Dr. Darrach held a post mortem examination on the remains, and an inquest is being held this afternoon. The deceased, Burns, leaves a wife and family in this city.

THE Moncton correspondent of the St. John Telegraph reports:—"So far the Scott Act has proved a failure in Moncton. The decision of the Stipendiary Magistrate, on the 25th, will, no doubt, deter the temperance party from future interference, or at least until September next, when the electors shall have another chance to determine whether or not the act shall again be adopted. In the case of Mr. Rand, the magistrate decided that the evidence was insufficient on the part of the prosecution and accordingly dismissed the case. In the case of Dr. Oulton no one appeared to prosecute, and it, too, was dismissed. Since Friday last, Dalziel, the informer, has not been seen in Moncton, and it is believed he has gone home to P. E. Island.

Telegraph Notes.

The sanitary commission pronounces the epidemic at Damietta to be cholera. The number of cases is increasing.

The condition of the Queen is greatly improved. Her Majesty was able to walk from the train to the carriage on her arrival at Windsor from Balmoral.

The Queen has invited the painter Angeli to go to England and take a life-sized portrait of her which she will present to the Emperor William on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his assumption of the Regency of Prussia.

An collision occurred on the 25th on the Havana and Matanzas Railroad. Eight persons were killed and many injured. The number of the wounded is not yet known, the sufferers having been sent to Matanza.

It transpires that private advices of terrible mortality at Vera Cruz from yellow fever were received in Galveston, by cable. The best information gleaned from an entirely reliable person in constant telegraphic communication with Vera Cruz is to the effect that the first and worst reports of Saturday are correct.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says that a number of warehouses used for storing herring and cotton on the Island of Gutujewsky, at the mouth of the Neva, have been burning since two o'clock this afternoon. Several vessels in the river are on fire. Later.—The loss so far is estimated at 15,000,000 roubles.

A note from Cardinal Jacobini, Papal Secretary of State, expressed regret that Prussia had preferred legislation to negotiation on the church question, was handed to Herr Van Schloeger, Prussian representative to the Vatican, on Friday last. The protest is merely a formal one. Prussia has replied in a friendly spirit.

A reception was given at St. Louis on the 25th to Patrick Egan. It was attended by a large number of Irish citizens. Egan made a brief speech, acknowledging the compliment made him, and exhorting all to stand by the national league. The only notable feature of the occasion was the prolonged hissing of Judge John H. O'Neill, when in his speech he deprecated and denounced the murder of Lord Cavendish.

The Planters' Cotton Seed Oil Works, at Algiers, Louisiana, were struck by lightning during a thunder storm on the 25th and set on fire and entirely destroyed. This was the largest cotton seed oil mill in existence. The loss is roughly estimated at $1,000,000. The stock and machinery are said to be fully insured, mostly in local companies. Several cottages adjoining the oil works were also destroyed. Five firemen were slightly scalded by the explosion of a tank.

Of 575 passengers on the steamer "Furberia," from Liverpool, on the 25th, two-thirds were "assisted immigrants." An examination at Castle Garden by the Emigration Commissioners developed the fact that nearly all were passengers sent over by the poor law guardians of Ireland, and all were "assisted" by Government money on their passage. They were all detained until a meeting of the Emigration Commissioners was held on the 26th, and the steamer will probably be compelled to take them back.

Mr. O'Donnell, member of Parliament for Dunganran, in a letter to the Dublin Freeman's Journal, says the adoption by the Parnellite members of Parliament of the so-called bill providing for the abolition of the Irish Vicar-Royalty forces him as a home ruler to resign from the party, at its next meeting, as he says the bill really is intended to convert the Vicar-Royalty into a principal secretaryship of state, the incumbent of which is to be appointed by the Queen from among the Irish members of Parliament.

Later intelligence shows that the affray at Carragh was between North Mayo and Dublin militia men and not between the former and British troops, as first reported. It originated in a gambling dispute, during which the Mayo men called the Dublin men Carey's and Invincibles. The fight lasted over an hour, each side using stones and fire arms freely. The conflict was only quelled by officers threatening to fire upon the men. One of the men killed was a sergeant. The latest report in regard to the affray is seventeen men wounded and none killed.

Intelligence of a frightful calamity at a place of amusement in the town of Ferris, on the shore of Lake Como, has just been received in London. Advices state that while a performance was in progress at the Puppato theatre, at that place, the structure took fire and was entirely destroyed. Forty-seven persons lost their lives and twelve others were injured. The show was held in a large hall over a tavern. Ninety persons were in the hall. A Bengal light was used to represent fire, and sparks from this set fire to a quantity of straw and firewood stored in an adjacent room. On perceiving the flames the showman shouted "fire," but the spectators thought the cry was merely part of the show, and remained seated. Cries of fire were soon raised outside the hall. The audience, thinking an affray had arisen in the street, barred with a heavy table the door leading from the hall. They did not discover their mistake until the flames burst into the room. After the fire was extinguished, 47 charred corpses were found near the table, including the bodies of the showman and wife.

 Mrs. S. A. Allen's
 WORLD'S
Hair Restorer
 IS PERFECTION!

Public Benefactress. Mrs. S. A. ALLEN has justly earned this title, and thousands are this day rejoicing over a fine head of hair produced by her unequalled preparation for restoring, invigorating, and beautifying the Hair. Her World's Hair Restorer quickly cleanses the scalp, removing Dandruff, and arrests the fall; the hair, if gray, is changed to its natural color, giving it the same vitality and luxuriant quantity as in youth.

COMPLIMENTARY. "My hair is now restored to its youthful color; I have not a gray hair left. I am satisfied that the preparation is not a dye, but acts on the secretions. My hair ceases to fall, which is certainly an advantage to me, who was in danger of becoming bald." This is the testimony of all who use Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER.

"One Bottle did it." That is the expression of many who have had their gray hair restored to its natural color, and their hair spot covered with hair, after using one bottle of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S WORLD'S HAIR RESTORER. It is not a dye.
