New York 4, Chicago 1; Cleveland Edges Orioles

CHICAGO (AP)—Cleon Jones hammered a two-run homer and Dennis Ribant pitched a five-hitter in leading New York Mets to a 4-1 victory over Chicago Cubs Tuesday.

Ron Swoboda also starred for the Mets, collecting three singles.

New York scored its first two runs in the sixth inning on a single by Jim Hickman, a double by Larry Elliot and Swoboda's third safety.

Jones slammed his seventh home run in the sevneth, also scoring Jerry Grote who had opened the inning with a single.

BALTIMORE (AP)—Sam McDowell pitched a six-hitter and Rocky Colavito walloped his 28th home run as Cleveland edged the American League leading Baltimore Orioles 2-1 Tuesday night.

McDowell, who shut out Chicago in his last start, had the Orioles blanked until Frank Robinson's two-out single produced Baltimore's run in the eighth inning.

The Indians' ace left-hander struck out 10 and won his eighth game in a duel with Jim Palmer.

Brown hesitated as third baseman Brooks Robinson threw out Chuck Hinton, then beat substitute first baseman Curt Blefary's throw to the plate.

NEW YORK (AP) — Dean Chance pitched a three-hitter for his first shutout of the season as California Angels nipped New York Yankees 1-0 Tuesday night.

Paul Schaal, who had three of the Angels' seven hits off loser Fritz Peterson, drove in the game's only run with a fourth-inning single.

Chance gave up a lead-off double to Jake Gibbs in the third inning and was touched for singles by Horace Clarke, in the fifth, and rookie Steve Whitaker, in the eighth, while gaining his ninth victory against 15 defeats. He struck out seven and walked four.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Willie Kirkland's pinch home run in the eighth gave Washington Senators a 4-3 victory over Minnesota Tuesday night and a split of their twi-night doubleheader.

The Twins won the opener 7-0 with Jim Kaat pitching a five-hitter for his 19th victory and Rich Rollins hitting a grand slam homer.

Kirkland batted for reliever Bob Humphrey's leading off the eighth and broke a 3-3 tie with his fifth home run of the year.

The Twins tied the game in the seventh against Humphreys with two singles, a walk and an error. Singles by Harmon Killebrew and Earl Battey produced the runs.

Ken Harrelson drove in one run with a triple and scored another as the Senators grabbed an early lead against Jim Grant.

HOUSTON (AP)—Bob Gibson pitched a three hitter and Dal Masvill drove in two runs and scored the third as St. Louis blanked Houston 3-0 Tuesday night.

The only hits off Gibson were a pair of singles by rookie catcher Bill Heath in the fifth and eighth and a two-out single by Bob Aspromonte in the ninth. The Cards' ace right - hander struck out five and won his 16th game.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bill White drove in four runs with a pair of bases - loaded singles leading Philadelphia Phillies past Pittsburgh Pirates 5-4 Tuesday night behind the seven-hit pitching of Chris Short.

White's two-out single in the seventh inning broke a 3-3 tie and gave the Phillies the victory.

Philadelphia knocked out Pittsburgh starter Vern Law in the first inning before a man was retired, grabbing a 3-0 lead.

Johnny Briggs singled to centre. Cookie Rojas was safe on an error and John Callison singled to right for the first run. Richie Allen's infield single filled the bases and White singled to right for two runs, knocking out Law.

Hennessey Reins Lady In Nights Fastest Mile

By FRED MacDONALD

White Lady owned by the Simmac Syndicate Stable of Summerside and driven by Joe Hennessey and Knight Way owned and driven by Lee Taylor of Nine Mile Creek were the only double dash winners on a ten dash harness racing card held at the Charlottetown Driving Park last night.

White Lady captured wins in races five and ten as both times the White Mountain Boy mare stormed to the front and cut out her own miles; she won the fifth dash in 2.09:4 and came back to win the repeat in 2.09:2 the fastest time of the night.

Knight Way a bay gelding by Knight Way dam Hettie Hoosier won the third dash in 2.12:4—a new lifetime mark—and came right back to grab the repeat in dash eight in the time of 2.13. Chummy D. was second both trips out.

Doctor W.A. and Carroll gave the Charlottetown Driving Park the first dead heat for first this season as respective drivers Don MacNeill and Joe Hennessey headed their pacers to the wire in the same time. Carroll by Carol V. Adios is owned by Art Craig, Victoria, and Doctor W.A., a half-brother to Mary Leah, is owned by L. O'Brien of Alberton.

