redlegs have confounded National league prophets by remaining hotly in contention in the senior circuit's pennant race are shown here ready for action. Catcher Ed Bailey (top left) has been hitting around .336 and socking home runs regularly. Frank Robinson, seen with Ed., is the rookie sensation of the loop, hitting over the .300 mark and outslugging even Bailey in the homer department. Pitcher Brooks Lawrence (above) one of the winningest pitchers in the big league this season, appears headed for 20 or more victories.

MacLeod Winner As Liverpool Wallops Truro; Halifax Wins

TRURO (CP) Liverpool Larrupers scored eight runs in the eighth inning to overcome a Truro Bearcat lead and win 12-8 in the Halifax and District Baseball League Friday.

Jack Powers was the big gun in the eighth for Liverpool. He started things off with a homer and then in his second time at bat in the inning singled and drove in two more.

Don MacLeod, the second of four Liverpool pitchers, was the winner.

HALIFAX (CP—Halifax Citadels edged Stellarton Albions 8-7 when a Stellarton raly fel just short in the ninth inning of a Halifax and District League baseball game Friday.

Jim Farino pitched eight - hit ball, but his mates kept him in hot water with seven errors. Rudy Wiliams, the starter and loser for Stellarton, tried to help along his own cause with a homer in the sixth.

In the ninth, with Halifax leading 8-5, Albions threatened and with one on Bill Barnett homered, but they were unable to push across the tieing run.

KENTVILLE (CP — Dartmouth Arrows outhit Kentville Wildcats for an 11-9 win to retain their first place standing in the Halifax and District Baseball League Friday.

Jerry Boxer took the win, aided by Jim Raugh. Mike Dattero was charged with the loss.

Theora's Ensign Wins And Places

TRURO (CP) — Theora's Ensign, owned by A. D. Napke of Newcastle, N.B., placed two-one at the Truro Harness Raceway Friday.

The New Brunswick horse lost out to the Truro-owned Silver Lining in the second race, but came back strong, edging his rival in the sixth.

Watchim's Lassie, owned by G. E. Saunders of Lexington, Mass. won the eighth. All other winners were locally owned.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Lefty Curt Simmons took another big step along the comeback trail Friday night as he set down the pennant conscious Cincinnati Redlegs for a 6-3 triumph by the Philadelphia Phillies.

Simmons offered more solid proof that he has recovered from his sore arm troubles as he captured his fifth straight victory and sixth of his last seven starts.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Dick Groat's clutch single in the ninth inning drove in two runs as Pittsburgh Pirates defeated the league-leading Milwaukee Braves 4-3 Friday night. The victory ended an eight - game Pittsburgh losing streak and continued a four-game Milwaukee losing skein.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Boston Red Sox, opening a four - game series with a fierce bid to take over the second - place spot of Cleveland Indians, pounded four Tribe pitchers for nine hits Friday night and claimed a 7-1 victory.

HUNTERS' CORNER

Late Hay Season Is Break For Huns At Breeding Time

August is with us once more with its cool, penetrating winds and wild night cloud skud that turns the waterfowlers thoughts to spidery skeins of ducks on an evening skyline and the whisper of winds in the dawning. Brpods of black ducks are already trying their wings and essaying short evening flights. I stood on a dam embankment one evening this week and watched 5 black ducks, birds of the year, coming in at spruce top level. They were cutting some pretty erratic didoes as they dodged the slender spires clear cut against a night sky. They spotted me as they cleared the trees and it was amusing to see panic break in their ranks. They forget how to apply the breaks in the pinch and zipped by so close a long fishing pole could almost have touched them. . .all same car drivers taking their first lesson.

Our Huns got a break this hay mower losses and they need-breeding season with regard to ed it. Haying is at least two weeks behind schedule this season. Ordinarily hay making is in full swing around July 12th when the Hun hatch is at its peak. The first week of August sees haying still going strong. The odd report of Hun nests destroyed by mowers is received but the loss from this source is cut to a minimum this season. The Hun covey's took quite a beating last winter and the mowing break will result in many extra covey's awing this October.

