WARD FOUR MEETING.

One of the largest ward meetings ever held in this city was that which took place in the City Building last evening to nominate candidates for the coming civic election, it being estimated that there were 300 electors present.

P. Blake, Esq., was on motion appointed chairman, and the undersigned secretary.

The retiring Councillors for the ward, H. Haszard and L. P. Tanton, gave an account of their stewardship during the past two years, to the satisfaction of those present, after which the meeting proceeded to nominate candidates for the approaching election as follows:—

D. Nicholson, Esq., nominated by B. C. Prowse, seconded by Geo. W. Gardiner and carried.

Dr. H. D. Johnson, nominated by W. D. McKay, seconded by James H. Good, and carried.

S. W. Crabb, nominated by John McPhail, Esq., seconded by Capt D. Stewart, and carried.

F. H. Beer, nominated by Capt D. Stewart, seconded by John McPhail, and carried.

Each of the candidates then in turn addressed the meeting.

Mr. Nicholson thanked the electors for the promises of support he had already received, and from the canvas he had made felt confident of success; if elected would safeguard the interests of the ward and the City generally.

Dr. H. D. Johnson made a good impression on the meeting. He was not a politician, but from the hearty nomination he had received he felt it his duty to accept. He thought the promise of support given to other candidates in their canvass should not now hold good, as no candidates were up to date properly in the field.

Messrs. Crabbe and Beer were also confident of success, but they wished to have it distinctly understood that if any person who had promised his vote to them wished to be relieved, they would now freely relieve them, and if they wished to vote for either of the other candidates they were free to do so.

Mr. Crabbe said he was the nominee of no clique or party, but was requested to run by a large number of electors of the ward. Mr. Beer wanted to run a friendly campaign with his opponents, and was willing to leave his past record in the hands of the electors and take a verdict from their minds.

Mr. J. F. Whear then addressed the meeting, and thanked the electors for the loyal support he had met with in his canvass, and expressed regret at his inability to contest the ward. The chairman then asked the electors present if they wished to ask any questions.

Mr. John McLeod would like to ascertain the views of the candidates on the Park Roadway and Sewerage questions.

All the candidates answered the questions to the satisfaction of those present.

On motion a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the chairman.

The meeting then adjourned by giving three lusty cheers and a tiger for the "the people's candidates," Messrs. Nicholson and Johnson.

GALLAS POINT NOTES.

Our school is progressing favourably under the management of Mr. J. M. Jones, of Pownal, who came here New Year's, and is proving himself to be a very painstaking and efficient teacher.

Mr. Geo. A. Carrier returned home last week after a sojourn of several weeks in Crapaud.

The President of our debating society, Mr. Matthias Praught, who has been spending the past few weeks with his friends in the western section of this Island, also returned home last week.

Our debating society continues to meet with good success. On the 17th inst. a very interesting discussion took place, the subject being "Which country has produced the greatest men—the States or Scotland?" Mr. Neil Praught occupied the chair. Messrs. Ernest Nelson and Francis M. McInnis, who spoke in favor of the States, gave brief, but interesting sketches of the lives of the many great Americans such as Lincoln, Grant, Washington, Jefferson, Longfellow, Whittier, Edison and others, and argued that they were greater men in every respect than those of Scotland.

Messrs. Solomon Cavanagh, Seymour Young and Austin McInnis argued in favor of Scotland, claiming that she has produced some of the greatest men the world has ever seen, instancing Wallace, Bruce, Sir John Moore, Sir Colin Campbell, Scott, Burns, our Grand Old Man, Sir John Macdonald, and many others of Scotland's illustrious sons of fame. Besides recounting the great achievements that made the men famous, the speakers commented on the many noble traits and virtues, as well as the great abilities—both mental and physical—for which the Scotsmen are characteristic; and, while acknowledging the greatness of some of the men quoted by their opponents, claimed the chief characteristics of the Yankee to be "brag, bluster and trickery." The chairman's decision in favor of Scotland was loudly applauded, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered him for his impartial decision.