Chum owned by D.V. MacDonald, Charlottetown, and driven by Clark Smith and Emily Hal owned and driven by Ralph Nac-Fadygen of Hunter River split honors in dashes 2 and 6.

Chum came from the "two-hole" half way down the stretch and nipped O'Brien's Nightmare at the wire in winning the second dash in 2.11:3.

In the repeat in dash six Ralph MacFadygen, who finished in third spot for top driver award Old Home Week without any "catch-drives", caught the field napping as he pulled Emily Hal from the three hole at the half in a modest 1.07, and the little mare came the last half in 1.04:1 in putting together a win in 2.11:1.

Ellen Joyce owned by Charlie Willis and driven by son Orville and Willard's Choice split honors in dashes 4 and 9. Ellen Joyce took the fourth in 2.14:1 but Willard finished with a burst of speed to win the repeat in 2.12:2.

Veterans May Help Cats In Bid For First Spot

MONTREAL (CP) — Hamilton Tiger-Cats will be looking for their fourth win in as many starts this season when they meet Montreal Alouettes in an Eastern Football Conference game here tonight. Judging by the recent play of some of their veterans, Ticats could maintain their unbeaten record.

Quarterback Frank Cosentino, flanker Tommy Grant and end Hal Patterson, three of Hamilton's offensive veterans, were the big guns in the Tiger Cats 23-10 victory over Toronto Argonauts Saturday night.

Cosentino threw three touchdown passes to Grant in the game and fell short of dislodging quarterback Russ Jackson of Ottawa Rough Riders as the passing leader.

Grant zoomed out in front of the scoring race with a total of 30 points on five touchdowns, 18 more than runner-up Peter Kempf of Montreal.

Patterson, 33, who has passed the 10,000-yard mark in yards gained in passing receiving, was a key man in the Hamilton attack by catching several passes to set up Grant's touchdowns. Patterson is in fifth place among pass receivers with eight receptions for 189 yards.

COULD LEAD OTTAWA

A victory for Hamilton here tonight would move them into sole possession of first place, two points ahead of Ottawa, undefeated in three starts this year. Montreal is third with one victory in three games and Toronto is last with no wins in two outings.

The Tiger-Cats will have 10 former Montreal players in their lineup when they go against the Alouettes.

The latest Alouette to join is end Larry Tomlinson.

Tomlinson will replace Larry Molinari, who was cut during the weekend.

The other former Montreal players include Patterson, Billy Wayte, Billy Ray Locklin, Ted Page, Dick Walton, Marty Martinello, Jim Reynolds, Angelo Mosca and Dick Cohee.

Hamilton coach Ralph Sazio's most serious problem is the condition of quarterback Joe Zuger who suffered a cracked rib 10 days ago. He remains a question mark for duty tonight.

The Alouettes are expected to have one and possibly two switches on their defensive line.

George Kinney, a 23-year-old lineman who has two years experience with Houston Oilers of the American Football League, is expected to replace Joe Williams at right defensive end.

There is also a possibility that tackle Bob Minihane will be idled or reduced to limited action because of a pinched nerve in his neck.

Ron Everett, a 22-year-old product of Winnipeg's minor football program, has been working out in Minihane's position. He was claimed on waivers last Thursday when Kaye Vaughan was placed on the injury reserve list.

MARITIME RACING

SUMMERSIDE — After a two week layoff racing returns to the Summerside oval tonight with five well-filled classes slated to face the starter. Doc Price, the sensational 4-year-old of George Sobey, will be tested tonight when he goes against six well-seasoned performers in the feature event. Runway and Glamorous Wick, who seem to go their better rides on the Summerside track, will be in the thick of things, along with Highland Spirit, Echo Ridge Eddy and the stable entry of Sunny Key and Timmy H.

The second of the four double dashes will be a trot with eight starters, Ernie Spencer, Miss Tom Scott, Victory March and Calamity's Boy being the "Morning Line" favorites. But West River Atom, Ryndow Hanover, Sandybee or Harry Wilder could come out a winner and if this happens a triple-figure daily double could well be chalked up on the board — since the second half of the daily double has eight horses so well classified that a winner is impossible to pick with any certainty. Some of the eight starters are not quite up to their early season form, others are "coming on", so all in all it has the makings of quite a race.