Pleasurable surprise has been expressed at the number of Hun covey's already showing up that hold from 18 to 22 birds. If the weather is favourable during August and the first week of September the crop in October should be on a par with last season. There is a tricky perios in the life of a when the birds are too big for the mother to shelter the lot and yet are not feathered fully enough to shed a sudden downpour of cold rain that sometimes occur in late August. Young Huns under such circumstances, if caught in the open, stiffen up like domestic chickens and unless the sun comes out strong immediately after the shower those birds have had it. In the case of chickens the farmer's wife, if she spots the trouble in time, simply gathers the inert birds up in her apron or basket and a few minutes in a warm oven snaps them out of their coma with no apparent ill effects. Sometimes the mother Hun gets pretty panicky when she sees her babies lying on the ground and in trying to save all losses all. All we can do is to keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best.

The 21 Hun eggs I took to Tryon and handed over to Mrs. Roberts were placed in an incubator and hatched out 15. Before the right food formula was worked out some losses occurred. The last report indicated that either 5 or 7 had survived and were doing well. The Hun nest of 22 eggs in a Cemetery at Georgetown was not dug out and destroyed as I reported in an earlier Column...I got it confused with a black and her nest in the Brudenell area. The mother duck was killed on the nest and the eggs taken and nest dug out. The Hun nest at Georgetown was raided and the mother killed but the eggs were left intact with the exception of one that was dislodged from the nest and broken when the mother was killed.

John White, Kings County Game Iuspector, broke one of the eggs to see how far incubation had progressed and placed the remaining 20 under a Plymouth Rock hen. She hatched out 18. She stepped on 6 but the remaining 12 are brisk as bees. This hen must have been a pretty light sitter or else she'd have flattened the eggs as soon as the chicks had started to work on the shell. A bumper crop of pheasants are in prospect. Covey's of 8 and 9 are numerous. Some are so far advanced the colour is beginning to show on the cock birds. Pheasants are early birds in respect to hatching. Covey's were reported this spring in May. Seldom are Hun covey's reported in June. I have examined Hun nests that had been run over by mowers in the period July 10th and 15th and in most every instance the chicks were in process of breaking when the mower cut into them. There was very little hay cut by July 12th this season, and a big acreage remains uncut at the moment. As I mentioned earlier the sporty little Huns sure needed the break.

Bruce Kirby Takes Lead In Race For Olympic Position

By GORD LOMER

OTTAWA (CP) — Former Ottawan Bruce Kirby, now a Montreal newspaper man, sailed his dinghy into an early lead Friday in the four-way race for the right to represent Canada in this fall's Olympic Games.

Kirby guided his little craft—they're 15 feet, two inches long—to two straight victories over the six-mile course on Desbene Lake, a trifle choppy.

The sailor-reporter covered the course the first time in an hour and 10 minutes. That was one minute and 25 seconds faster than his nearest competitor, Angus Roulstone of the Royal Vancouver Yacht Club.

30 SECOND LEAD

Kirby's time in the second of Friday's three races was one hour, seven minutes and 45 seconds. Just 30 seconds behind him this time was George Whittaker of Toronto's Royal Canadian Yacht Club, Canadian open and international 14 - foot dinghy champion last year, who was third in the first trial.

Don Burwash of Ottawa's Britannia Yacht Club, fourth to finish in the first race, placed third in the second trial that squeezed Roulstone into the tail-end spot.

The competitors set their sails for a third run around the course —two three-mile triangles over the lake, a widening of the Ottawa River on the capital's western outskirts—as soon as the second trial was finished.

The number of races that will be held is expected to be determined by the performance of each competitor in the early races. If one sailor emerges obviously superior within a few trials, the number of races will be trimmed. But the trial might run today, Sunday and possibly Monday if necessary.

Baseball Practice

A full turnout of players is requested for a practice of the city league Flyers at Memorial Field this evening at 5 p.m.

FONTANA, BROWN WIN

Upsets Mark Semi-Finals Of Can. Tennis Ch'ships

VANCOUVER (CP — Noel Brown of Los Angeles whipped defending champion Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke, Que., Friday to send two upset winners into the men's singles finals of the Canadian lawn tennis championships.