The subject for debate on Friday evening next is, "Should the proposed Southern Railway be built?"

Rubbing It In.

Never use a liniment for rheumatism, says a high authority. Don't rub it in—drive it out. Take something that removes the acid poison from the blood—take something that will improve your digestion, and build up the body to the perfection of robust health. That "something" is Scott's Sarsaparilla, a remedy that obtains the best results in the shortest time. $1, of all druggists.

Albert Tollis, of Brock, has been brought to Fowler, Ind., by the deputy sheriff, and lodged in jail to prevent his being lynched. It seems that on Sunday night Tollis was annoyed by the crying of his eight months' old babe. He seized the baby and squeezed its head between his knees until blood gushed from its ears and nose. The child died next day, and a charge of murder was preferred against the father.

President Cleveland has contributed several phrases to popular speech, but his last one, flung with the force of a paving stone against the glass window of a newspaper office, is his best. He must have been boiling over when he said the editor was "maliciously mendacious."

LADIES, clean your kid gloves with Josephine Glove Cleaner. It is not a liquid gives no odor, and can be used while the glove is on the hand. For sale only at A. W. Reddin's drugstore. tf.

At the prices quoted on sheeting, pillow cotton, linen, men's collars and cuffs, toweling, etc., etc., it ought to go faster than the machinery that made it.—Paton & Co.

MR. DOUSE'S CANDIDATURE.

SIR,—I notice a communication in the Guardian of the 29th inst., in which "An Elector, Ward One," has assumed a coarse and menacing attitude in giving expression to his unqualified disapproval of Mr. Henry Douse's presuming to offer as a candidate for Ward One in the pending civic elections. Of course, it is fair to assume that such incourteous and inelegant language could not possibly emanate from a man of culture or of gentlemanly habits, but only from one whose mind has assumed an abnormal state and is capable only of indulging in such ridiculous vagaries as insolently characterise his foolish and arbitrary assertions. The truth is that the majority of the intelligent electors of Ward one, are decidedly in favor of Mr. Douse, and hail his appearance in the civic contest with expressions of the most enthusiastic approval. We, I presume, rightly recognize him as a man, who is, in every respect, eminently qualified to fill, with credit to himself and profit to the ward, the important and honorable position to which he aspires. It is indeed, the unfeigned and strongly expressed desire of the intelligent electors of Ward one, that Mr Douse will confer upon them the honor of standing as candidate for their ward, and should he deem it his duty do so he may rest perfectly satisfied that he will be elected with a respectable majority over any candidate who may, in a moment of weakness, be prevailed upon to offer him a factious opposition, by such unreliable and unrepresentative electors as the boisterous and cranky creature who has the unpardonable audacity to arrogate to himself the privilege of acting as the authorized mouth-piece and oracle of the electors of ward one. The result of the contest, I feel confident, will ultimately teach "An Elector, Ward One" the beauty and propriety of moderation and gentlemanly courtesy; and will, in the future, effectually prevent his hair from assuming that peculiarly elevated attitude which distinctly and unmistakably indicates the uncouthness of his habits and the ferocity of his nature.

A CITIZEN, WARD ONE.

January 29th, 1896.

OLIGARCHY DENOUNCED

SIR,—Nineteenth century democracy does not seem to permeate civic politics.

A certain organization wants to run the city. It is not: "Whom do the people want?" but "Whom shall we foist upon the people?" In local and federal politics no man thinks of coming out till at least he is asked to do so, and even then he must be nominated by a representative vote of the district or riding. How different in civic affairs! A clique meet privately and sagely select candidates for a certain ward, without calling a public meeting, and without consulting the electorate.

Last night's meeting of Ward 4 was rebuke enough to this extraordinary mode of conducting nominations. The meeting was intelligent and representative; yet when the name of one of the champions of this "combine" was put to the meeting for nomination, it was received with an almost universal "nay."

Candidates like these should be sent home and told to remain there till they are called for.

Our ancestors reddened the fields of the "old sod" with their best blood to establish those privileges that are now attempted to be trampled on by a petty oligarchy.