In races 4 and 8, once again a young horse that has been showing great promise will be tested by veterans: Adioscot's Dream, trained by George Callbeck and driven by Clark Smith will need his pole position to head Mountain Marie, Just Nancy, Frankie's Chief, Grattan Abe and Mr. Charmer into the first turn and with Name The Price trailing out, a race from wire to wire can be expected.

One single dash rounds out this well-balanced race card and good pays can be expected at the Summerside Raceway tonight. Post time is at 8 p.m.

TRURO (CP) — West River Boy, one of two double winners at Truro Raceway Tuesday, took the top time of the night with his seventh-race win in 2:08 3-5.

He clocked 2:11 2-5 in the third while Lorraine's Watchim had winning times of 2:13 3-5 and 2:13.

Watchim combined with Tyson Rip at 2:11 4-5 for a daily double payoff of $121.00.

Other winners in the eight-dash card were: Northwood Dudley (2:15); Doc Wilson (2:13 2-5) and Sonoma Girl (2:17 1-5).

Winnipeg Wins To Take First Place

WINNIPEG (CP) — Winnipeg Blue Bombers used two Calgary Stampeders infractions to drive for the deciding points as they vaulted into first place in the Western Football Conference with a 19-9 victory before 20,817 fans Tuesday night.

Ken Nielsen contributed two touchdowns to Bombers' fourth triumph in five outtings, which placed them two points ahead of Saskatchewan Roughriders.

The injury-prone Stampeders stayed in fourth place with British Columbia Lions and lost defensive halfback Bill Gaskins.

Gaskins suffered a severed Achilles tendon in the second quarter, the same injury that knocked out Calgary veterans Lovell Coleman and Ted Woods earlier in the season, as Stampeders stumbled to their fourth defeat against a single victory.

Norm Winton kicked two field goals and a convert to complete Bomber scoring. Calgary got a touchdown from Terry Evanshen, on a 36-yard pass-and-run play with Peter Liske, two singles and a convert from Larry Robinson as they frittered away 7-3 and 8-6 margins in the first two quarters.

U.S. 3, Canada 1 In Little League

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Righthander Zach Venegas kept the hitting well spaced and struck out 11 batters Tuesday at Sacramento, Calif—won the opening game of the 1966 little league world series from Windsor, Ont., 3-1.

Venegas was matched in a tight pitching duel with Windsor's Rickey Chase for the first three innings of the six-inning contest. A home run by Sacramento's first baseman, Dean Stotz, broke the scoreless deadlock in the fourth.

Stotz was the batting hero for the Californians, knocking in their third run with a single in the top of the sixth.

It was the sixth inning that proved to be Windsor's downfall, as the Canadians committed two errors.

Leading 1-0 going into the sixth, Sacramento's Danny Masters hit a ground ball to third baseman Eddie Whited and advanced to second when Whited over-threw first.

Venegas singled and Masters scored when leftfielder Tom Lazar let the ball get through him. Stotz single scored Venegas.

Both pitchers went the distance. Venegas did not walk a man, and Chase issued only one free pass.

Lyes Lead In Sailing

PORT CARLING, Ont. (CP) Toronto brothers Eric and Geoffe Lye took over first place Tuesday after two days of competition in the Canadian junior sailing championships on nearby Lake Rosseau.

The Lyes—Eric is the skipper—have won three of the five races sailed so far and lead the 19 other entries with 93¾ points.

Another Toronto crew, skipper John Wright and Colin Rabnett, are second with 88¼ points.

Simon Bruce - Lockhart and Len Gillday of Sudbury, Ont., with 79 points, are third.

Fourth with 75 points are Ron Blakeney and John Ring, who sail for the Armdale Yacht Club of Halifax.

Blakeney got a second and third in the two races sailed Tuesday but had unfortunate luck Monday when he had to miss a race after his boat was in a minor collision during a workout.

A Quebec crew of skipper Charles Stedman and Davison Balfour—from Montreal's Baie d'Urfe Yacht Club are fifth place with 71 points.

The team of Douglas Gould and Chris Harrington of St. John, N.B., scored 47 points while John McIntosh and Kevin Lynch of Sydney, N.S., had 36.