The second - seeded Bedard tumbled to his third-ranked opponent 6-4, 1-6, 7-5, 6-1.

The upset followed on the heels of Don Fontana's startling 6-4, 6-4 semi-final victory over No. 1 seed Bob Perry of Los Angeles.

Fourth-ranked Fontana, 24, of Toronto, will meet the 30-year-old Brown today for the championship.

The surprises climaxed a week-long tournament that has been notable for its lack of upsets.

Fontana took the match 6-4, 6-4, 6-4, in the upset of the 57th annual tournament. Seeded fourth, he was considered to be an easy victim for the 3-year-old Perry.

Fontana played some of the best tennis of his career. His cross-court placements hugged the inside of the line and his hard lobs often proved too much for the fast-serving Californian.

RAIN HALTS PLAY

An overcast sky that had threatened to break most of the day finally opened up in a steady shower late in the afternoon and forced a half-hour postponement of the other half of the semi-finals, between defending champion Bob Bedard of Sherbrooke, Que., and Noel Brown of Los Angeles.

When called by rain, both men had taken one set and Bedard was leading the third 5-4 on his service.

Earlier, the only Canadian remaining in the women's singles was eliminated.

MINOR UPSET

Jean Laird of Modesto, Calif., pulled a minor upset to defeat Mrs. Shirley Harit of Montreal 6-0, 3-6, 6-3 in the women's semi-finals. She meets Linda Vail of Oakland, Calif., in the finals today.

Defending champion Bedard second-seeded here behind Perry was still bothered by a strained neck ligament suffered two days earlier. Despite heat treatments and massages in the morning, he complained after a practice round "it's not good."

Miss Laid, a stubby youngster, was seeded third, one down from veteran Mrs. Harit. Her hard serve and powerful returns carried her easily through the first set 6-0. In the second set, her trim Montreal rival pulled off some almost impossible retrieves and tied the match 6-3. Miss Laird again dominated in the deciding set and ran it out 6-3.

CARDS HOT 69

Dick Mayer Takes Lead In All-American Tourney

CHICAGO (AP) — Dick Mayer of St. Petersburg, Fla., travelled through the sogginess and gloamin' for his second straight 69 Friday to take the second-round lead of the All - American golf tournament.

Nearly four hours after Julius Boros had raced a rainstorm through the last hole for a 67 and 36-hole tally of 139, the 33-year-old Mayer duplicated his opening round for a 138 aggregate — six under Tam o'Shanter's regulation.

Gerry Kesselring of Kitchener, Ont., also blazed over the course in two-under-par 69 for a two-round total of 145, seven strokes behind the leader.

BALDING HAS PAR

Toronto's Al Balding, only other Canadian entered, slipped by in par 72 and was tied with Kesselring at 145 for two rounds.

Both he and Kesselring were well inside the 148 maximum required to qualify for the final 36 holes.

Boros, who reaped $106,000 for winning the "world" championship at Tam last year, had the best round of the day as he drew a bead on the $3,420 payoff that awaits the winner in Sunday's finale.

The 36-year-old pro from Mid Pines, N.C., made the halfway point with 139—five under par for Tam's 6,915-yard test—and dared his colleagues to catch him in the race for the $3,420 payoff that awaits the winner in Sunday's finale.

ONLY A WARMUP

Boros won the 1953 world crown and repeated last year to pick up $50,000 cash and then fulfil a contract with promoter George May for 56 exhibitions at $1,000 each. He, as well as the other pros, look upon the All-American as a mere warmup for the "world" which follows next week with the same lucrative lure.

While intermittent rain soaked the course, the 200-pound Boros methodically carved out six one-putt greens and only twice entered the rough.

Peter Thomson of Melbourne, the British Open champion who shared the first-round lead with Antonio Cerda of Buenos Aires with 67, soared to a 35-38—73 for 140.

Also at 140 were Bud Holscher of Apple Valley, Calif., Ted Kroll, runner-up in the recent PGA, and Porky Oliver.

Jack Burke, the Masters and PGA titlist, and Cary Middlecoff, U.S. Open winner, who, along with Oliver shot 68 Friday, were grouped at 141.
