WHEN a man has no desire but to speak the truth, he can say a great deal in a narrow space.

"HE handled the gun carelessly and now wears an angel's plumage," is the latest obituary in a Kansas paper.

A REGULAR MEETING of Alexandra Chapter of Royal Arch Masons will be held in Masonic Hall, this evening, at 8 o'clock.

A SARATOGA belle who, some six months ago, was so languid that she could hardly support herself at the altar, now throws a flat-iron across the room and hits the mark every time.

REV. MR DOBIE, lately from Port Hill, has purchased a cozy residence in Summerside, into which he moved not long since. We extend to Mr. Dobie, a hearty welcome.—Pioneer.

THE Gloucester fishing schooner Mabel Dellaway, which left that port on a haddocking trip on the 20th ult., has been given up as lost. She had a crew of sixteen Provincialists, among whom was Michael McDonald, of Grand River.

ATTENTION is directed to the advertisement of the Lecture Course in connection with St. James' Church. The lectures will, without doubt, be both eloquent and instructive. We hope they will be well attended.

THE gold hunt at the Roller Rink last evening was witnessed by a large audience, and was very exciting. Six contestants entered—L. Phillips being the lucky one. The band of the 82nd Battalion furnished choice music during the evening.

IN an Out-West breach of promise case, the defendant put in the unheard-of plea that he broke the engagement on account of a lack of conversational power on the part of the young lady. The jury, who were all married men, could not swallow this extraordinary story, and mulcted him in a verdict of a thousand dollars.

A BUXOM widow, who had recently buried her husband, visited his grave in company with a gentleman friend who had previously paid her marked attention. After contemplating the grave in mournful silence, she remarked to her companion: "Ah, James, that's where you might have been had you only had a little more courage."

A MINISTER was questioning his Sunday school concerning the story of Eutychus, the young man who, listening to the preaching of the apostle Paul, fell asleep, and falling down, was taken up dead. "What?" he said, "do we learn from this solemn event?" when the reply came from a little girl, pat and prompt: "Please, sir, ministers should learn not to preach too long sermons."

GEORGE DOCKENDORFF, of North River, met with a serious accident in the boarding house of Philip Foy, North Side Queen Square, yesterday afternoon. While in the act of descending the stairs he slipped and fell headlong to the floor, receiving injuries which left him insensible for about an hour. Dr. Beer was called in and was so successful in alleviating the unfortunate man's sufferings that he was able to return to his home at North River yesterday evening.

THE OUTLOOK FOR HORSE BREEDERS.—The future horse is half or three-quarter French or English draft. Half-blood is enough of the English Shires or Clydes, while it is better to have a quarter more of the French. Those crosses are now the most saleable of any horses, as they are useful and for many purposes not excelled. The smaller ones make most excellent roadsters, especially the French grades and grand farm horses.—New York Tribune.

THE Centenary Celebration of the Halifax Charitable Irish Society on the 18th inst., was a grand success. The orator of the day was Hon. Thomas J. Gargan, of Boston. His address was eloquent, and was listened to with marked attention. In the evening, a grand banquet was held in Mason's Hall at which upwards of two hundred guests were present. Several prominent gentlemen sent letters of regret, among whom were His Lordship Bishop McIntyre, and W. C. DesBrisay, Esq., President of the Benevolent Irish Society.

THE experiment which Messrs. Tuckett & Son entered upon when they commenced to make the "Myrtle Navy" tobacco was this; to give the puplic a tobacco of the very finest Virginia leaf at the smallest possible margin beyond its actual cost, in the hope that it would be so extensively bought as to remunerate them. By the end of three years the demand for it had grown so much as to give assurance that the experiment was within reach. The demand for it to-day is more than ten times greater than it was then, and it is still increasing. Success has been reached.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.
HORACE FAIRBROTHER."
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."
159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRAGDON."
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