Ontario Retains Its Hold On Canadian Golf Title

By BOB PARKINS

BRANDON (CP) — Ontario won its second consecutive Canadian junior interprovincial golf title Tuesday with a solid team performance that included the medallist in the 36-hole qualifying round for the individual championship.

With Peter Turner's 74 added to his par 70 Monday in the first day of the 36-hole qualifying round, the defending champions came out of the team matches with an aggregate 602, well under British Columbia's 615.

It was Ontario's fourth interprovincial win since the matches were inaugurated in 1959. B.C.'s comeback attempt, following it's third-place finish at 309 Monday, would have tied it with Ontario at three championships each if successful.

The Ontario team opened up Monday with a 297 for an eight-stroke lead on Saskatchewan. Tuesday the Saskatchewan team slipped to 313 and a two-day total of 618 for third spot, just two strokes better than Alberta and three up on Manitoba.

Quebec with 625, Nova Scotia with 628, New Brunswick-Prince Edward Island with 646 and Newfoundland with 728 followed.

PLAYED EVENLY

Consistency was Ontario's trademark Tuesday. After Turner's 37-3774 came Gar Hamilton, Jr., of Toronto, Ken Trowbridge of Brampton and Wayne McDonald—all with 77s.

The recovery by Hamilton, Ontario junior champion gave him 158 after an 81 Monday. Trowbridge had a 149 total and McDonald 151.

Victoria's John Morgan brought his score down for B.C., turning in a 75 to go with Monday's 81. Ross Ellison of Vancouver had 75 for the second day, Tom Moryson of Port Hammond was up one at 76 and Doug Stewart of Vancouver was up two at 80.

Ted Rich of Prince Albert was right on Turner's heels in the fight for medallist honors. He was in at 38-3573 for a 145 that anchored the Saskatchewan team.

Turner, who just missd medallist honors in last year's Canadian championships at Brantford where he was also first-day leader, made it three out of four nine-hole 37s on the 35-35par 70 Brandon Golf and Country Club course.

The other was Monday's 38, best nine-hole score recorded by the field of 121.

Graham MacIntyre of New Glasgow, captain of the Nova Scotia team and defending champion Ian Thomas of London, Ont., came in at 73-75 148Thomas after stroking one-over on three consecutive holes when he was told in mid-afternoon that he was the only player who still had a chance to catch Turner.

The top 64 entered the draw for today's match play round, first of six that culminate in a 36-hole final Saturday.

Sixty-six players came in with 162 or better but Quebec team captain Eric Reid of Dorion withdrew to meet academic commitments at home and Greg Fairburn of Vancouver was eliminated in a four-man playoff among the 162-scorers.

Reid, Quebec champion, had a 78-77 in qualifying play.

The medallist race repeated itself for Rich, who was also in second place behind Turner with two other players Monday.

However both the others Trowbridge at 77 and Manitoba's Jason Paukkunen of Port Arthur, Ont., at 80 found the course tougher on a clear, warm day than they did Monday in rain and wind.

Other first-day stars who had problems Tuesday were Bob Smith of Kamloops, B.C., who had 78 after an opening-day 73, and Dale Talon of Noranda, Que., who added 82 to his first-round 73.

In contrast, Don Billsborough of Victoria recorded the best 80 Monday, and Larry LaFleur of St. Boniface, Man., rebounded from a first-round 87 with sparkling approach shots that helped net a 72.

The New Brunswick - P.E.I. team finished the play in eighth place with a total of 646. Ronnie Garrett of Charlottetown ended with 85-78—163, and Bob Irwin, also of Charlottetown came in with a very good 77-79—156.

Memorial Race Goes Saturday

HALIFAX (CP) — A major Maritime harness racing event —the B.C. Cruikshank Memorial Race—will be staged Saturday at nearby Sackville Downs.

Track race secretary Glen Scargille Tuesday named the first four entries in the $4,000 free-for-all feature.

Andy's Son, Midnight Bold, Jim Fashion and Borderview Roy will be starters in the eight-horse field. The remainder of the field is expected to be named today (Wednesday).

Andy's son is expected to start as a favorite following his wins at Charlottetown in last Friday's Gold Cup and Saucer feature. The five-year-old horse raced to a new lifetime mark of 2:04 1-5.

The special race is held annually in memory of a co-founder of Sackville owns Raceway, Bertram C. Cruikshank. He was a major figure in Canadian harness racing before his death in 1957.
